2002 No. 106

The Scottish Commission for the Regulation of Care (Appointments and Procedure) Regulations 2002

Appointment of committees and sub-committees

8.—(1) Subject to any directions given to it by the Scottish Ministers and to regulation 9 below the Commission may, and if so directed by the Scottish Ministers shall, appoint committees of the Commission.

(2) A committee appointed by the Commission may appoint sub-committees.

(3) Committees shall consist of—

- (a) a committee convener who is the convener or a member, and
- (b) other persons (whether the convener or members or not), appointed by the Commission.

(4) Sub-committees shall consist of—

- (a) a sub-committee convener who,
 - (i) if the convener or a member, is appointed by the committee, or
 - (ii) if not such a person, is appointed by the Commission, and
- (b) other persons who,
 - (i) if the convener or members, are appointed by the committee, or
 - (ii) if not such persons are appointed by the Commission.

(5) Sub-committees shall be responsible to the committee which appoints them and shall report only to that committee.
