2002 No. 120

The Regulation of Care (Excepted Services) (Scotland) Regulations 2002

Support services

2. There is excepted from the definition of a “support service” in section 2(2) of the Act any service which consists wholly of one or more of the following:—

- (a) a service which provides personal care or personal support to a person (“the recipient”) within the recipient’s home;
- (b) field social work;
- (c) counselling which is not provided in residential accommodation as part of a planned programme of care; or
- (d) a service which consists of the provision of assistance to a person to enable that person to prepare for, obtain or engage in any work.
