(3) Where fees and outlays are recovered by virtue of an award of expenses in favour of a person who has received legal aid or of an agreement as to expenses in favour of such a person—

- (a) accounts of such fees and outlays, where they are taxed, shall be taxed as if the work done for that person were not legal aid; and
 - (b) the Board may, subject to paragraphs (4) and (5), instead of making payment in accordance with paragraph (2), pay to the solicitor (and counsel as the case may be) who acted for that person, the amount of any fees and outlays so recovered.
- (4) The Board shall only make payment in accordance with paragraph (3)(b) where—
- (a) it receives a request for such payment from the solicitor who, at the conclusion of the proceedings, was acting for the person in receipt of legal aid; and
 - (b) that solicitor has consulted with any counsel who was acting for that person at the conclusion of the proceedings regarding that request.

(5) The Board shall deduct from the sum payable in accordance with paragraph (3)(b) the amount of any payment made, or due to be made, by it to the solicitor or counsel referred to in paragraph (4), or to any other solicitor or counsel who previously acted for that person, in respect of those proceedings.”.

5. In regulation 5(3) (fees and outlays allowable to solicitors)—

- (a) omit “Restrictive Practices Court,”; and
- (b) after “Lands Tribunal for Scotland” insert “, or before the Child Support Commissioners or the Social Security Commissioners,”.

6. In regulation 10(2) (fees allowable to counsel in certain proceedings)—

- (a) omit “Restrictive Practices Court,”; and
- (b) after “Lands Tribunal for Scotland” insert “, or before the Child Support Commissioners or the Social Security Commissioners,”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Civil Legal Aid (Scotland) (Fees) Regulations 1989 (“the principal Regulations”) so that where there is an award of judicial expenses in favour of a person in receipt of civil legal aid, the Scottish Legal Aid Board may, if requested by that person’s solicitor, pay those expenses to the solicitor (and any counsel who acted in the case) instead of the fees and outlays prescribed in the principal Regulations (regulation 4).

Regulations 5(b) and 6(b) amend the principal Regulations to provide that certain fees prescribed in those Regulations shall be payable to solicitors and counsel for work done in relation to proceedings before the Social Security Commissioners and the Child Support Commissioners.

The Regulations also remove references to the Restrictive Practices Court (regulations 3, 5(a) and 6(a)).

Status:

Point in time view as at 01/12/2002.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Civil Legal Aid (Scotland) (Fees) Amendment Regulations 2002.
