
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2006 No. 133

The Water Environment (Oil
Storage) (Scotland) Regulations 2006

Storage in portable containers

4. Where oil is stored in any portable container with a storage capacity of less than 200 litres, the container must be of sufficient strength and structural integrity so as to ensure that it is unlikely to burst or leak in its ordinary use.