The Charities Reorganisation (Scotland) Regulations 2007

Notice of objection to proposed reorganisation scheme

5.—(1) Where, following the publication of the notice of the proposed reorganisation scheme of a charity on OSCR's website in accordance with regulation 3(2) or in a newspaper in accordance with regulation 4, any person wishes to object to the proposed reorganisation scheme, that person shall send a notice of objection to OSCR to arrive not later than the latest date for receipt of objections by OSCR as specified in the notice.

(2) The notice of objection shall state—

- (a) the name and address of the person objecting;
- (b) the nature of their interest in the charity, if any; and
- (c) the nature of the objection and the reasons for it.
