2007 No. 76

The Licensing (Clubs) (Scotland) Regulations 2007

Occasional licences

3.—(1) The fact that a premises licence is in effect in respect of premises used wholly or mainly for the purposes of a club which falls within the description prescribed in regulation 2(1) is not (despite the exclusion of licensed premises in section 56(1) of the Act) to prevent an occasional licence being issued in respect of those premises.

(2) A Licensing Board may issue in respect of those premises in any period of 12 months—

(a) not more than 4 occasional licenses each having effect for a period of 4 days or more, and

(b) not more than 12 occasional licences each having effect for a period of less than 4 days, provided that, in any period of 12 months, the total number of days on which occasional licences issued in respect of the premises have effect does not exceed 56.

(3) For any period during which an occasional licence has effect in respect of those premises, the conditions of any premises licence issues in respect of the premises are not to have effect.
