Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

NOTES FOR DEBTOR - READ CAREFULLY

1. If you do nothing in response to this Demand you could be made bankrupt.

Please do not ignore this form

2. (a) If you deny that you owe the sum demanded or any part of it; or
(b) If you accept that you owe the sum demanded but deny that you have to pay it or any part of it immediately (even though you may admit that you must pay it at some time), you must fill in the attached Denial Slip (or a copy of it) and post it, or a letter to the same effect, to the creditor by RECORDED DELIVERY POST. This should be done immediately and before the end of the 3 week period mentioned in paragraph 4 of the form. If you do not do so, you could be made bankrupt.

You should keep a copy of what you send to the creditor and the recorded delivery slip.

3. If however, you accept—
 - (a) that you owe the sum demanded, and
 - (b) that you have to pay the sum demanded immediately to the creditor, you should either pay the sum demanded or find security for such payment. If you cannot do either you should get in touch with the creditor immediately and try to agree with him a way of paying off the sum demanded perhaps by paying by instalments.

Even if the creditor agrees that the sum demanded or any part of it need not be paid immediately to him, you should still send the Denial Slip as in Note 2 above, to protect you from the possibility of being bankrupt.

4. If you are in any doubt as to—
 - (a) whether you owe the sum demanded or any part of it; or
 - (b) whether the sum demanded or any part of it must be paid immediately; or
 - (c) whether any details mentioned in connection with the debt(s) in paragraph 2 and 3 of the form are correct; or
 - (d) about what you should do with this form or its implications, you should seek advice immediately from a solicitor, insolvency practitioner, money adviser or from a Citizens Advice Bureau.

Warning to person Receiving Demand

Please do not ignore this form

If you do nothing in response to this demand, you could be made bankrupt and your property and goods taken away from you. Please read carefully this Demand and Notes for Debtors.

If you are in any doubt about that to do, you should seek advice immediately from a solicitor, insolvency practitioner, money adviser or a Citizens Advice Bureau.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- Q8a. Tick 'yes' if your weekly income is less than £220.80 a week before deductions for any tax, NI contributions etc. You do not need to include any social security benefits or tax credits in this figure. You should not include any income, social security benefits or tax credits which are paid to any other member of your household, for example, your partner.
- Q8b. Tick 'yes' if you receive income-based social security benefits or working tax credits (even if this makes your total income more than £220.80). Examples of these benefits include Income Support; Income-based Jobseekers' Allowance, Housing Benefit and Council Tax Benefit.
- Q8c. Tick 'yes' if you personally receive no income or benefits. For example, if you are wholly reliant on the income of another person in your household, or if you do not receive wages, social security benefits, or any other income of your own.
- Q8d. Tick 'yes' if you own all or any part of a house, land, timeshare or any other property, including business or agricultural property in Scotland or any other country. Tick 'yes' if your name is on title deeds, even if you do not personally contribute to any mortgage repayments, or if you are no longer meeting your repayments.
- Q8e. Tick 'yes' if you own any items excluding any property worth £1,000 or more.

If 'yes', provide details of each item and their approximate value in the table provided.

- Q9a. Tick 'yes' if the total value of your non-essential assets is more than £10,000. Do not include any property or land. Do not include any essential items.
- Q9b. Tick 'yes' if you have any secured debts.

A secured debt is one that is owed against a particular asset, normally property or land. The asset can be taken by the person or company which gave you the loan if you do not keep up the repayments.

For example: A mortgage over a property is a secured debt.

- Q9c. Tick 'yes' if you have debts of £1,500 or more. You must have total debts of £1,500 or more before you can make yourself bankrupt. This can be a single debt or a total of several debts.

Notes

1. Section 32 of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985 allows your trustee to seek a contribution from your surplus income. This is known as an Income Payment Agreement (IPA) or an Income Payment Order (IPO).
2. You are expected to pay a contribution out of what is left of your income after you have paid for the essential things you need to maintain your house and support yourself and your family. You will be expected to sign and comply with the terms of an IPA. If you cannot agree how much you should pay, your trustee can apply to the sheriff for an IPO, instructing you how much you have to pay. You may be committing a criminal offence if you do not comply with the terms of an IPO.
3. You cannot be asked to make a payment out of your social security benefits but if you have other income then your social security benefits may be taken into account when calculating how much you can afford to pay out of your other income.
4. You have a duty to cooperate with your trustee and to provide details of your income and expenditure. If you do not cooperate, your trustee can seek a court order against you and ask the sheriff to defer your date of discharge from bankruptcy.
5. An IPA cannot be made after the date you are discharged from bankruptcy.
6. An IPA can last for 3 years from the date it begins even if this continues past the date of your discharge.
8. This agreement may be varied if you and your trustee agree in writing.
9. If you and your trustee cannot agree, you both have the right to ask the sheriff to vary the IPA.
10. Another interested party (for example, one of your creditors) can also ask the sheriff to vary the IPA.
11. You can agree for a third party (for example, an employer) to make payments direct to your trustee out of money that they are due to pay to you. If you agree to payments direct from your earnings you should complete the authorisation for your employer to make deductions in section A of the mandate in Part 2 of this form.
12. If you do not agree to a direct payment from your employer you must complete section A of the mandate in Part 3 of this form to allow a contribution to be made from your bank account.
13. If you do not keep to this agreement, your trustee can apply to the sheriff for an IPO (see note 2 above) even if this is after the date of your discharge from bankruptcy.
14. The first payment under this agreement will not be collected until at least 14 days after the date you sign it. This allows you a chance to contact your trustee if you think that the agreement should be altered after you have signed it.
15. "pay day" means any day on which your employer pays earnings to you, except that the first pay day must be at least 14 days after date on which you sign this form.
