
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2009 No. 213

The Town and Country Planning (Temporary Stop Notice) (Scotland) Regulations 2009

Circumstances in which temporary stop notice does not prohibit stationing of caravan

2.—(1) The stationing of a caravan on any land in the circumstances specified in paragraph (2) is an activity prescribed for the purposes of section 144B(1)(b) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997.

(2) The circumstances are that—

- (a) the caravan is stationed on the land immediately before the issue of the temporary stop notice;
- (b) the caravan is at that time occupied by a person as that person's main residence.