1. This application is made pursuant to section 27 of the Act.
2. The applicant is an investigator duly appointed in terms of section 21(2) of the Act to carry out a public health investigation.
3. The said premises are*/are not* a dwellinghouse.
4. The said premises are within the jurisdiction of this court.
5. The applicant considers it necessary for the purpose of, or in connection with, a public health investigation to exercise the powers of entry available to him under section 22 of the Act, the other investigatory powers mentioned in section 23 of the Act, the power to ask questions mentioned in section 24 of the Act and any supplementary power mentioned in section 25 of the Act (insert here a brief statement of reasons).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

*6. [If the said premises are a dwellinghouse] The applicant has in terms of section 26(2) of the Act given 48 hours notice of the proposed entry to a person who appears to be the occupier of the dwellinghouse and the period of notice has expired.

*7. The applicant is an investigator entitled to enter premises under section 22 of the Act and *the applicant has been refused entry to the said premises, or *the applicant reasonably anticipates that entry will be refused

OR

*7. The said premises are premises which the applicant is entitled to enter and they are unoccupied.

OR

*7. The said premises are premises which the applicant is entitled to enter and the occupier thereof is temporarily absent and there is urgency because (here state briefly why there is urgency).

OR

*7. The applicant is an investigator entitled to exercise a power under section 23 or 24 of the Act and *has been prevented from exercising that power, or *reasonably anticipates being prevented from exercising that power.

OR

*7 An application for admission to the said premises would defeat the object of the public health investigation.

8. In the circumstances narrated the applicant is entitled to the warrant sought and it should be granted accordingly.

FORM OF APPLICATION FOR RECALL OF AN ORDER GRANTED IN THE ABSENCE OF THE PERSON TO WHOM IT APPLIES UNDER SECTION 59 OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH ETC. (SCOTLAND) ACT 2008

NOTES

This form should be used if you wish to apply to the sheriff for an order recalling a quarantine order OR a short term detention order OR an exceptional detention order which was made in the absence of the person to whom the order applies.

If you are the person to whom the order applies, you or your solicitor should complete and sign PART A and deliver it to the sheriff clerk of the sheriff court at which you wish to make your application.

If you are not the person to whom the order applies but instead are a person who has an interest in the welfare of the person to whom the order applies, you or your solicitor should complete and sign PART B and deliver it to the sheriff clerk of the sheriff court at which you wish to make your application.

Your application MUST be received by the sheriff clerk before the expiry of the period of 72 hours beginning with the time at which the order which you wish to be recalled was notified to you (or, as the case may be, the person to whom the order applies).

You should note that, despite the making of your application, the order which you wish recalled will REMAIN IN FORCE unless and until it is revoked by the sheriff.

Before determining your application the sheriff must give you and various other parties (who are specified in section 59(7) of the Act) the opportunity of making representations (whether orally or in writing) and of leading, or producing, evidence.

IF YOU ARE UNCERTAIN WHAT ACTION TO TAKE you should consult a solicitor. You may be entitled to legal aid depending on your financial circumstances, and you can get information about legal aid from a solicitor. You may also obtain advice from any Citizens Advice Bureau or other advice agency.

FORM OF NOTE OF APPEAL UNDER SECTION 61 OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH ETC. (SCOTLAND) ACT 2008

NOTES

This form should be used if you wish to appeal to the sheriff under section 61 of the Public Health etc. (Scotland) Act 2008 in relation to an exclusion order OR a restriction order. A copy of the section is set out below.

If you are the person to whom the order applies, you or your solicitor should complete and sign PART A and deliver it to the sheriff clerk of the sheriff court at which you wish to appeal.

If you are not the person to whom the order applies but instead are a person who has an interest in the welfare of the person to whom the order applies, you or your solicitor should complete and sign PART B and deliver it to the sheriff clerk of the sheriff court at which you wish to appeal.

The form MUST be received by the sheriff clerk before the expiry of 14 days beginning with the day on which the order, modification or, as the case may be, decision against which you wish to appeal was made.

IF YOU ARE UNCERTAIN WHAT ACTION TO TAKE you should consult a solicitor. You may be entitled to legal aid depending on your financial circumstances, and you can get information about legal aid from a solicitor. You may also obtain advice from any Citizens Advice Bureau or other advice agency.

61 Appeal against exclusion orders and restriction orders

- (1) This section applies where a person is subject to—
 - (a) an exclusion order; or
 - (b) a restriction order.
- (2) A person mentioned in subsection (3) may appeal to the sheriff against—
 - (a) the making of the order;
 - (b) any conditions imposed by the order;
 - (c) any modification of the order under section 48(2); or
 - (d) a decision of a health board competent person under section 52(4) or 53(3) not to revoke the order.
- (3) The person referred to in subsection (2) is—
 - (a) the person in relation to whom the order applies; or
 - (b) any person who has an interest in the welfare of such a person.
- (4) An appeal under this section must be made before the expiry of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the order, modification or, as the case may be, decision appealed against is made.
- (5) On an appeal under this section, the sheriff may—
 - (a) confirm the order appealed against;
 - (b) modify the order;
 - (c) revoke the order;
 - (d) confirm the decision appealed against;
 - (e) quash that decision;
 - (f) make such other order as the sheriff considers appropriate.
- (6) In subsection (5)(b), “modify” is to be construed in accordance with section 48.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

This Act of Sederunt amends the Act of Sederunt (Summary Applications, Statutory Applications and Appeals etc. Rules) 1999 by inserting a new Part XXXVIII into Chapter 3 of those Rules, relating to applications and appeals to the sheriff for various warrants and orders under Parts 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Public Health etc. (Scotland) Act 2008.

Rule 3.39.2 and Forms 36 and 37 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, a warrant for a public health investigation under section 27(2) of the Act.

Rule 3.39.3 and Forms 38 and 39 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, orders for a medical examination under section 34(1) of the Act. Rule 3.39.3 also makes provision in relation to intimation of such an application and notification of such an order.

Rule 3.39.4 and Forms 40 and 41 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, a quarantine order under section 40(1) of the Act. Rule 3.39.4 also makes provision in relation to intimation of such an application and notification of such an order.

Rule 3.39.5 and Forms 42, 43, 44 and 45 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, a short term detention order under section 42(1) of the Act. Rule 3.39.5 also makes provision in relation to intimation of such an application and notification of such an order.

Rule 3.39.6 and Forms 46 and 47 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, an exceptional detention order under section 45(1) of the Act. Rule 3.39.6 also makes provision in relation to intimation of such an application and notification of such an order.

Rule 3.39.7 and Forms 48 and 49 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, an order extending a quarantine order, a short term detention order or an exceptional detention order under section 49(5) of the Act. Rule 3.39.7 also makes provision in relation to intimation of such an application and notification of such an order.

Rule 3.39.8 and Forms 50 and 51 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, an order modifying a quarantine order, a short term detention order or an exceptional detention order under section 51(1) of the Act. Rule 3.39.8 also makes provision in relation to intimation of such an application and notification of such an order.

Rule 3.39.9 and Forms 52 and 53 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, the recall of a quarantine order, a short term detention order or an exceptional detention order under section 59 of the Act.

Rule 3.39.10 makes provision in relation to intimation of applications relating to persons under 16.

Rule 3.39.11 provides that where a quarantine order, short term detention order or exceptional detention order is intimated on the person to whom the order applies, a Form 52 (form of application for recall) must be delivered along with the order.

Rule 3.39.12 includes procedural requirements in relation to appeals to a sheriff against an exclusion order or a restriction order made under the Act.

Rule 3.39.13 and Forms 55 and 56 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, a warrant for entry and to take steps under section 78 of the Act.

Rule 3.39.14 and Forms 57 and 58 prescribe forms for applying for, and granting, an order for the disposal of a body by a local authority under section 93 of the Act.

Rule 3.39.15 provides that an application for the appointment of a single arbiter to determine a dispute in relation to compensation may be made in the form of a letter addressed to the sheriff clerk.
