- (iii) whether the sale should be subject to any upset or minimum price and, if so, the amount;
 - (iv) the manner and extent to which the property should be advertised for sale; and
 - (v) any other matter which the reporter considers pertinent to a sale of the property.
- (2) A remit under paragraph (1) shall be made—
 - (a) where the action is undefended, on the motion of the pursuer at any time after the expiry of the period of notice;
 - (b) where the action is defended—
 - (i) at the options hearing, on the motion of any party to the action;
 - (ii) on the sheriff finding, after a debate or proof, that the pursuer is entitled to bring and insist in the action of division and sale; or
 - (iii) at such other time as the sheriff thinks fit.
- (3) On completion of a report made under paragraph (1), the reporter shall send the report, with a copy for each party, to the sheriff clerk.
- (4) On receipt of such report, the sheriff clerk must—
 - (a) lodge the report in process; and
 - (b) give written intimation to each party that this has been done and that parties may uplift a copy of the report from the process.
- (5) After the lodging of such a report, any party may apply by motion for further procedure or for approval of the report.
- (6) At the hearing of a motion under paragraph (5), the sheriff may—
 - (a) in the event of a challenge to any part of the report, order parties to state their objections to the report and answers to such objections and lodge them within such period as the sheriff thinks fit; or
 - (b) in the absence of such challenge, order that the property be divided or sold, as the case may be, in accordance with the recommendations of the reporter, subject to such modification, if any, as the sheriff thinks fit.
- (7) Where, in accordance with paragraph (6)(a), the lodging of objections and answers has been ordered, the sheriff clerk will fix a date and time for the parties to be heard by the sheriff; and the sheriff may make such order for further procedure as he or she thinks fit.

Division and/or sale of property

- 47.2.—(1) Where the sheriff orders the division and/or sale of property, heritable or otherwise, the sheriff shall direct that the division and/or sale, as the case may be, shall be conducted under the oversight and direction of the sheriff clerk or any other fit person whom the sheriff may appoint for that purpose.
- (2) The sheriff clerk or person appointed under paragraph (1), as the case may be, may report any matter of difficulty arising in the course of the division and/or sale to the sheriff.
 - (3) At a hearing on a report made under paragraph (2), the sheriff may give such directions as the sheriff thinks fit, including authority to the sheriff clerk to sign, on behalf of any proprietor, a disposition of his or her interest in the property.
 - (4) On the conclusion of a sale of property—
 - (a) the proceeds of the sale, under deduction of the expenses of the sale, shall be consigned into court; and

- (b) the sheriff clerk or the person appointed under paragraph (1), as the case may be, shall lodge in process a report of the sale and a proposed scheme of division of the proceeds of sale.
- (5) At the hearing of a motion for approval of a report of the sale of property lodged under paragraph (4) and the proposed scheme of division, the sheriff may—
 - (a) approve the report and scheme of division, and direct that payment of the proceeds of sale be made in terms of the report;
 - (b) deal with any question as to the expenses of process or of sale; and
 - (c) make such other order as the sheriff thinks fit.”.

Ordinary Cause Rules: Reporting restrictions

- 3.—(1) The Ordinary Cause Rules are amended in accordance with the following subparagraph.

[A.B.] (designation and address)

Applicant

against

[C.D.] (designation and address)

Respondent

Date: (date of interlocutor)

To: (name and address of party or parties or named third party haver, from whom the documents and other property are sought to be recovered)

THE SHERIFF having heard the applicant and being satisfied that it is appropriate to make an order under section 1 of the Administration of Justice (Scotland) Act 1972:

ORDERS the Summary Application to be served upon the person(s) named and designed in the application;

APPOINTS (name and designation of Commissioner) to be Commissioner of the court;

GRANTS commission and diligence;

ORDERS the Commissioner to explain to the haver on executing the order—

- (1) the meaning and effect of the order;
- (2) that the haver may be entitled to claim that certain of the documents and other property are confidential or privileged;
- (3) that the haver has a right to seek legal or other professional advice of his or her choice and to apply to vary or recall the order; and to give the haver a copy of the Notice in Form 11B of Schedule 1 to the Act of Sederunt (Summary Applications, Statutory Applications and Appeals etc. Rules) 1999.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

GRANTS warrant to and authorises the said Commissioner, whether the haver has allowed entry or not—

- (1) to enter, between the hours of 9am and 5pm on Monday to Friday, (or where the sheriff has found cause shown under rule 3.1.11(1), otherwise specify the time [and day]) the premises at (address of premises) and any other place in Scotland owned or occupied by the haver at which it appears to the Commissioner that any of the items set out in the statement of facts in the application to the court (the “listed items”) may be located;
- (2) to search for and take all other steps which the Commissioner considers necessary to take possession of or preserve (specify the listed items);
- (3) to take possession of and to preserve all or any of the listed items and to consign them with the Sheriff Clerk at (enter name and address of sheriff court) to be held by him or her pending the further orders of the sheriff;

and for that purpose,

ORDERS the haver or his/her servants or agents to allow the Commissioner, any person whom the Commissioner considers necessary to assist him/her, and the Applicant’s representatives to enter the premises named in the order and to allow them—

- (1) to search for the listed items and take such other steps as the Commissioner considers it reasonable to take to execute the order;
- (2) to remain in the premises until such time as the search is complete, including allowing them to continue the search on subsequent days if necessary.

FURTHER ORDERS the haver or his/her servants or agents—

- (1) (if appropriate) to provide access to information stored on any computer owned or used by him/her by supplying or providing the means to overcome any and all security mechanisms inhibiting access thereto;
- (2) to inform the Commissioner immediately of the whereabouts of the listed items;
- (3) to provide the Commissioner with a list of the names and addresses of everyone to whom he or she has given any of the listed items;

and not to destroy, conceal or tamper with any of the listed items except in accordance with the terms of this order;

FURTHER AUTHORISES (specify the representatives) to be the sole representatives of the Applicant to accompany the Commissioner for the purpose of identification of the said documents and other property.

(Signed)

Sheriff

SCHEDULE TO THE ORDER

Undertakings given by the Applicant

The Applicant has given the following undertakings—

1. That he/she will comply with any order of the sheriff as to payment of compensation if it is subsequently discovered that the order, or the implementation of the order, has caused loss to the respondent or, where the respondent is not the haver, to the haver.
2. That he/she will bring within a reasonable time of the execution of the order any proceedings which he/she decides to bring.
3. That he/she will not, without leave of the sheriff, use any information, documents or other property obtained as a result of the order, except for the purpose of any proceedings which he/she decides to bring and to which the order relates.

(or as modified under rule 3.1.4)

Form 11B

Rule 3.1.9(a)

Notice to accompany order in Form 11A when served by Commissioner

IMPORTANT

NOTICE TO PERSON ON WHOM THIS ORDER IS SERVED

1. This order orders you to allow the person appointed and named in the order as Commissioner to enter your premises to search for, examine and remove or copy the items mentioned in the order.
2. It also allows entry to the premises to any person appointed and named in the order as a representative of the person who has been granted the order and to any person accompanying the Commissioner to assist him/her.
3. No-one else is given authority to enter the premises.
4. You should read the order immediately.
5. You have the right to seek legal or other professional advice of your choice and you are advised to do so as soon as possible.
6. Consultation under paragraph 5 will not prevent the Commissioner from entering your premises for the purposes mentioned in paragraph 1 but if the purpose of your seeking advice is to help you to decide if you should ask the sheriff to vary or recall the order you are entitled to ask the Commissioner to delay searching the premises for up to 2 hours or such other longer period as the Commissioner may permit.
7. The Commissioner is obliged to explain the meaning and effect of the order to you.
8. The Commissioner is also obliged to explain to you that you are entitled to claim that the items, or some of them, are protected as confidential or privileged.
9. You are entitled to ask the sheriff to vary or recall the order provided that—
 - (a) you take steps to do so at once; and
 - (b) you allow the Commissioner, any person appointed as a representative of the person who has been granted the order and any person accompanying the Commissioner to assist him/her, to enter the premises meantime.
10. The Commissioner and the persons mentioned as representatives or assistants have a right to enter the premises even if you refuse to allow them to do so, unless—
 - (a) you are female and alone in the premises and there is no female with the Commissioner (where the Commissioner is not herself female), in which case they have no right to enter the premises;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) the Commissioner serves the order before 9am or after 5pm on a weekday or at any time on a Saturday or Sunday (except where the sheriff has specifically allowed this, which will be stated in the order); in which cases you should refuse to allow entry.

- 11. You are entitled to insist that there is no-one (or no-one other than X) present who could gain commercially from anything which might be read or seen on your premises.
- 12. You are required to hand over to the Commissioner any of the items mentioned in the order which are in your possession.
- 13. You may be found liable for contempt of court if you refuse to comply with the order.

Paragraph 9(9)(f)

PART 2

Form 73A

Rule 5.47(1)(a)

Intimation of registration for enforcement in Scotland of a Maintenance Decision made by a Court in Denmark etc.

(Insert place)

(Insert date)

[A.B.], (Design)

Intimation is hereby given of the registration in the Maintenance Orders Register kept at [insert name and address of sheriff court] of a Maintenance Decision made by [name and address of Court] on [insert date of making order].

In terms of the said Maintenance Decision you are required [narrate terms of order and payee].

You may within [30 days] or [where the party against whom enforcement is sought has his/her habitual residence outwith the United Kingdom, 45 days] from the date of this intimation make an application to [insert name and address of sheriff court] to set aside the registration of the order by lodging with the sheriff clerk at [insert name and address of sheriff court] a summary application setting out the grounds of the application.

The grounds upon which an application to set aside the registration may be made are:

- (a) the court does not have jurisdiction;
- (b) such registration is manifestly contrary to public policy in any part of the United Kingdom. The test of public policy may not be applied to the rules relating to jurisdiction;
- (c) where the decision was given in default of appearance, if you were not served with the document which instituted the proceedings or with an equivalent document in sufficient time and in such a way as to enable you to arrange for your defence, unless you failed to commence proceedings to challenge the decision when it was possible for you to do so;
- (d) if the decision is irreconcilable with a Maintenance Decision given in a dispute between the same parties in Scotland or another part of the United Kingdom;
- (e) if the decision is irreconcilable with an earlier decision given in another Member Regulation State or in a third State in a dispute involving the same cause of action and between the same parties, provided that the earlier decision fulfils the conditions necessary for its recognition in Scotland or another part of the United Kingdom.

Note: A Maintenance Decision which has the effect of modifying an earlier Maintenance Decision on the basis of changed circumstances shall not be considered an irreconcilable decision within the meaning of points (d) and (e).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

Paragraph 2 amends the Ordinary Cause Rules to introduce a new procedure in respect of actions for division and sale and orders for the division and/or sale of property.

Paragraphs 3 and 8 amend the Ordinary Cause Rules and the Summary Application Rules to set out a procedure in relation to the notification of orders made by the court which impose reporting restrictions under section 4(2) of the Contempt of Court (Scotland) Act 1981. Rules are also included in relation to variation or revocation of such an order.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Paragraphs 4 and 5 make minor amendments to the Ordinary Cause Rules in relation to actions for, or arising from, personal injuries. The amendments mean that in rule 36.G1 and the associated timetable, reference is now made to a commission for recovery of documents being served rather than executed.

Paragraph 6 amends the Summary Application Rules in respect of searches under the Administration of Justice (Scotland) Act 1972.

Paragraph 7 amends the Summary Application Rules to introduce a new Part in consequence of the Forced Marriages Etc. (Protection and Jurisdiction) (Scotland) Act 2011.

Paragraph 9 amends the Act of Sederunt (Child Care and Maintenance Rules) 1997 in consequence of Council Regulation \(EC\) No. 4/2009.

Paragraph 10 contains a savings provision.
