The Banchory and Crathes Light Railway Order 2012

Citation and Commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Banchory and Crathes Light Railway Order 2012 and comes into force on 28th December 2012.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this Order—

“the Company” means The Deeside Railway Company Limited, a company limited by guarantee incorporated under the Companies Act 1985(1), company registration number SC241603, and having its registered office at Milton of Crathes, Banchory, Aberdeenshire AB31 5QH;

“the deposited plans” and “the deposited sections” mean respectively the plans and sections deposited in respect of the application for this Order with the Scottish Ministers and prepared in accordance with the Ministry of Transport (Light Railways) Procedure Rules 1927(2);

“electronic communications apparatus” has the same meaning as in the electronic communications code;

“the electronic communications code” has the same meaning as in Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the Communications Act 2003(3);

“the former railway” means so much of the former railway referred to in Schedule 1 to this Order as is situated within the limits of deviation;

“the limits of deviation” means the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans;

“the railway” means the railway authorised by article 3 and described in Schedule 1 to this Order including all lands and works relating thereto;

“the zero point” means that point being the point of commencement of the railway specified in Schedule 1 to this Order.

(2) Any enactment by which the construction and operation of the former railway was authorised shall have effect subject to the provisions of this Order.

(3) All distances, lengths, measurements and directions stated in any description of powers or lands shall be construed as if the words “or thereby” were inserted after each such distance, length, measurement and direction, and distances between points on a railway shall be taken to be measured along the railway.

The railway

3.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Company may on lands owned by or leased to or licensed to the Company construct, make and maintain a railway as described in Schedule 1

(1) 1985 c.6.

(2) S.I. 1927/196.

(3) 2003 c.21.

to this Order with all necessary works and conveniences connected therewith and work the same as a light railway under the provisions of the Light Railways Act 1896 and in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2) The Company shall obtain all additional certificates and authorisations required for the operation of the railway from the Office of Rail Regulation in terms of the Railways and Other Guided Transport Systems (Safety) Regulations 2006⁽⁴⁾.

Permitted deviation within limits

4. In constructing or maintaining the railway the Company may—
- (a) deviate laterally from the lines or situations shown on the deposited plans within the limits of deviation shown on those plans; and
 - (b) deviate vertically from the levels shown on the deposited sections—
 - (i) to any extent not exceeding 3 metres upwards; and
 - (ii) to any extent downwards as may be necessary or expedient.

Application and incorporation of enactments

5.—(1) The following provisions of the Railway Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845⁽⁵⁾ so far as the same are applicable for the purposes of, and are not inconsistent with or varied by, the provisions of this Order, are incorporated with and form part of this Order:—

Section 16 (Works to be executed);

Section 18 (Alteration of water and gas pipes, &c.);

Section 19 (Company not to disturb pipes until they have laid down others);

Section 20 (Pipes not to be laid contrary to Act of Parliament, and 18 inches surface road to be retained);

Section 21 (Company to make good all damage);

Section 22 (When railway crosses pipes, Company to make a culvert);

Section 23 (Penalty for obstructing supply of gas or water);

Section 60 (Works to be executed for the accommodation of adjoining lands);

Section 68 (Penalty on persons omitting to fasten gates);

Section 79 (Company to employ locomotive power, carriages &c.).

(2) Section 5 (Penalty for avoiding payment of fare) of the Regulation of Railways Act 1889⁽⁶⁾ shall apply to the railway.

Transfer of rights and obligations to Company, etc.

6. Except as may be otherwise provided in this Order, as from the date of coming into force of this Order—

- (a) the railway or any part of it shall continue to be subject to all statutory and other provisions applicable to the former railway at that date (in so far as they are still subsisting and capable of taking effect); and
- (b) the Company shall, to the exclusion of BRB (Residuary) Limited—

(4) S.I. 2006/599.

(5) 1845 c.33.

(6) 1889 c.57.

- (i) be entitled to the benefit of, and to exercise, all rights, powers and privileges relating to the former railway; and
- (ii) be subject to all obligations, statutory or otherwise, relating to the former railway (in so far as they are still subsisting and capable of taking effect), to the intent that BRB (Residuary) Limited shall be released from all such obligations.

As to footpath and accommodation level crossings

7.—(1) The Company may make and maintain the level crossings specified in Schedule 2 to this Order with all the necessary works and conveniences connected therewith.

(2) The Company shall carry out and maintain such other works as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of, in connection with, or in consequence of the construction of the said level crossings.

Operation of railway, etc.

8.—(1) The Company may operate and use the railway as a system, or part of a system, of transport for the carriage of passengers and goods.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), the motive power to be used on the railway shall be steam, diesel-electric, diesel, internal combustion, electric-battery or such other motive power as the Scottish Ministers may in writing approve.

(3) Nothing in this Order shall authorise the use of electrical power as motive power on the railway unless such power is obtained from storage batteries or from a source of generation entirely contained in, and carried along with, the engines and carriages.

(4) If electrical power is used as motive power on the railway, such electrical power shall not be used in such a manner as to cause, or be likely to cause, any interference with any electronic communications apparatus or with the use of such apparatus.

(5) Nothing in this Order, or in any enactment incorporated with or applied by this Order, shall prejudice or affect the operation of Part I of the Railways Act 1993(7).

(6) The railway shall be operated on a gauge of 1.435 metres (four feet eight and one half inches).

For protection of public gas suppliers

9. Nothing in this Order shall prejudice or affect the rights of any public gas supplier within the meaning of Part 1 of the Gas Act 1986(8) in any apparatus belonging to them or for the maintenance of which they are responsible, or any structure for the lodging therein of apparatus, being any apparatus or structure situate under, over or upon lands in or upon which the railway or any part thereof is constructed.

For protection of sewerage and water undertakers

10. For the protection of sewerage and water undertakers (in this article referred to as “the undertakers”) the following provisions shall, unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Company and the undertaker concerned, apply and have effect:

- (a) in this article, “the relevant pipe” in relation to an undertaker means any mains sewer or water supply pipe passing under or through the railway;

(7) 1993 c.43, as amended by the Transport Act 2000 (c. 38) and the Railways Act 2005 (c.14).

(8) 1986 c.44.

- (b) the Company shall not raise, sink or otherwise alter the position of, or in any way interfere with, any relevant pipe without the consent in writing of the undertaker concerned, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld;
- (c) where any relevant pipe is situated in or under any land owned or held for the purposes of the railway the Company shall at their own expense maintain all culverts over such relevant pipe which are in existence at the coming into force of this Order so as to leave the relevant pipe accessible for the purposes of repairs;
- (d) where any relevant pipe is required to be diverted for the purpose of the construction of the new railway, the Company shall undertake such diversion at their own expense;
- (e) the Company shall afford reasonable facilities to the undertakers for the execution and doing of all such works and things as may be reasonably necessary to enable them to inspect, repair, maintain, renew, replace, remove, alter or use any relevant pipe;
- (f) nothing in this Order shall prejudice or affect the rights of the undertakers in respect of any relevant pipe or the provisions of any agreement regulating the relations between the Company and the undertakers with regard to any relevant pipe whether made before or after this Order comes into force;
- (g) any difference arising between the Company and the undertakers under this article (other than a difference as to its meaning or construction) shall be referred to and settled by arbitration as regulated by the Arbitration (Scotland) Act 1894⁽⁹⁾.
