The Scottish Ministers make the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 27A(1), 27C, 30(1) and (3), 32, 34, 35, 35A, 35B(4) and (5), 35C(2), 36, 36A, 38(2)(b), 38A(1), 43, 43A, 59, 152 and 275 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997(a), and all other powers enabling them to do so.

PART 1

Introductory

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 2013 and come into force on 30th June 2013.

Application

2.—(1) Subject to Part 10 and paragraphs (2) to (4), these Regulations apply to—

- (a) applications for planning permission;

(a) 1997 c.8. The functions of the Secretary of State transferred to the Scottish Ministers by section 53 of the Scotland Act 1998 (c.46). Sections 27A and 27C were inserted by section 6, sections 35A, 35B and 35C by section 11, section 36A by section 13, section 38A by section 14 and section 43A by section 17 of the Planning etc. (Scotland) Act 2006 (asp 17) (“the 2006 Act”) and sections 32, 34, 36, 43, 59 and 275 were respectively substituted by or amended by sections 7, 10, 12, 16, 21 and 54(16) of the 2006 Act. Section 43A is amended by S.S.I. 2013/24 and 2013/26.

- (b) applications for approval, consent or agreement required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission; and
- (c) applications for a certificate under sections 150 (certificate of lawfulness of existing use or development) or 151 (certificate of lawfulness of proposed use or development) of the Act, made on or after 3rd August 2009.

(2) If a special development order is made, or has been made before the commencement of these Regulations, in relation to any land, these Regulations apply to that order only to such extent and subject to such modifications as may be specified in the order.

(3) These Regulations apply to an application for planning permission relating to marine fish farm development in accordance with regulation 36.

(4) These Regulations do not apply to applications for planning permission made under section 31A of the Act (planning permission in respect of the operation of a marine fish farm).

(4) Any requirement that a form is to be as set out in a specified Schedule is to be construed as meaning a form as so specified or a form substantially to the like effect.

(5) Any power conferred by these Regulations to give a direction is to be construed as including power to cancel or vary the direction by a subsequent direction.

PART 2

Pre-application consultation

Pre-application consultation – classes of development

4. The classes of development prescribed for the purposes of section 35A(1) of the Act (pre-application consultation: preliminary) are development belonging to the categories of national developments and major developments.

Content of pre-application screening notice

5.—(1) A notice under section 35A(3) of the Act in addition to the information mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 35B(4) of the Act (pre-application consultation: compliance), must also contain a statement as to whether or not the planning authority have adopted a screening opinion or the Scottish Ministers have made a screening direction in respect of the development to which the notice relates.

(2) In this regulation “screening opinion” and “screening direction” have the same meaning as in the Town and Country Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) (Scotland) Regulations 2011.

Content of proposal of application notice

6. A proposal of application notice must, in addition to those matters required by section 35B(4) of the Act, also contain an account of what consultation the applicant intends to undertake, when such consultation is to take place, with whom and what form it will take.

Pre-application consultation

7.—(1) The prospective applicant is to consult as respects a proposed application every community council any part of whose area is within or adjoins the land where the proposed development is situated and in doing so is to give a copy of the proposal of application notice to the community council.

(2) The prospective applicant is to—

- (a) hold at least one public event where members of the public may make comments to the prospective applicant as regards the proposed development; and
- (b) publish in a local newspaper circulating in the locality in which the proposed development is situated a notice containing—
 - (i) a description of, and the location of, the proposed development;
 - (ii) details as to where further information may be obtained concerning the proposed development;
 - (iii) the date and place of the public event;
 - (iv) a statement explaining how, and by when, persons wishing to make comments to the prospective applicant relating to the proposal may do so; and

- (v) a statement that comments made to the prospective applicant are not representations to the planning authority and if the prospective applicant submits an application there will be an opportunity to make representations on that application to the planning authority.

(3) A public event held by the prospective applicant in accordance with paragraph (2)(a) is not to be held earlier than 7 days after notification of the date and place of such event is given under paragraph (2)(b)(iii).

PART 3

Procedure on applications for planning permission

Applications for planning permission

8. Any application made under any of regulations 9 to 12 is to be made to the planning authority within whose district the development to which the application relates is situated.

Form and content of an application for planning permission

9.—(1) An application to a planning authority for planning permission (other than planning permission in principle) is to be made in accordance with this regulation.

(2) An application for planning permission must contain—

- (a) a written description of the development to which it relates;
- (b) the postal address of the land to which the development relates or, if the land in question has no postal address, a description of the location of the land; and
- (c) the name and address of the applicant and, where an agent is acting on behalf of the applicant, the name and address of that agent.

(3) The application must be accompanied—

- (a) by a plan—
 - (i) sufficient to identify the land to which it relates; and
 - (ii) showing the situation of the land in relation to the locality and in particular in relation to neighbouring land;
- (b) by such other plans and drawings as are necessary to describe the development to which it relates;
- (c) where any neighbouring land is owned by the applicant, by a plan identifying that land;
- (d) by one or other of the certificates required under regulation 15;
- (e) where the application relates to development belonging to the categories of national developments or major developments, by a pre-application consultation report;
- (f) where the application relates to the installation of an antenna to be employed in an electronic communications network, by an ICNIRP declaration;
- (g) where required under regulation 13, by a design statement or a design and access statement;
- (h) where the application relates to Crown land by a statement that the application is made in respect of Crown land; and
- (i) by any fee payable under the Fees Regulations.

(4) In this regulation—

“electronic communications network” has the same meaning as in section 32 of the Communications Act 2003^(a) (meaning of electronic communications networks and services); and “ICNIRP declaration” means a declaration by the applicant that the antenna is designed to be in full compliance with the requirements of the radio frequency public exposure guidelines of the International Commission on Non-Ionising Radiation Protection, as expressed in EU Council recommendation of 12th July 1999^(b) on the limitation of exposure of the general public to electromagnetic fields (0Hz to 300GHz).

Application for planning permission in principle

10.—(1) An application to a planning authority for planning permission in principle is to be made in accordance with the requirements of this regulation.

(2) An application for planning permission in principle must contain—

- (a) a written description outlining the development to which it relates;
- (b) the postal address of the land to which the development relates or, if the land in question has no postal address, a description of the location of the land; and
- (c) the name and address of the applicant and, where an agent is acting on behalf of the applicant, the name and address of that agent.

(3) The application must be accompanied—

- (a) by a plan—
 - (i) sufficient to identify the land to which it relates; and
 - (ii) showing the situation of the land in relation to the locality and in particular in relation to neighbouring land;
- (b) where any neighbouring land is owned by the applicant, by a plan identifying that land;
- (c) by one or other of the certificates required under regulation 15;
- (d) where access to the site is to be taken directly from a road, by a description of the location of the access points to the proposed development;
- (e) where the application relates to development belonging to the categories of national developments or major developments, by a pre-application consultation report;
- (f) where the application relates to Crown land by a statement that the application is made in respect of Crown land; and
- (g) by any fee payable under the Fees Regulations.

Further applications

11.—(1) Where—

- (a) planning permission has been granted for development;
- (b) that development has not been commenced; and
- (c) a time limit imposed by or under section 58 (duration of planning permission) or section 59 (planning permission in principle) of the Act has not expired, an application (other than an application made under section 42 of the Act (application to develop land without compliance with previous conditions)) is made for planning permission for the same development, the application may be made without complying with the provisions of regulation 9 or regulation 10 other than regulation 9(2)(c) and (3)(c), (d), (e), (h), and (i) or regulation 10(2)(c) and (3)(b), (c), (e), (f) and (g).

(a) 2003 c.21.

(b) 1999/519/EC.

(2) Where an application for planning permission is made under section 42 of the Act, the application may be made without complying with the provisions of regulation 9 or regulation 10 other than regulation 9(2)(c) and (3)(c), (d), (h), and (i) or regulation 10(2)(c) and (3)(b), (c), (f) and (g).

(3) An application mentioned in paragraph (1) or (2) is to be in writing and is to give sufficient information to enable the planning authority to identify the previous grant of planning permission and where it is made under section 42 of the Act is to contain a statement to that effect.

Application for approval of matters specified in conditions

12.—(1) An application to a planning authority for approval, consent or agreement required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission in principle must be made in accordance with this regulation.

- (2) An application for such approval, consent or agreement is to be in writing and must—
- (a) identify the planning permission to which it relates;
 - (b) contain a description of the matter in respect of which the application is made;
 - (c) state the name and address of the applicant and, where an agent is acting on behalf of the applicant, the name and address of that agent;
 - (d) be accompanied—
 - (i) where the application relates to the alteration or construction of buildings, other structures or roads or to landscaping, by plans and drawings describing the matter in respect of which the application is made;
 - (ii) where any neighbouring land is owned by the applicant, by a plan identifying that land; and
 - (iii) by any fee payable under the Fees Regulations.

(3) In this regulation “landscaping” means the treatment of land (other than buildings) for the purpose of enhancing or protecting the amenities of the site and the area in which it is situated and includes screening by fences, walls or other means, the planting of trees, hedges, shrubs or grass, the formation of banks, terraces or other earthworks, the laying out or provision of gardens, courts or squares, water features, sculpture, or public art and the provision of other amenity features.

Design and access statements

13.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), an application for planning permission for development belonging to the categories of national developments or major developments must be accompanied by a design and access statement.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), an application for planning permission for development belonging to the category of local developments where the land to which the application relates is situated within—

- (a) a World Heritage Site;
- (b) a conservation area;
- (c) a historic garden or designed landscape;
- (d) a National Scenic Area;
- (e) the site of a scheduled monument; or
- (f) the curtilage of a category A listed building, must be accompanied by a design statement other than where the development in question comprises the alteration or extension of an existing building.

- (3) This regulation does not apply to—
- (a) an application for planning permission made under section 42 of the Act;
 - (b) an application for planning permission for—

- (i) engineering or mining operations;
 - (ii) householder development; or
 - (iii) a material change in the use of land or buildings; or
- (c) an application for planning permission in principle.

(4) A design statement is a written statement about the design principles and concepts that have been applied to the development and which—

- (a) explains the policy or approach adopted as to design and how any policies relating to design in the development plan have been taken into account;
- (b) describes the steps taken to appraise the context of the development and demonstrates how the design of the development takes that context into account in relation to its proposed use; and
- (c) states what, if any, consultation has been undertaken on issues relating to the design principles and concepts that have been applied to the development and what account has been taken of the outcome of any such consultation.

(5) A design and access statement is a document containing both a design statement and written statement about how issues relating to access to the development for disabled people have been dealt with and which—

- (a) explains the policy or approach adopted as to such access and, in particular, how—
 - (i) policies relating to such access in the development plan have been taken into account; and
 - (ii) any specific issues which might affect access to the development for disabled people have been addressed;
- (b) describes how features which ensure access to the development for disabled people will be maintained; and
- (c) states what, if any, consultation has been undertaken on issues relating to access to the development for disabled people and what account has been taken of the outcome of any such consultation.

(6) In this regulation “conservation area” means an area for the time being designated under section 61 of the Listed Buildings Act(a) (designation of conservation areas).

Validation date

14.—(1) An application made under any of regulations 9 to 12 is to be taken to have been made on the date on which the last of the items or information required to be contained in or accompany the application in accordance with regulations 9, 10, 11 or 12 respectively is received by the planning authority.

(2) Where the planning authority has received an application for their determination that their approval is required as a condition of permission granted by a development order and the planning authority has determined that their approval is required, the date when the application is to be taken to have been made is the date when any details required under the development order and the appropriate fee were lodged with the planning authority or, where these events do not all occur on the same day, the date when the last of such events occurs.

(3) The date on which an application for any other approval, consent or agreement required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission is to be taken to have been made is the date on which it is received by the planning authority.

(a) 1997 c.9.

Notices to owners and agricultural tenants under section 35 of the Act

15.—(1) The applicant is to give notice in the form set out in Schedule 1 to any person (other than the applicant) who at the beginning of the prescribed period is the owner of any land to which the application relates or an agricultural tenant.

(2) The applicant must issue a certificate—

- (a) stating whether or not the land or part of the land to which the application relates constitutes or forms part of agricultural land; and
- (b) stating, as appropriate—
 - (i) that at the beginning of the prescribed period no person (other than the applicant) was the owner of any of the land to which the application relates or an agricultural tenant;
 - (ii) that the applicant has given notice to every person (other than the applicant) who at the beginning of the prescribed period was the owner of any land to which the application relates or an agricultural tenant; or
 - (iii) that the applicant is unable to give notice to every such person.

(3) A certificate issued—

- (a) under paragraph 2(b)(ii) or (iii) must set out the name of every person to whom notice was given and the address at and date on which such notice was given;
- (b) under paragraph 2(b)(iii) must certify that the applicant has taken reasonable steps (specifying them) to ascertain the names and addresses of those persons to whom the applicant has been unable to give notice.

(4) In the case of a minerals application this regulation applies with the modifications that in paragraphs (1) and (2)(b) for “the owner” substitute “, to the applicant’s knowledge, the owner”.

(5) The applications prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “owner” in section 35(7) of the Act are minerals applications, and the minerals prescribed for the purposes of that paragraph are any minerals other than oil, gas, coal, gold or silver.

(6) In this regulation—

“agricultural land” has the meaning given to it by section 35(7) of the Act (notice etc. of applications to owners and agricultural tenants);

“agricultural tenant” means the tenant of agricultural land any part of which is comprised in the land to which an application relates; and “prescribed period” means the period of 21 days ending with the date of the application.

PART 4

Procedure by planning authority

Registers of applications

16. The register of applications for planning permission, which every planning authority is required to keep under section 36(1) of the Act (registers of applications etc.), is to be kept in the manner specified in Schedule 2.

Acknowledgment of applications

17.—(1) When the planning authority are in receipt of an application made in accordance with and accompanied by the information and documents required by regulation 9, 10, 11 or 12, as the case may be, the planning authority must send to the applicant an acknowledgement thereof.

- (2) The acknowledgement sent under paragraph (1) is to—
- (a) include an explanation of the timescales within which the planning authority are to give notice to the applicant of their decision on the application; and
 - (b) inform the applicant of the right to appeal to the Scottish Ministers under section 47 of the Act or to require a review under section 43A(8) of the Act (local development schemes and delegation).
- (3) Where the application is not made in accordance with and accompanied by the information and documents required by regulation 9, 10, 11 or 12, as the case may be, the planning authority must send to the applicant a notice identifying the information or documentation which the applicant still requires to submit in order to comply with such regulation.

Notification by the planning authority

18.—(1) Subject to regulation 19, a planning authority must give notice in accordance with this regulation that—

- (a) an application for planning permission; or
- (b) an application for approval, consent or agreement required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission in principle, has been made.

- (2) Notice under paragraph (1) is to be given—
- (a) where there are premises situated on the neighbouring land to which the notice can be sent to the owner, lessee or occupier of such premises, by sending a notice addressed to “the Owner, Lessee or Occupier” to such premises; and
 - (b) where there are no such premises, by publication of a notice in accordance with regulation 20.
- (3) The notice to be given in accordance with paragraph (2)(a) must—
- (a) state the date on which the notice is sent;
 - (b) state the name of the applicant and, where an agent is acting on behalf of the applicant, the name and address of such agent;
 - (c) include the reference number given to the application by the planning authority;
 - (d) include a description of the development to which the application relates;
 - (e) include the postal address of the land to which the development relates, or if the land in question has no postal address, a description of the location of the land;
 - (f) state how the application, plans or drawings relating to it and other documents submitted in connection with it may be inspected;
 - (g) state that representations may be made to the planning authority and include information as to how any representations may be made and by which date they must be made (being a date not earlier than 21 days after the date on which the notice is sent);
 - (h) be accompanied by a plan showing the situation of the land to which the application relates in relation to neighbouring land;
 - (i) include a statement as to how information explaining the manner in which applications for planning permission are handled and the procedures which are followed in relation to such applications can be obtained; and
 - (j) where the development to which the application belongs is a class of development prescribed for the purposes of section 35A(1) of the Act, include a statement that notwithstanding that comments may have been made to the applicant prior to the application being made, persons wishing to make representations in respect of the application should do so to the planning authority in the manner indicated in the notice.

Notification of minerals applications

19.—(1) In the case of a minerals application the planning authority are to give notice of the application by affixing a notice to objects (not exceeding 5 in number) situated in the vicinity of the land to which the development relates.

(2) Notice under paragraph (1) must—

- (a) be displayed so as to be easily visible to and legible by members of the public;
- (b) be left in position for not less than 7 days;
- (c) state that an application for planning permission has been made to the planning authority and give a brief description of the proposed development and its location;
- (d) state how the application, plans or drawings relating to it and other documents submitted in connection with it may be inspected; and
- (e) state that representations may be made to the planning authority and include information as to how any representations may be made and by which date they must be made (being a date not earlier than 14 days beginning with the date of the notice).

(3) The planning authority is not to be treated as having failed to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (1), if the notice is, without any fault or intention of the planning authority, removed, obscured or defaced before the period of 7 days has elapsed, if the planning authority have taken reasonable steps for its protection and, if need be, replacement.

Publication of application by the planning authority

20.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (3) to (5), in the circumstances specified in paragraph (2) the planning authority must publish a notice in the form set out in Schedule 4 in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the neighbouring land is situated.

45. The validity of an application for a certificate of lawful use or development is not affected by failure to disclose information as to—

- (a) national security; and
- (b) the measures taken or to be taken to ensure the security of any premises or property, where the application is accompanied by a written statement from the applicant that, in the opinion of the applicant, the information relates to the matters mentioned in (a) or (b) above, and that public disclosure of that information would be contrary to the national interest.

Revocations of certificate of lawful use or development

46.—(1) Where a planning authority propose to revoke a certificate issued under section 150 or 151 of the Act in accordance with section 152(7) of the Act (certificates under sections 150 and 151: supplementary provisions), they must, before they revoke the certificate, give notice of that proposal to—

- (a) the owner of the land affected;
- (b) the occupier of the land affected;
- (c) any other person who will in their opinion be affected by the revocation; and
- (d) in the case of a certificate issued by the Scottish Ministers under section 154 of the Act, the Scottish Ministers.

(2) A notice issued under paragraph (1) is to invite the person on whom the notice is served to make representations on the proposal to the authority within 14 days of service of the notice and the authority must not revoke the certificate until all such periods allowed for making representations have expired.

(3) An authority must give written notice of any revocation under section 152(7) of the Act to every person on whom notice of the proposed revocation was served under paragraph (1).

PART 9

General

Electronic communications

47.—(1) Where the criteria in paragraph (2) are met, any document required or authorised to be sent by these Regulations may be sent by electronic communications and any requirement in these Regulations that any document is to be in writing is fulfilled.

(2) The criteria are—

- (a) the recipient consents, or is deemed to have agreed under paragraph (3), to receive it electronically; and
- (b) that document transmitted by the electronic communication is—
 - (i) capable of being accessed by the recipient;
 - (ii) legible in all material respects; and
 - (iii) sufficiently permanent to be used for subsequent reference.

(3) Any person sending a document using electronic communications is to be taken to have agreed—

- (a) to the use of such communications for all purposes relating to the application which are capable of being carried out electronically; and
- (b) that the address for the purpose of such communications is the address incorporated into, or otherwise logically associated with, that communication.

(4) Deemed agreement under paragraph (3) subsists until that person gives notice to revoke the agreement.

(5) Notice of withdrawal of consent to the use of electronic communications or of revocation of agreement under paragraph (4) takes effect on a date specified by the person in the notice, but not less than seven days after the date on which the notice is given.

(6) In this regulation—

“address” includes any number or address used for the purpose of such communications or storage;

“document” includes any notice, consent, decision, representation, statement, list, report, form, plan, certificate or other information or communication; and

“electronic communication” has the meaning given in section 15(1) of the Electronic Communications Act 2000^(a) (general interpretation);

“legible in all material respects” means that the information contained in the document is available to the recipient to no lesser extent than it would be if sent or given by means of a document in printed form; and “sent” includes served, submitted or given and cognate expressions are to be construed accordingly.

Service of notices

48. Section 271 of the Act (services of notices) applies to notices or other documents required or authorised to be served or given under these Regulations on the owners or occupiers of land as it applies to notices or other documents required or authorised to be served or given under the Act.

PART 10

Transitional provisions, revocations and savings

Transitional provisions

49.—(1) The provisions specified in paragraph (2) apply with the modifications specified in paragraph (3) to—

- (a) applications for planning permission;
- (b) applications for approval, consent or agreement required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission; and
- (c) applications for approval of reserved matters in connection with the grant of outline planning permission, made before 3rd August 2009 but in respect of which no notice of the decision of the planning authority was given to the applicant before 3rd August 2009.

(2) The provisions are—

- (a) regulation 16;
- (b) regulations 26 to 28; and
- (c) Schedule 2.

(3) In regulation 26—

- (a) in paragraph (2)(a) and (b) for “validation date” substitute “the date of receipt of the application”; and
- (b) omit paragraph (4).

(4) The following provisions of these Regulations apply only in relation to applications for planning permission made on or after the date on which these Regulations come into force—

- (a) regulation 9(3)(c) and (h);
- (b) regulation 10(3)(b) and (f);
- (c) regulation 20(3); and
- (d) paragraph 9(a) of Schedule 5.

(5) Regulation 11 applies only to applications for planning permission made on or after 2nd February 2013 and regulation 11 of the 2008 Regulations has effect as it did immediately before that date in relation to an application for planning permission made before that date.

(a) 2000 c.7. Section 15 was amended by paragraph 158 of Schedule 17 to the Communications Act 2003 (c.21).

(6) References in regulations 26 and 28 and in Schedule 2 to applications made under regulations 9 to 12 of these Regulations are in the case of an application mentioned in paragraph (1) to be treated for the purposes of the application of those provisions as references to an application made under articles 3, 4, 5 or 6, as the case may be, of the 1992 Order.

(7) For the purposes of the interpretation of these Regulations in relation to their application to an application made under any of regulations 9 to 12 of the 2008 Regulations before 30th June 2013 “neighbouring land” is to have the meaning given in the 2008 Regulations as they had effect immediately before that date.

(8) For the purposes of the interpretation of regulation 13(3)(b)(ii) in relation to an application for planning permission made before 30th June 2013 “householder development” it to be taken to mean development which consists of—

- (a) the development of an existing dwellinghouse; or
- (b) development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse as such.

(9) Paragraph 5(5) of Schedule 5 applies only in relation to applications for planning permission made on or after 1st August 2012 and for the purposes of the interpretation of that paragraph in relation to an application for planning permission made on or after that date but before 30th June 2013 “householder development” it to be taken to mean development which consists of—

- (a) the alteration or extension of an existing building; or
- (b) development within the curtilage of a dwellinghouse for a purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse.

(10) In this Part—

“the 1992 Order” means Town and Country Planning (General Development Procedure) (Scotland) Order 1992(a);

Consultation by the planning authority

Subject to regulation 25, the planning authority must before determining an application for planning permission for development consult a person, authority or body mentioned in a paragraph below in the circumstances specified in that paragraph.

1. SEPA—

(1) where the development is likely to result in a material increase in the number of buildings at risk of being damaged by flooding; or

(2) where the development consists of or includes—

- (a) fish farming;
- (b) mining operations;
- (c) the carrying out of building or other operations or use of land for the purposes of providing or storing mineral oils and their derivatives;
- (d) the carrying out of building or other operations (other than the laying of sewers, the construction of pump-houses in a line of sewers, the construction of septic tanks and cesspools serving single dwellinghouses, single caravans or single buildings in which not more than 10 people will normally reside, work or congregate, and works ancillary thereto) or use of land for the retention, treatment or disposal of sewage, trade-waste, or effluent;
- (e) the carrying out of works or operations in the bed or on the banks of a river or stream;
- (f) the use of land as a cemetery; or
- (g) the use of land for the deposit of any kind of refuse or waste, including slurry or sludge.

2. Scottish Natural Heritage where—

- (a) the development may affect a site of special scientific interest; or
- (b) the development consists of or includes the winning and working of peat other than for the domestic requirements of the applicant.

3. The Health and Safety Executive where the development is within an area which has been notified to the planning authority by the Health and Safety Executive for the purpose of this provision because of the presence within the vicinity of toxic, highly reactive, explosive or inflammable substances and which involves the provision of—

- (a) residential accommodation;
- (b) more than 250 square metres of retail floor space;
- (c) more than 500 square metres of office floor space; or
- (d) more than 750 square metres of floor space to be used for an industrial process, or which is otherwise likely to result in a material increase in the number of persons working within or visiting the notified area.

4. Scottish Natural Heritage, the Health and Safety Executive and SEPA where the development—

- (a) involves the siting of new establishments;
- (b) consists of modifications to existing establishments which could have significant repercussions on major accident hazards; or
- (c) includes transport links, locations frequented by the public and residential areas in the vicinity of existing establishments, where the siting of development is such as to increase the risk or consequences of a major accident.

5. The Scottish Ministers, in the case of—

(1) development of land within 67 metres of the middle of, or development comprising the formation, laying out or alteration of any means of access to—

- (a) a trunk road;
- (b) a proposed trunk road or a proposed special road, being a road the route of which is shown as such in the development plan, or in respect of which the Scottish Ministers have given notice in writing to the planning authority of their proposal, together with the maps or plans sufficient to identify the proposed route of the road;
- (c) any road which is comprised in the route of a special road to be provided by the Scottish Ministers in accordance with a scheme under section 7 of the Roads (Scotland) Act 1984 relating to special roads, and which has not for the time being been transferred to them; or
- (d) any road which has been or is to be provided by the Scottish Ministers in pursuance of an Order under the provisions of that Act relating to trunk roads and special roads and has not for the time being been transferred to any roads authority;

(2) development likely to result in a material increase in the volume or a material change in the character of traffic entering or leaving a trunk road;

(3) development of land which is situated within 800 metres from any Royal Palace or Park, and might affect the amenities of that Palace or Park;

(4) development which may affect—

- (a) a historic garden or designed landscape;
- (b) the site of a scheduled monument or its setting; or
- (c) a category A listed building or its setting;

(5) development (other than householder development) which may affect a historic battlefield.

(6) development which consists of or includes the winning and working of peat other than for the domestic requirements of the applicant; or

(7) marine fish farm development.

6. The community council, if any, within whose area the development is to take place where—

- (a) the community council, within 7 days (excluding Saturday and Sunday, December 25th and 26th and January 1st and 2nd) of the date on which the planning authority sent to that community council in accordance with regulation 23(1) the list which includes information about the application for such development, informs the planning authority that it wishes to be consulted; or
- (b) the development is likely to affect the amenity in the area of the community council.

7. The Coal Authority where the development consists of—

- (a) the erection of a building, other than an alteration, extension or re-erection of an existing building or the erection of a building of a temporary character; or
- (b) the provision of a pipeline, in an area of coal working or former or proposed coal working notified by the Coal Authority to the planning authority.

8. Any adjoining planning authority, where the development is likely to affect land in the district of that authority.

9. Network Rail Infrastructure Limited or any other railway undertakers likely to be affected where—

- (a) some part of the development is to be situated within 10 metres of a railway line forming part of the national railway network; or
- (b) the development is likely to result in a material increase in the volume or a material change in the character of traffic using a level crossing over a railway.

- 10. The roads authority concerned, where the development involves—
- (a) the formation, laying out or alteration of any means of access to, or is likely to create or attract traffic which will result in a material increase in the volume of traffic entering or leaving, a road (other than a trunk road) for which the planning authority are not also the roads authority; or
 - (b) the formation, laying out or alteration of any means of access to land affording access to a toll road.

11. The Theatres Trust where the development involves any land on which there is a theatre as defined in the Theatres Trust Act 1976(a).

12. Scottish Water where the development is likely to require a material addition to or a material change in the services provided by that authority.

13. A district salmon fishery board where the development consists of fish farming.

14. The Scottish Ministers and the Secretary of State where marine fish farm development may affect a site designated as a controlled site under section 1 of the Protection of Military Remains Act 1986(b).

15. The Crofting Commission where the development may have an adverse effect on the continued use of land for crofting.

16. sportscotland where the development is likely to—

- (a) result in the loss of an outdoor sports facility;
- (b) prejudice the use of an existing outdoor sports facility for that purpose; or
- (c) prevent the use of land, which was last used as an outdoor sports facility, from being used again for that purpose.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision for the manner in which applications for planning permission, for approvals required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission in principle and for certificates of lawful use and development under the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 (“the Act”) are to be made. These Regulations apply to all applications made on or after 3rd August 2009. They also apply to the limited extent provided for in Part 10 in respect of applications made before that date but not determined by that date.

Part 2 of the Regulations relates to the requirements for pre-application consultation under sections 35A and 35B of the Act introduced into the Act by section 11 of the Planning etc. (Scotland) Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”) on 6th April 2009. Regulation 4 prescribes the classes of development for which pre-application consultation is required, these are the categories of national and major developments. National developments are developments designated as such in the National Planning Framework under section 3A(4) of the Act. Major developments are the class of development to be prescribed in Regulations made under section 26A of the Act. Regulations 5 and 6 make provision regarding the content of notices under sections 35A(3) and the proposal of application notice required under section 35B(2). Regulation 7 sets out the prescribed manner of consultation which an applicant will have as a minimum to undertake. This requires the holding of a public event and publication of the proposed development in a local newspaper.

Part 3 of the Regulations sets out how applications for planning permission and for approvals required by conditions are to be made. Regulation 9 specifies the information that an application must contain in respect of an application for full planning permission and also requires the application to be accompanied by certain documents or information. Regulation 10 makes equivalent provision in relation to applications for planning permission in principle and regulation 12 does so for applications for approvals required by a condition. Regulation 11 applies the requirements of regulations 9 and 10 in a modified form where the application is made either for the same development or an application under section 42 of the Act (applications to develop without compliance with previous conditions).

Regulation 13 makes provision as to when a design or a design and access statement must accompany an application and describes what such a statement is to comprise.

Regulation 14 defines what is known as the “validation date”. This is the date on which the last of the items required to be contained in or accompany an application is received by the planning authority. It is the date from which the time period set for determination of the application by the authority starts to run.

Regulation 15 provides for notification to owners and agricultural tenants under section 35 of the Act and also for related certificates that such notification has or cannot be carried out.

Part 4 of the Regulations makes provision as to how a planning authority is to deal with an application and related matters. Regulation 16 and Schedule 2 set out how the planning authority are to keep a register of information relating to planning applications as required by section 36 of the Act. The planning authority are required to acknowledge an application in accordance with regulation 17. In terms of regulation 18 the planning authority are to give notice of the application to neighbours. Neighbouring land is defined in regulation 3. Regulation 19 provides for notification of minerals applications.

The planning authority are required by regulation 20 to publish a notice in the form set out in Schedule 4 in certain circumstances specified in regulation 20(2). These include the case where it is not possible for the authority to give notice to neighbours under regulation 18 because there are no premises on the neighbouring land.

Regulation 21 and 22 relate to the requirement to keep a list of applications under section 36A of the Act introduced by section 13 of the 2006 Act. Regulation 21 requires the list to be kept in two sections and details the information to be contained in each section. Regulation 22 sets out how the planning authority are to publish the list. Regulation 23 requires the planning authority to send to community councils a weekly list of applications received.

Regulation 24 makes it clear that a planning authority are entitled to require further information to assist them to determine the application. Regulation 25 and Schedule 5 require the planning authority to undertake consultation with certain bodies or authorities in the circumstances described in that Schedule.

Regulation 26 sets out the time periods within which a planning authority must give notice to the applicant of their decision on the application. The period is generally 2 months but for applications for major and national developments it is 4 months. Paragraph (4) conversely prescribes that a planning authority are not to determine an application before the expiry of a period allowed for the making of representations.

Regulation 27 prescribes the classes of development in respect of applications for which a planning authority must hold a hearing before reaching a decision and provides who is to be given an opportunity to appear before the committee conducting the hearing.

Regulation 28 makes provision regarding the content of the planning authorities notice setting out their decision on the application and also as how notice of the decision is to be given to the applicant and to other parties. Where the decision is to refuse an application or grant it subject to conditions the notice must be accompanied by a notification of the rights of the appeal or review set out in Schedule 6.

In terms of section 43A(1) of the Act a planning authority is to prepare a scheme of delegation under which certain applications are to be determined by a person appointed by the planning authority. Regulation 29 applies to the appointed person provisions of the Regulations which relate to the manner in which a decision is reached and notified.

Part 5 includes provisions relating to direction making powers available to the Scottish Ministers. Regulation 30 confers on the Scottish Ministers power to make directions requiring planning authorities to consult with specified bodies before determining an application. The Scottish Ministers are also empowered to make directions requiring a planning authority to provide information and restricting the grant of planning permission (regulations 31 and 32), requiring the planning authority to consider the imposition of a condition (regulation 33). In addition regulation 35 requires a planning authority to give notice to applicants of directions made by the Scottish Ministers calling in applications for their determination under section 46 of the Act.

Part 6 of the Regulations apply the Regulations with certain modifications to applications for planning permission relation to marine fish farming and makes special provision in relation to the Cairngorms National Park (regulation 37), national security (regulation 38) and development which does not accord with the development plan (regulation 39).

Part 7 of the Regulations set out what information must be included in a notice of intention to carry out development under section 27A(1) of the Act (regulation 40) and also prescribes the classes of development and form of notice for the purposes of section 27C of the Act (regulation 41). This section requires notices to be displayed while development is being carried out.

Part 8 makes provision in relation to applications for certificates of lawful use or development under section 150 or 151 of the Act. Regulation 42 prescribes the information which an application must contain. Regulation 43 sets out what items must accompany an application. Regulation 44 makes provision for procedure including the period within which an application is to be determined and regulation 45 make provision regarding information relating to national security. Under regulation 46 a planning authority are required to give notice of a proposal to revoke a certificate.

Part 9 of the Regulations make provision for the use of electronic communications and the service of notices.

Part 10 revokes the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure (Development Management Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 2008 (“the 2008 Regulations”) and makes transitional and saving provisions. Regulation 49 applies certain provision of the Regulations to applications made before 3rd August 2009 (the date on which the 2008 Regulations came into force) but which were not determined by that date. In particular the requirements as to time periods for decision, pre-determination hearings and decision notices apply to these cases. Regulation 50 provides that if an application for reserved matters is made after 3rd August 2009 in respect of outline planning permission then it is to be treated as an application for approval of a condition imposed on the grant of a planning permission in principle. Regulation 51 revokes the 2008 Regulations and various other instruments subject to certain saving provisions.
