2013 No. 63

The Police Appeals Tribunals (Scotland) Rules 2013

Irregularities

17.—(1) Any irregularity resulting from failure to comply with any provision of these Rules or of any direction of the tribunal before it has reached its decision does not of itself render the proceedings void.

(2) Where any such irregularity comes to the attention of the tribunal, it may, and must if it is considers that a party may have been prejudiced by that irregularity, give such directions to cure or waive the irregularity as it thinks just before reaching its decision.

(3) Clerical mistakes in any document recording a direction or decision of the chairing member of the tribunal or of the tribunal, or errors arising in such a document from an accidental slip or omission, may be corrected by the chairing member of the tribunal by certificate under the chairing member's hand.
