These Regulations amend the Insolvency Act 1986 in connection with receivers, the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 2016 (“the 2016 Act”), the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Regulations 2016 (“the 2016 Regulations”), and other statutes and secondary legislation to implement Regulation (EU) 2015/848 on insolvency proceedings (O.J. - d) support the recognition of undertakings under Article 36 of the Regulation (EU) 2015/848:—
  - given by trustees in sequestration or protected trust deeds (i.e. in main insolvency proceedings) in respect of assets in other member States where secondary insolvency proceedings could be opened, to require certain additional details to be provided in the proposed undertakings, and for the manner of their notification and advertisement (new section 14A of the 2016 Act);
  - given by insolvency practitioners in main insolvency proceedings in other member States to avoid sequestration or a protected trust deed secondary proceedings – to provide for such an undertaking by local creditors in the UK that is taken in accordance with Article 36(5) of Regulation (EU) 2015/848 as a decision by a company’s creditors to approve a company voluntary arrangement (new section 14B of the 2016 Act);
- e) amend form 11 (creditor claims) in the schedule to the 2016 Regulations for creditors making a claim in the case of a member State insolvency practitioner in applying for sequestration and specifying and vouching the underlying claims for which the practitioner is claiming as a creditor.
