2018 No. 278

The Regulation of Social Housing (Influence of Local Authorities) (Scotland) Regulations 2018

Other provision as to voting rights

6.—(1) A provision in the constitution of a registered social landlord which requires that a decision by officers be approved by over 75% of the votes cast is to have effect on and after the appointed day as a provision requiring that the decision be approved by at least 75% of the votes cast.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to a registered social landlord with no local authority officers.

(3) Where the constitution of a registered social landlord makes provision for the consent of a local authority in order for a change to the constitution to be effective such provision shall have no effect on or after the appointed day.
