Meaning of “dependant”

5.—(1) In respect of any given week, an individual (“person A”) is to be regarded as the dependant of another individual (“person B”) only if—

- (a) paragraph (2) applies, or
 - (b) in that week person B is a kinship carer for person A.
- (2) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) person B has been awarded—
 - (i) child tax credit, child benefit or state pension credit in respect of the week in question (or for a period that includes that week), or
 - (ii) universal credit for—
 - (aa) an assessment period that includes the week in question, or
 - (bb) an assessment period that ended immediately before the assessment period mentioned in paragraph (aa) started, and
 - (b) person A is recognised to be a child for whom person B has responsibility in terms of that award of assistance.

(3) It is immaterial for the purpose of this regulation that the award of assistance to person B referred to paragraph (2) does not include any amount in respect of person A due to a rule that restricts the number of dependants in respect of whom person B can be given that type of assistance.

Entitlement – further provision

11.—(1) Subject to [^{F45}paragraphs (1A) and (2)], no beneficiary is entitled to benefit under these Regulations unless an application for such benefit has been approved by the Scottish Ministers.

[^{F46}(1A) Where the Scottish Ministers receive an application in respect of an individual described in regulation 7, and they are also in receipt of an application in respect of an individual described in regulation 7A, they must—

- (a) approve the application in respect of the individual described in regulation 7 in priority to the application in respect of the individual described in regulation 7A, and,
- (b) cease any payment of this benefit to the individual described in regulation 7A.]

(2) Where an individual described in regulation 7 [^{F47}, or 7A], who has responsibility for a child described in regulation 8 and that child is under 4 months of age, notifies the Scottish Ministers of the date of birth of the child, that child is entitled to benefit payable from the date of their birth.

(3) If an individual described in regulations 7 [^{F48}, 7A], 8 or 20—

- (a) has ceased to be entitled to benefit,
- (b) less than 12 weeks have elapsed since they ceased to be so entitled, and

- (c) can demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the Scottish Ministers that they are once again entitled,
- then the Scottish Ministers may renew their entitlement without further process.
- (4) Where any provision of these Regulations requires or enables anything to be done in respect of a beneficiary and that beneficiary is a child, the provision is deemed to refer to an individual who is responsible for that child.

[^{F49}Appointment of a person to act on behalf of an individual

- 12A.—(1) The Scottish Ministers may appoint a person (“an appointee”)—
- (a) to—
 - (i) act on behalf of an individual described in regulation 7 or 7A in connection with the determination of that individual’s entitlement to benefit under and in accordance with these Regulations, or
 - (ii) act on behalf of an individual responsible for a child described in regulation 8 (as read with regulation 11(4)) in connection with the determination of that child’s entitlement to benefit under and in accordance with these Regulations, and
 - (b) to be paid benefit on the individual’s behalf.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may only appoint an appointee if it appears to them that either paragraph (3) or (4) applies.
- (3) This paragraph applies if—
- (a) the individual is deceased, and
 - (b) there is no executor appointed on the individual’s estate.
- (4) This paragraph applies if, in relation to the matters mentioned in paragraph (1)—
- (a) the individual is incapable within the meaning of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000,

- (b) there is no guardian acting or appointed under that Act,
 - (c) the individual's estate is not being administered by a judicial factor, and
 - (d) there is no other person who has authority to act on behalf of the individual and is willing to do so.
- (5) An individual who is under 16 years may not be appointed as an appointee.
- (6) Where an appointee is appointed in relation to an individual—
- (a) the appointee can do anything that the individual could do in connection with the determination of the individual's entitlement to benefit (including making an application for benefit),
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers may request that the appointee provide them with information that they may otherwise request from the individual in connection with the determination of the individual's entitlement to benefit,
 - (c) any information that would be given to the individual by virtue of these Regulations must be given to the appointee instead.
- (7) The Scottish Ministers may terminate an appointment under this regulation at any time.
- (8) The Scottish Ministers must consider whether to terminate an appointment made by virtue of paragraph (3) if requested to do so by anyone who appears to the Ministers to have an interest in the financial affairs of the individual.
- (9) The Scottish Ministers must consider whether to make an appointment by virtue of paragraph (4), or to terminate such an appointment, if requested to do so by—
- (a) the individual, or
 - (b) anyone else who appears to the Ministers to—
 - (i) have authority to act on behalf of the individual, or
 - (ii) have an interest in the welfare or financial affairs of the individual.
- (10) Paragraph (11) applies where the Scottish Ministers are deciding whether to make an appointment by virtue of paragraph (4) or to terminate such an appointment.
- (11) In making the decision, the Scottish Ministers must, insofar as practicable, have regard to—
- (a) the wishes and feelings of the individual, and
 - (b) the views of anyone else who appears to the Ministers to have an interest in the welfare or financial affairs of the individual.
- (12) A person appointed by the Scottish Ministers under and in accordance with section 85B of the 2018 Act may be treated by them as an appointee of—
- (a) an individual described in regulation 7 or 7A, or
 - (b) a person who is responsible for an individual described in regulation 8,
- in connection with the determination of the individual's entitlement to benefit under these Regulations.
- (13) In respect of decisions in relation to appointees for the purposes of this regulation, the Scottish Ministers must act in accordance with guidelines prepared for the purposes of section 85C of the 2018 Act as if the references in those guidelines to appointments under section 85B of that Act were references to appointments under these Regulations.
- (14) A person appointed under this regulation must have regard to any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers about the way in which the role of appointee should be carried out.
- (15) In this regulation, "the 2018 Act" means the Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision for a scheme to provide benefits for pregnant women and children.

Part 1 deals with citation, commencement and extent. These Regulations extend to Scotland only. Part 2 provides for general interpretation.

Part 3 of the Regulations provides for the interpretation of certain expressions used in the Regulations concerning interpersonal relationships.

Part 4 sets out who is eligible to receive the benefit and procedural matters relating to the application for benefit and change of circumstances.

Part 5 is concerned with the value and form of the benefit to be given under the Regulations.

Part 6 makes provision for application of certain enactments and offences.

Part 7 makes consequential amendments and revocations to various secondary legislation.

Regulation 19 makes a consequential amendment to the Healthy Start Scheme and Welfare Food (Amendment) Regulations 2005 (“the 2005 Regulations”) to prevent new applications for benefit under the 2005 Regulations in Scotland following the coming into force of these Regulations.

Regulation 20 makes provision for transitional arrangements. Regulation 21 revokes certain provisions of the 2005 Regulations and secondary legislation that amended those Regulations. The revocations made by regulation 21 take effect on 31 March 2020.

Status:

Point in time view as at 17/05/2023.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Welfare Foods (Best Start Foods) (Scotland) Regulations 2019.
