(2) An appeal must be brought within 21 days of the day on which the claimant received written notice of the relevant authority's decision on review.

(3) The sheriff may give permission for an appeal to be brought after the end of that period, but only if the sheriff is satisfied—

(a) if permission is sought before the end of that period, that there is a good reason for the claimant being unable to bring the appeal in time, or

(b) if permission is sought after that time, that there was a good reason for the claimant's failure to bring the appeal in time and for any delay in applying for permission.

(4) On an appeal under this regulation, the sheriff may make such order confirming, quashing or varying the decision as the sheriff thinks fit.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Section 26(1) of the UEFA European Championship (Scotland) Act 2020 (“the Act”) provides that a person whose property is damaged by anything done under section 18 (general enforcement power) or 20 (power to enter and search) of the Act may obtain compensation from, depending on the circumstances, Glasgow City Council or the Scottish Police Authority. This entitlement to compensation does not apply if the thing done relates to a Championship offence committed by the person.

These Regulations make provision about claiming compensation and determining the compensation due. They also confer on the sheriff jurisdiction for determining disputed compensation.

Regulation 3 sets out the amount of compensation to which a person is entitled. Regulations 4 to 6 set out the procedure by which compensation may be obtained. Regulations 7 and 8 set out how a decision on a claim may be reviewed, and how a decision on a review can be appealed.

The Regulations cease to have effect on the day that the Act ceases to have effect, 31 December 2020.
