As currently defined by sections 58(3C) and 59(8C) of the Act, as amended by S.S.I. 2020/254 and S.S.I. 2021/100, the “emergency period” began on 7 April 2020 and would end on 30 September 2021 and the “extended period” began on 7 April 2020 and would end on 31 March 2022. As currently defined by section 16(6) of the Listed Buildings Act, as amended by S.S.I. 2020/254 and S.S.I. 2021/100, the “emergency period” began on 27 May 2020 and would end on 30 September 2021 and the “extended period” began on 27 May 2020 and would end on 31 March 2022. As amended by these Regulations the “emergency period” is the period which began on 27 May 2020 and will end at the end of 31 March 2022 and the “extended period” is the period which began on 27 May 2020 and will end at the end of 30 September 2022.

The provisions of sections 58 and 59 of the Act, as they had effect immediately before the expiry of the emergency period continue to have effect, with modifications, in relation to the duration of planning permissions granted before the expiry of the emergency period. The modifications are that the powers to make regulations to further amend the definitions of “emergency period” and “extended period” will not continue to have effect after the expiry of the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 at the end of 31 March 2022.

Regulation 5 makes equivalent saving provisions in respect of listed building consents granted before the expiry of the emergency period. The provisions of section 16 of the Listed Buildings Act continue to have effect as immediately before the expiry of the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act (No. 2) 2020, with modifications in relation to the duration of listed building consent granted before the expiry of the emergency period. The provisions of regulations 4 and 5 replace and supercede the saving provisions contained in regulations 4 and 5 of the Town and Country Planning (Emergency Period and Extended Period) (Coronavirus) (Scotland) Regulations 2021. Those provisions are therefore revoked by regulation 6 along with the Town and Country Planning (Emergency Period and Extended Period) (Coronavirus) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2021 which amended them.
