SOCIAL SECURITY

The Disability Assistance for Children and Young People (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2021

Made - - - - 11th November 2021
22nd November
Coming into force - - 2021

The Scottish Ministers make the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 31(2), 36(2), 43(5), 52 and 95 of the Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018⁽¹⁾ and all other powers enabling them to do so.

In accordance with section 97(2) of that Act, the Scottish Ministers have informed the Scottish Commission on Social Security of their proposals, notified the Scottish Parliament that they have done so and made their proposals publicly available by such means as they consider appropriate.

They have laid a response to the Commission's report on the proposals for the regulations before the Scottish Parliament in accordance with section 97(9)(a) of that Act.

In accordance with section 96(2) of that Act, a draft of these Regulations has been laid before and approved by resolution of the Scottish Parliament.

- (a) the existing text becomes sub-paragraph (1),
- (b) after sub-paragraph (1) insert—

“(2) Entitlement to the mobility component of Child Disability Payment of a transferring individual mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) is to begin before the date of the determination without application made under regulation 5(1) but not before the later of the date on which—

- (a) the suspension of payment of the mobility component of Disability Living Allowance began,
- (b) 11 October 2021.

(3) Where a transferring individual is in legal detention immediately before the date of transfer and entitlement to Child Disability Payment is determined under paragraph 9(1) to be at a higher rate than the Disability Living Allowance paid immediately before that determination, paragraph 11(4) does not apply for the purposes of determining the amount of the mobility component to be paid.”.

(5) In paragraph 13 of the schedule (modification of these regulations: transferring individuals)—

(a) before sub-paragraph (a) insert—

“(za) where paragraph 11(3) or 12(2) applies, for the period between the date when entitlement to Child Disability Payment begins and the date of the determination under paragraph 9(1), regulation 10 (entitlement to other benefits) is treated as omitted,

(zb) regulation 15 (entitlement under special rules for terminal illness) is to be read as if—

- (i) paragraph (3)(a) reads “the individual transferred by virtue of a determination under paragraph 9(1) (“the date of transfer””, where that determination is made in accordance with paragraph 11(1)(a) of the schedule”,
- (ii) paragraph (3)(b) is omitted,
- (iii) in paragraphs (4) and (5) for “whichever date in paragraph (3)(a) or (b) applies” reads “the date in paragraph (3)(a),
- (iv) paragraph (10) reads “Where an individual has previously received Child Disability Payment or Disability Living Allowance for a period and a determination is subsequently made that the same individual is entitled to Child Disability Payment at a higher rate for that period by virtue of this regulation, that individual will be entitled to the difference between the value of entitlement to Child Disability Payment under the subsequent determination and the value of Child Disability Payment or Disability Living Allowance to which that individual was previously entitled for that period.”,

(b) after sub-paragraph (a) insert—

- “(aa) regulation 20 (entitlement to care component beginning while in alternative accommodation) is to be read as if—
- (i) in paragraph (1) after “begins” there are the words “in terms of part 3 of the schedule”,
 - (ii) in paragraph (2) “that day” reads “the day on which the individual has been entitled to Child Disability Payment for 28 days”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Disability Assistance for Children and Young People (Scotland) Regulations 2021 (“the Principal Regulations”). The Regulations come into force on 22 November 2021.

Regulation 3 amends regulation 2 of the Principal Regulations to amend the definitions of “legal detention” and “residential educational establishment”.

Regulations 4, 5 and 6 make amendments to eligibility rules for the assistance in Part 1 of the Principal Regulations. The amendments are in relation to age criteria and residence and presence conditions.

Regulations 7 and 8 make amendments to regulations 11 and 13 of the Principal Regulations in relation to care component criterion and mobility requirements.

Regulation 9 amends regulation 15 of the Principal Regulations to clarify that the reduction will be the difference between the different levels of entitlement rather than payment.

Regulations 10, 11 and 12 make amendments to Part 5 of the Principal Regulations in relation to effect of time spent in care homes and in legal detention. The amendments clarify that payment of the care component will stop on the day after the 28th day where an individual becomes resident in a care home or is in legal detention. The amendment to regulation 18 of the Principal Regulations clarifies that for the purposes of this regulation, an individual is to be treated as though they are not in legal detention on any day on which they are an in-patient in a hospital or hospice.

Regulations 13 and 14 make amendments to regulations 28 and 29 of the Principal Regulations to clarify when an increase in level of entitlement takes effect and when a decrease in level or cessation of entitlement takes effect.

Regulation 15 amends regulation 31 of the Principal Regulations to provide that the Scottish Ministers are to make a determination of an individual’s entitlement to Child Disability Payment, without receiving an application, where they become aware that a determination was made in ignorance of a material fact. It also extends the list of decisions that may alter the rate of award of Disability Living Allowance listed in regulation 31(d).

Regulations 16 and 17 make amendments to Part 8 of the Principal Regulations in relation to movement of individuals between Scotland and the rest of the United Kingdom. The amendments make provision for where an individual does not notify the Scottish Ministers of their move. The amendments clarify when entitlement to Child Disability Payment ceases for individuals in respect of whom Child Disability Payment is paid at the time of moving to another part of the United Kingdom.

Regulation 18 amends regulation 37 of the Principal Regulations to clarify when the period for re-determination begins in a case where the First-tier Tribunal has decided that a request for re-determination has been validly made.

Regulation 19 amends Part 1 of the schedule of the Principal Regulations to extend the scenarios where short-term assistance is payable, clarifies which determination terminates short-term assistance and provides that the periods in respect of a re-determination request set out in regulation 37 applies to short-term assistance in the same way as it applies to Child Disability Payment. It also makes other minor and consequential amendments.

Regulation 20 amends Part 3 of the schedule of the Principal Regulations to make miscellaneous amendments in relation to case transfer provisions.
