PART 2

Transfer to Adult Disability Payment

Notice of intention to transfer to Adult Disability Payment

3.—(1) The Scottish Ministers are to notify each relevant individual of their intention to transfer that individual's entitlement to disability assistance from an entitlement to Disability Living Allowance to an entitlement to Adult Disability Payment.

(2) Notice under paragraph (1) must—

(a) be given in a way that leaves the relevant individual with a record of the information which they can show to, or otherwise share with, others, and

(b) inform the relevant individual that—

(i) they have been identified as a relevant individual for the purposes of transfer to Adult Disability Payment,

(ii) the Scottish Ministers will make a determination, without receiving an application, to transfer the individual's entitlement to Disability Living Allowance to an entitlement to Adult Disability Payment within a period to be specified within the notice (the individual will be notified when the transfer determination is made and informed about their award and start date of Adult Disability Payment),

(iii) the individual's award of Disability Living Allowance will cease—

(aa) immediately before the award of Adult Disability Payment begins, or

(bb) where a transferring individual was paid Disability Living Allowance one week in advance and 3 weekly in arrears, the date one week after the date their entitlement to Adult Disability Payment begins,

(iv) except where the individual is subject to the special rules for terminal illness in regulation 9, the Scottish Ministers will make a review determination of the individual's entitlement to Adult Disability Payment within 12 months of the date of the notice.

(3) Where a notice under paragraph (1) is given in error where the individual is neither—

(a) ordinarily resident in Scotland, nor

(b) an individual who is habitually resident in an EEA state, Gibraltar or Switzerland and has a genuine and sufficient link to Scotland, the duty on the Scottish Ministers in regulation 4(1) does not apply.

(4) Where paragraph (3) applies in respect of an individual and a transfer determination has not been made, the Scottish Ministers are to notify the individual that the duty on the Scottish Ministers in regulation 4(1) does not apply.

(5) In paragraph (3), "sufficient" means a link to Scotland that is sufficiently close that regulation 15(3) or 20(2) of the ADP Regulations would be incompatible with the applicable agreement mentioned in either of those regulations, if the relevant individual were not entitled to Adult Disability Payment.

Transfer determination without application of entitlement to Adult Disability Payment

4.—(1) The Scottish Ministers are to make a determination in respect of a transferring individual, without receiving an application, of that individual's entitlement to Adult Disability Payment.

(2) A transfer determination must be made on the assumption that the transferring individual—

- (a) other than Disability Living Allowance, is not entitled to any of the benefits set out in regulation 4, and
  - (b) meets the residence and presence conditions set out in regulations 15 to 21, of the ADP Regulations.
- (3) Entitlement to Adult Disability Payment under a transfer determination begins on the date specified in the notice of determination given to the transferring individual in accordance with section 40 of the 2018 Act.
- (4) The transfer determination is to be made on the basis of—
- (a) such information as the Scottish Ministers have received from the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions in respect of the transferring individual's entitlement to Disability Living Allowance, and
  - (b) any other information available to the Scottish Ministers that appears to them to be relevant.
- (5) Subject to regulation 9, a transfer determination must be made in accordance with regulation 5.
- (6) The transfer determination does not need to be made on the basis of the information mentioned in paragraph (4)(b) where—
- (a) the individual—
    - (i) before receiving notice under regulation 3(1), reported a change of circumstances to the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions, which has not been taken into account for the individual's entitlement to Disability Living Allowance, or
    - (ii) has, since receiving a notice under regulation 3(1), notified a change of circumstances to the Scottish Ministers, and
  - (b) following the transfer determination, a review determination is to be made.
- (7) A determination under paragraph (1)—
- (a) may be made on the assumption that whatever can be discerned about the transferring individual's circumstances from the information mentioned in paragraph (4) remains accurate on the date on which the determination is made,
  - (b) must be made no later than the end of the period specified within the notice of intention to transfer unless the Scottish Ministers have—
    - (i) good reason to extend that period,
    - (ii) agreed the period for extension with the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions, and
    - (iii) notified the transferring individual of the extension and the reason for it.

Entitlement to Adult Disability Payment

5.—(1) For the purposes of a transfer determination, an individual may be awarded the daily living component of Adult Disability Payment at the transitional rate specified in regulation 6(1) instead of being awarded that component at the standard or the enhanced rate in accordance with regulation 5(2) or (3) of the ADP Regulations.

(2) A transfer determination is to be made on the basis that a transferring individual who had been entitled to the—

- (a) lowest rate of the care component of Disability Living Allowance immediately prior to the date of transfer is entitled to the transitional rate of the daily living component of Adult Disability Payment,

- (b) middle rate of the care component of Disability Living Allowance immediately prior to the date of transfer is entitled to the standard rate of the daily living component of Adult Disability Payment,
- (c) highest rate of the care component of Disability Living Allowance immediately prior to the date of transfer is entitled to the enhanced rate of the daily living component of Adult Disability Payment,
- (d) lower rate of the mobility component of Disability Living Allowance immediately prior to the date of transfer is entitled to the standard rate of the mobility component of Adult Disability Payment,
- (e) higher rate of the mobility component of Disability Living Allowance immediately prior to the date of transfer is entitled to the enhanced rate of the mobility component of Adult Disability Payment.

(3) A transferring individual mentioned in paragraph (2)(e) is to be treated as though they have obtained the maximum points for each activity listed in column 1 of the table in Part 3 of schedule 1 of the ADP Regulations.

Amount and form and time of payment of Adult Disability Payment

6.—(1) The weekly rate of payment of the daily living component of Adult Disability Payment is, where the transferring individual is entitled to the transitional rate, £24.45.

(2) Where an award of Adult Disability Payment is made to a transferring individual, the Scottish Ministers are to make—

- (a) the first payment of assistance on a date specified in the notice of determination, and
- (b) any subsequent payment—
  - (i) 4 weekly in arrears,
  - (ii) weekly in advance, or
  - (iii) where the Scottish Ministers consider that it would be unjust not to do so, at such intervals as may be specified in the notice of determination.

Effect of determination on entitlement to Disability Living Allowance

7.—(1) Where a transfer determination is made that the transferring individual is entitled to Adult Disability Payment, the transferring individual's entitlement to Disability Living Allowance will cease on—

- (a) the date their entitlement to Adult Disability Payment begins,
- (b) where a transferring individual was paid Disability Living Allowance one week in advance and 3 weekly in arrears, the date one week after the date their entitlement to Adult Disability Payment begins, or
- (c) where regulation 9 applies, the date their entitlement to Adult Disability Payment would have begun had regulation 9(2) not applied to set an earlier date of entitlement.

(2) Where paragraph (1)(b) applies—

- (a) section 71(7) (disability living allowance) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992<sup>(6)</sup>, and
- (b) regulation 4(d) of the ADP Regulations (entitlement to other benefits), do not apply in respect of the first week of entitlement to Adult Disability Payment.

(6) 1992 c. 4, relevantly amended by S.I. 2022/335.

Periods in respect of a re-determination request in relation to a transfer determination

8.—(1) The period for requesting a re-determination of entitlement to Adult Disability Payment under section 41 of the 2018 Act (right to request re-determination) in relation to a transfer determination is 42 days beginning with the day that the individual is informed, in accordance with section 40 of the 2018 Act (notice of determination) of the right to make the request.

(2) In relation to determining entitlement to Adult Disability Payment, the period allowed for re-determination in respect of a transfer determination (within the meaning of section 43 of the 2018 Act (duty to re-determine)) is as soon as reasonably practicable and not more than 182 days beginning with—

- (a) the day that the request for a re-determination is received by the Scottish Ministers,
- (b) in a case where the request for a re-determination is received by the Scottish Ministers outwith the period prescribed in paragraph (1), the day on which it is decided by the Scottish Ministers or (as the case may be) the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland that the individual in question has a good reason for not requesting a re-determination sooner, or
- (c) in a case where the Scottish Ministers have informed the individual of their decision that the request for re-determination was not made in such form as the Scottish Ministers require, the day on which it is subsequently decided by the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland that the individual in question has made the request in such form as the Scottish Ministers require.

Special rules for terminal illness - exception to regulation 4(5)

9.—(1) Where the Scottish Ministers have—

- (a) received information from the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions that the transferring individual is terminally ill in terms of section 72(5) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992(7) immediately before the date of transfer, or
- (b) not received information from the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions that the transferring individual is terminally ill in terms of section 72(5) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits 1992, but become aware, before they have made a transfer determination, that a transferring individual has a terminal illness in terms of regulation 26(7) of the ADP Regulations, the transfer determination must be made on the basis that the transferring individual satisfies the conditions for the enhanced rate of both the daily living component and the mobility component of Adult Disability Payment.

(2) Where paragraph (1) applies—

- (a) paragraphs (4) to (6) of regulation 26 of the ADP Regulations do not apply, and
- (b) the transferring individual's entitlement to Adult Disability Payment will commence on whichever is the later of—
  - (i) the date that the ADP Regulations came into force,
  - (ii) the day that the clinical judgement was made in accordance with regulation 26(7) of the ADP Regulations, or

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision to transfer individuals who meet the residence and presence conditions in the Disability Assistance for Working Age People (Scotland) Regulations 2022 (“the ADP Regulations”) and are awarded Disability Living Allowance to become entitled to Adult Disability Payment (Parts 2 and 3). These Regulations also make miscellaneous amendment to the Personal Independence Payment (Transitional Provisions) Regulations 2013, the Disability Assistance for Children and Young People (Scotland) Regulations 2021 and the ADP Regulations (Part 4).

Part 2 includes provisions to transfer individuals to become entitled to Adult Disability Payment by serving a notice of intention to transfer on them and making a transfer determination, providing for a transitional rate of the daily living component and the amount, form and time of payment of Adult Disability Payment, providing for when Disability Living Allowance is to cease, periods for re-determinations, special rules for transferring individuals with a terminal illness, modifications of the ADP Regulations and provision for appointees.

Part 3 includes provisions to make a review determination for a transferred individual, the time of payment, address changes of circumstances and when an increase or decrease of entitlement takes effect.

Regulation 17 makes consequential amendments to the Personal Independence Payment (Transitional Provisions) Regulations 2013 to remove the requirements on the Scottish Ministers to invite an individual who is entitled to Disability Living Allowance to apply for Personal Independence Payment.

Regulation 18 makes amendments to the Disability Assistance for Children and Young People (Scotland) Regulations 2021:

- removes unnecessary definitions,
- clarifies when an increase in Child Disability payment is made when an individual leaves alternative accommodation,
- provides for reducing the amount of Child Disability Payment paid for a period when the individual has received short-term assistance, and
- modifies the provision on payment cycles for individuals who are transferring from Disability Living Allowance to Child Disability Payment.

Regulation 19 makes amendments to the ADP Regulations:

- removes unnecessary definitions and clarifying the definition of “qualifying services”,
- to put beyond doubt the need to consider the daily living and mobility activity tables within schedule 1 when applying regulation 17 of the ADP Regulations,
- to put beyond doubt the effect of regulation 25 on those who have only been in receipt of the daily living component,
- amends regulation 26(3) of the ADP Regulations to ensure that clients who are terminally ill will be recognised as receiving the maximum number of points for all daily living and mobility activities, and treated as though they have satisfied the criteria for the enhanced rates of both components of Adult Disability Payment,

- adds provision to clarify when payments should resume after an individual leaves a care home, hospital or legal detention,
- to include individuals transferring from Disability Living Allowance onto Adult Disability Payment within the terms of the ADP Regulations to create an exception to the age criteria for these transferring individuals, and for a determination without application to occur if the Disability Living Allowance they were entitled to before transfer changes, once they are in receipt of Adult Disability Payment,
- to clarify the payment to be made under regulation 58(3) to individuals who move onto Adult Disability Payment from Child Disability Payment, to ensure that there is a deduction of any Child Disability Payment they have already been entitled to for the same period,
- to clarify the circumstances for a reduction of the amount of Adult Disability Payment to be paid for a period when an individual has received short-term assistance,
- makes amendments to Part 3 of schedule 2 of the ADP regulations, where provision is made for individuals transferring from Personal Independence Payment to Adult Disability Payment. These amendments extend the restrictions on the mobility component after an individual reaches the relevant age, currently detailed in regulation 25, to also apply to case transfer clients under part 3 of schedule 2 of the ADP Regulations who are terminally ill or who report a change of circumstances. An amendment is made to include new provision for when entitlement to Personal Independence Payment will end, where a client has been in receipt of Personal Independence Payment on a cycle of one week in advance and three weeks in arrears. Provision is also added to detail the payment cycles that transferees from Personal Independence Payment may receive once they are in receipt of Adult Disability Payment, and to modify the definition of “transferring individual” to ensure that it will continue to apply to all clients who have transferred from Personal Independence Payment, after their transfer is complete, and
- amends references to the “care component” to be to the “daily living component”, and correct other minor wording errors.
