

Overseas and Other Clergy (Ministry and Ordination) Measure 1967

1967 No. 3

[^{F1}1A General permission to overseas clergymen to officiate U.K.

- (1) Without prejudice to section 1 of this Measure, the Archbishop of either province may, by an instrument in writing, grant, in accordance with the following provisions of this section, a general permission to overseas clergymen to officiate as priest or deacon in that province.
- (2) A permission granted under this section shall specify—
 - (a) the class or description of overseas clergymen to which it relates,
 - (b) the functions, or class or description of functions, which any clergyman may exercise in accordance with the permission, and
 - (c) the duration of the permission.
- (3) A permission granted under this section may be for an indefinite period or for such period as is specified in the permission and, where it is granted for a limited period, may be extended by a further permission, either for an indefinite or for a limited period.
- (4) A clergyman may not, in accordance with any permission granted under this section, solemnize or publish the banns of a marriage.
- (5) The Archbishop of either province may, at any time, amend or revoke a permission granted by him under this section by a further instrument in writing.
- (6) No overseas clergyman may hold office under Common Tenure, unless he has a permission to officiate under section 1 of this Measure.
- (7) Subject to subsections (4) and (6) of this section, a clergyman who officiates under a permission granted under this section shall, when exercising any function to which the permission relates,—
 - (a) be in the same position as if he had been granted permission to officiate under section 1 of this Measure, and
 - (b) for the duration of the permission, possess the same rights and advantages, and be subject to all such duties and liabilities, as he would have possessed and
