

Deaconesses and Lay Workers (Pensions) Measure 1980

1980 No. 1

U.K.

A Measure passed by the General Synod of the Church of England to empower the Church Commissioners to make payments for the provision or augmentation of pensions and related benefits for deaconesses, lay workers, their dependants and widows; and for purposes connected therewith [20th March 1980]

1 Power of Church Commissioners to make payments for provision, etc. of pension benefits for deaconesses and lay workers. E

(1) The Church Commissioners shall have power to make payments out of their general fund to the Church of England Pensions Board (hereinafter referred to as “the Board”) for the purposes of providing or augmenting—

- (a) pensions for deaconesses and lay workers and their dependants [^{F1}widows and widowers [^{F2}, being pensions paid or payable under the past service scheme (within the meaning assigned to that expression by the Pensions Measure 1997) or in respect of service which ended before 1st December 1988]]; and
- (b) any lump sums paid or payable [^{F3}under that scheme] to deaconesses and lay workers on their retirement from service;

and any such payment may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be agreed between the Church Commissioners and the Board.

(2) Any sums paid to the Board under subsection (1) above shall be applied by the Board in such manner as the Board, in consultation with the Church Commissioners, thinks fit to implement the purposes mentioned in that subsection and, without prejudice to the generality of the preceding words, the Board may pay part or all of any such sum into the fund established by the Board and known as the Church Workers Pension Fund or any other fund established for the said purposes or any of them.
