

Deacons (Ordination of Women) Measure 1986

1986 No. 4

A MEASURE passed by the General Synod of the Church of England to make provision for the ordination of women as deacons, and for connected purposes. [7th November 1986]

1 Provision for ordination of women as deacons.

- (1) It shall be lawful for the General Synod to make provision by Canon for enabling a woman to be ordained to the office of deacon if she otherwise satisfies the requirements of Canon Law as to the persons who may be ordained as deacons.
- (2) In the case of a deaconess who is licensed or holds a bishop's permission to officiate, a Canon made in pursuance of subsection (1) above may make provision for enabling the deaconess to be ordained to the office of deacon notwithstanding—
  - (a) that she has not after applying to be so ordained been further examined concerning her knowledge of holy scripture or of the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Church of England, or
  - (b) that she has not exhibited to the bishop of the diocese any certificate or other document which is required to be so exhibited by every person who is to be made a deacon.
- (3) In section 1(1) of the <sup>M1</sup>Clergy (Ordination and Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure 1964 there shall be inserted at the beginning the words "Subject to the provisions of section 1(2) of the Deacons (Ordination of Women) Measure 1986".
- (4) Nothing in this Measure shall make it lawful for a woman to be ordained to the office of priest.

2 Provisions as to the order of deaconesses.

- (1) It shall be lawful for the General Synod to provide by Canon that no woman shall be admitted to the order of deaconesses unless before the date on which this Measure comes into force she has been accepted for training for admission to that order.
- (2) Nothing in this Measure shall affect the rights of a deaconess who does not become a deacon.

3 Provisions as to pensions etc.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, the provisions of Parts I, III and IV of the <sup>M2</sup>Clergy Pensions Measure 1961 (in this section referred to as “the 1961 Measure”) shall, so far as material, apply in relation to a woman who becomes a clerk in Holy Orders within the meaning of that Measure by virtue of being ordained to the office of deacon, and in relation to the husband or widower of any such woman, as they apply in relation to a male clerk in Holy Orders and the wife or widow of any such clerk.
- (2) For the purposes of section 46 of the 1961 Measure the retiring age of a woman shall be the age of sixty years or such other age as the General Synod may by resolution from time to time determine.
- (3) In consequence of the foregoing provisions of this section the 1961 Measure shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in the Schedule to this Measure.
