

Church of England (Ecumenical Relations) Measure 1988

1988 No. 3

A Measure passed by the General Synod of the Church of England to enable provision to be made by Canon with respect to local co-operation between the Church of England and other Churches; to modify in certain cases restrictions imposed by the Overseas and Other Clergy (Ministry and Ordination) Measure 1967; and for connected purposes. [29th July 1988]

Commencement Information

II Measure not in force at Royal Assent see s. 9\(2\); Measure wholly in force at 1.11.1988.

1 Provision by Canon for joint worship with other Churches and for use of buildings by other Churches.

[^{F1}(1)] It shall be lawful for the General Synod to make provision by Canon—

- (a) for enabling a member of a Church to which this Measure applies to take part in public worship in accordance with the forms of service and practice of the Church of England;
- (b) for enabling clerks in Holy Orders, deaconesses, lay workers and readers of the Church of England to take part in worship in accordance with the forms of service and practice of a Church to which this Measure applies.
- (c) for enabling a place of worship of the Church of England to be made available for the conduct of worship in accordance with the forms of service and practice of a Church to which this Measure applies.

[^{F2}(2)] It shall be lawful for the General Synod to make provision by Canon for enabling a member of a Church which subscribes to the doctrine of the Holy Trinity but which is not otherwise a Church to which this Measure applies—

- (a) to read Holy Scripture at a Church of England service;
- (b) to lead the Intercessions at Holy Communion according to the use of the Church of England;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/2019.Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Church of England (Ecumenical Relations) Measure 1988. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) to lead prayers at a Church of England service other than Holy Communion.
- (3) It shall be lawful for the General Synod to make provision by Canon for enabling a member of the Salvation Army to preach at a Church of England service.
- (4) In subsections (2) and (3), “Church of England service” means a service held in accordance with the forms of service and practice of the Church of England.]

3 Restriction on powers of General Synod under ss. 1 and 2.

The powers of the General Synod under the preceding provisions of this Measure shall be so exercised as to ensure that—

- (a) no person shall, unless he has been episcopally ordained priest in a Church whose Orders are recognised and accepted by the Church of England, preside at the Holy Communion according to the use of the Church of England, and
- (b) no person shall, unless he is a clerk in Holy Orders of the Church of England, solemnise a marriage according to the rites of the Church of England.

4 Provision as to overseas clergymen etc.

Where any priest or deacon of [^{F10}a Church in communion with the Church of England] is granted permission under the ^{M2}Overseas and Other Clergy (Ministry and Ordination) Measure 1967 to officiate for a limited period as a priest or deacon in the province of Canterbury or York, nothing in section 1(2) of that Measure or in any Canon shall inhibit that priest or deacon from exercising his ministry in another Church to which this Measure applies in accordance with the terms of the relationship between [^{F11}the Church in communion with the Church of England] and that other Church.
