

Care of Churches and Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction Measure 1991

1991 No. 1

PART III

ECCLESIASTICAL JURISDICTION

11 General provisions as to faculty jurisdiction.

- (1) For the avoidance of doubt and without prejudice to the jurisdiction of consistory courts under any enactment or rule of law, it is hereby declared that the jurisdiction of the consistory court of a diocese applies to all parish churches in the diocese and the churchyards and articles appertaining thereto.
- (2) Except as provided by subsection (3) below, a building licensed by the bishop of a diocese after the coming into operation of this section for public worship according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England and all articles appertaining thereto shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the consistory court of the diocese as though the building were a consecrated church.
- (3) Where the bishop of a diocese, after consultation with the advisory committee, considers that any building in the diocese so licensed should not be subject to the faculty jurisdiction he may by order direct that subsection (2) above shall not apply to the building.
- (4) Where the bishop of a diocese, after consultation with the advisory committee, considers that any article appertaining to a building in the diocese so licensed in respect of which an order under subsection (3) above is in force should be subject to the faculty jurisdiction by reason of its being—
 - (a) of outstanding architectural, artistic, historical or archaeological value; or
 - (b) of significant monetary value; or
 - (c) at special risk of being stolen or damaged,he may by order direct that the article shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the consistory court of the diocese during such period as may be specified in the order.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/1993. This version of this provision has been superseded.
