

Diocesan Boards of Education Measure 1991

1991 No. 2

10 Interpretation.

(1) In this Measure—

^{F1} . . .

“church educational endowment” means an educational endowment which includes among the purposes for which it may be applied religious education according to the faith and practice of the Church of England;

“Church of England voluntary school” means a voluntary school in respect of which any trust deed or other instrument requires provision to be made at the school for religious education according to the faith and practice of the Church of England or in which, in the absence of any such instrument, such provision has been made by custom and practice;

^{F2} “church school” means—

- (a) a Church of England voluntary school,
- (b) a grant-maintained school which was such a voluntary school immediately before it became grant-maintained,
- (c) a grant-maintained school established in pursuance of proposals published under section 212 of the Education Act 1996 where either any trust deed relating to the school or the statement required by paragraph 8 of Schedule 20 to that Act provides for religious education at the school to accord with the faith and practice of the Church of England, or
- (d) a grant-maintained school in respect of which proposals for the required provision for religious education to be provision for religious education in accordance with the faith and practice of the Church of England are approved under section 261 of that Act]

“educational endowment” means an endowment which, or the income of which, may be applied for the purposes of education;

“endowment” includes property not subject to any restriction on the expenditure of capital.
