

Church of England (Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure 1995

1995 No. 2

1 Ministers of Church of Ireland.

It shall be lawful for persons admitted to Holy Orders by a bishop of the Church of Ireland, whether or not they hold or have held any benefice or preferment in England, to officiate in England in a church or chapel belonging to the Church of England, if invited to do so by the minister having the cure of souls of the church or chapel, without notifying the bishop of the diocese in which the church or chapel is situate for the same period and subject to the same conditions as would be applicable to them if they had been admitted to Holy Orders by the bishop of a diocese in the Church of England.

Status:

Point in time view as at 01/09/1995.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Church of England (Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure 1995, Section 1.