

Church of England (Miscellaneous Provisions) Measure 1995

1995 No. 2

4 Resignation of certain office holders

Where a dean, residentiary canon or archdeacon wishes to resign it shall not be necessary to proceed by way of a deed, but any such resignation shall be in writing, duly signed and witnessed and sent—

- (a) in the case of a dean, to Her Majesty;
- (b) in the case of a residentiary canon where the canonry is in the direct patronage of Her Majesty, to Her Majesty;
- (c) in the case of any other residentiary canon, to the diocesan bishop concerned; and
- (d) in the case of an archdeacon, to the diocesan bishop concerned.