SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND PENSIONS BOARD

PART 1

MEMBERSHIP

Casual vacancies: special provision for persons retiring at the end of 2019 or 2021

- 4 (1) The provision made by paragraphs 1(4) and (8) and 2(3) and (4) does not affect the term of office of a person who, immediately before the commencement of this Schedule, was serving as a member of the Board—
- (a) having been elected under the Church of England Pensions Regulations 1997 before 1 July 2017, or
 - (b) having filled a casual vacancy under paragraph 3(3), (4) or (5) of the Church of England Pensions (Amendment) Regulations 2017.
- (2) The vacancies which arise on the retirement of two of those members at the end of 2019 are to be filled by two appointed persons.
- (3) The vacancies which arise on the retirement of two of those members at the end of 2021 are to be filled by one elected person and one appointed person.
- (4) If a casual vacancy arises in the case of either of the members retiring at the end of 2019, the vacancy in each case is to be filled by an appointed person.
- (5) If a casual vacancy arises in the case of either of the members retiring at the end of 2021—
- (a) the first vacancy to arise is to be filled by an appointed person and the second vacancy by an elected person, or
 - (b) if both vacancies arise at the same time, they are to be filled by an appointed person and an elected person.
- (6) If a casual vacancy arises in the case of a person who was filling a casual vacancy under sub-paragraph (4) or (5) or under this sub-paragraph, the vacancy is to be filled either by an elected person or by an appointed person, depending on whether the person whose place is being filled was elected or appointed; and sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) accordingly apply to the person filling the vacancy as they did to the person whose place is being filled.
- (7) This paragraph does not affect the application of paragraph 3.
- (8) A reference in this paragraph to an elected person is a reference to a person elected by and from the House of Laity.
