

Parsonages Measure 1938

1938 No. 3 1 and 2 Geo 6

A Measure passed by the National Assembly of the Church of England. To consolidate and amend the law relating to the sale, purchase and improvement of parsonage houses and of other property belonging to benefices. [23rd June 1938]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Measure extended with modifications by Pastoral Measure 1983 \(No. 1, SIF 21:4\), s. 33(4)

1 Powers of selling parsonage houses, etc.

(1) Where the residence house, outbuildings, gardens, orchard and appurtenances belonging to any benefice shall be inconveniently situate or too large, or where for other good and sufficient reasons it shall be thought advisable to sell and dispose of the same or of any part thereof, the incumbent of such benefice, or during a vacancy the bishop, shall, subject to the provisions of this Measure, have the following powers, that is to say:—

- (i) power to sell such residence house, outbuildings, gardens, orchard, and appurtenances, or any of them, or any part thereof, with any land contiguous thereto belonging to the benefice either together or in parcels; or
- (ii) power to pull down such residence house and outbuildings, or any of them or any part thereof and sell the materials and the site thereof, or either such materials or site or any part thereof.

[^{F1}(1A) Where the incumbent of any benefice, or during a vacancy the bishop, has power under the foregoing subsection to sell the residence house of the benefice, the incumbent or bishop, as the case may be, shall also have the following powers, that is to say:—

- (i) power to exchange that house for any other house suitable for the residence and occupation of the incumbent of the benefice;
- (ii) power to pay and receive money in respect of equality of exchange; . . . ^{F2}
- (iii) ^{F2}

For the purposes of this subsection the word “house” includes the outbuildings, gardens, orchards and appurtenances or any of them or any part thereof.]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Parsonages Measure 1938 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Upon a sale [^{F3}or exchange] under the powers of this Measure—
- (i) any hereditament, easement, right or privilege of any kind may be excepted, reserved or granted over or in relation to any land retained for the benefice affected, or disposed of . . . ^{F4}, or in relation to any part thereof; and
 - (ii) any restriction with respect to building on or other user of land or with respect to any other thing may be imposed and made binding, so far as the law permits, by covenant, condition, or otherwise . . . ^{F4}
- (3) No power conferred by this section shall be exercisable—
- (i) so that an area of more than twelve acres (including the site of any residence house, or other buildings) shall be sold or disposed of hereunder in any one benefice:
 - (ii) without the consent of [^{F5}the Church Commissioners], the Diocesan Dilapidations Board, and (in cases where the power is exercised by the incumbent) the bishop respectively;
 - (iii) without the consent of the [^{F6}Crown Estate Commissioners] in cases where the property proposed to be disposed of is held under any grant made by or on behalf of His Majesty in right of his Crown; or
 - (iv) Power or in respect of any property vested in trustees.
- (4) The powers conferred by [^{F3}subsection (1) of] this section shall continue to be exercisable in respect of a house which has ceased to be the residence house of a benefice by reason of the constitution of a new residence house of that benefice under this Measure. [^{F7}and in respect of any property belonging to a benefice, being property which consists of an outbuilding, garden or orchard of a house which has been sold or otherwise disposed of under this Measure, and any land contiguous to, or appurtenances enjoyed with, such a house or any part of such property.]
- (5) All moneys arising from any sale [^{F3}or exchange] under the provisions of this section shall be paid to [^{F5}the Church Commissioners], and the receipt of the treasurer of Queen Anne's Bounty shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser.

C3 S. 2A amended by Patronage (Benefices) Measure 1986 (No. 3, SIF 21:4), s. 34(2)(a)

3 Provisions as to exercise of foregoing powers.

- (1) An incumbent or bishop proposing to exercise any of the powers conferred on him by [^{F15}any of the foregoing sections] of this Measure shall give the prescribed notice to [^{F16}the registered patron]of the benefice affected and to the parochial church council of the parish within which that benefice is situate, and [^{F17}the Church Commissioners] shall, before consenting to the exercise of such power, consider any objection raised within the prescribed time by such patron or council, and, if satisfied that such objection ought not to prevent the exercise of such power, shall inform the patron or council, as the case may require, of the reasons upon which such conclusion is founded.
F18
- (2) Where it shall appear desirable to a Diocesan Dilapidations Board that any of the powers conferred by [^{F15}any of the foregoing sections] of this Measure should be exercised in any benefice, the Board shall make a report to the bishop, and if the bishop and the incumbent of the benefice, or during a vacancy the bishop acting alone, shall request the Board so to do, the Board may frame proposals for the exercise of such power in accordance with the provisions of this Measure, and such proposals shall be communicated by the Board to the bishop and (except during a vacancy) to the incumbent.
- (3) [^{F17}The Church Commissioners] may make such recommendations as may be deemed fit as to the costs, charges and expenses which may be incurred in connection with the exercise of any power conferred by [^{F15}any of the foregoing sections] of this Measure, and any recommendations so made shall, if the Diocesan Dilapidations Board concur in them, be binding on the person exercising such power.

5 Application of moneys derived from sales.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, [^{F20}the Church Commissioners] shall in their discretion apply and dispose of any moneys arising from any sale [^{F21}or exchange] under this Measure of any part of the property of a benefice for one or more of the following purposes (that is to say):—
- (i) in payment of the costs, charges and expenses of such sale [^{F21}or exchange];
 - (ii) for or towards any one or more of the purposes of the powers contained in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of subsection (1) of section two [^{F21}and in subsection (1) of section two A] of this Measure;
 - (iii) in repayment of any money expended with the previous consent of [^{F20}the Church Commissioners] and the Diocesan Dilapidations Board for the purpose of rendering the property sold [^{F21}or exchanged] more readily saleable [^{F21}or exchangeable];
 - (iv) if and in so far as the income derived from any moneys arising from any sale [^{F21}or exchange] under this Measure pending the application and disposition of such moneys under the foregoing paragraphs of this subsection shall be insufficient for this purpose, in payment to the incumbent of the benefice affected of the whole or any part of the expenses reasonably incurred by him in respect of his removal from one residence house to another, the storage of his furniture, and the rent paid by him for any temporary residence pending his occupation of the new residence house of the benefice: provided that no payment shall be made under the provisions of this paragraph unless the consent of the bishop and the Diocesan Dilapidations Board shall have first been obtained; and
 - [^{F22}(iv) (a) In repaying to an incumbent or incumbents such amounts as he or they may have paid to [^{F20}the Church Commissioners] in reduction of a loan made by them for or towards the erection or purchase of a residence house;]
 - [^{F22}(iv) (b) In repaying to [^{F20}the Church Commissioners] the whole or any part of any grant made by them for or towards the erection or purchase of a residence house.]
 - (v) in any case where such moneys shall not have been wholly expended for one or more of the above-mentioned purposes, in erecting, rebuilding, improving
