

Draft Order laid before Parliament under section 12(6) of the Industrial Training Act 1982 for approval by each House of Parliament.

DRAFT STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2001 No.

EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING

The Industrial Training Levy (Engineering Construction Board) Order 2001

Made - - - - 2001
Coming into force - - 2001

Whereas the Engineering Construction Industry Training Board has submitted proposals for the raising and collection of a levy under section 11(1) of the Industrial Training Act 1982⁽¹⁾ (“the 1982 Act”);

And whereas in pursuance of section 11(3) of the 1982 Act the said proposals include provision for the exemption from the levy of employers who, in view of the small number of their employees, ought in the opinion of the Secretary of State to be exempted from it;

And whereas the proposals are made in pursuance of section 11(4)(b) of the 1982 Act and the Secretary of State is satisfied that those proposals fall within section 11(5)(b) of the said Act (“the relevant proposals”) and that they are necessary as mentioned in the said section 11(5), and that the condition mentioned in section 11(6)(a) of the 1982 Act is satisfied in the case of the relevant proposals;

And whereas the Secretary of State estimates that the amount which will be payable by virtue of the following Order by certain employers in the engineering construction industry will exceed an amount which he estimates as equal to one per cent. of relevant emoluments, but considers such amount appropriate in the circumstances, and the following Order therefore falls within section 11(7)(b) of the 1982 Act;

And whereas the Secretary of State has consulted the Scottish Ministers pursuant to section 88(2) of the Scotland Act 1998⁽²⁾;

And whereas a draft of the following Order was laid before Parliament in accordance with section 12(6) of the 1982 Act and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 11(2), 12(2), (3) and (4) of the 1982 Act and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:

(1) 1982 c. 10; sections 11 and 12 were amended by the Employment Act 1989 (c. 38), Schedule 4, paragraphs 10 and 11 respectively.
(2) 1998 c. 46; the Engineering Construction Industry Training Board has been specified as a cross border authority for the purposes of section 88; see the Scotland Act 1998 (Cross Border Public Authorities) (Specification) Order 1999; S.I.1999/1319.

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Industrial Training Levy (Engineering Construction Board) Order 2001 and shall come into force on the seventh day after the day on which it is made.

changed but its business is continued wholly or mainly at or from the new location, or where the suspension of activities is of a temporary or seasonal nature.

(3) For the purposes of this Order in the case of an establishment that is taken over (whether directly or indirectly) by an employer in succession to, or jointly with, another person, the person or persons carrying on the establishment on the day upon which this Order comes into force shall be treated as the employer of any person who was employed at any time in the base period at or from the establishment under a contract of service or of apprenticeship or under a labour-only agreement and that employer shall be assessed to levy in accordance with article 4 below.

(4) This Order applies to the activities of the engineering construction industry in so far as they are carried out in Great Britain or in so far as they are carried out in relation to employment to which the Employment Protection (Offshore Employment) Order 1976(6) applies.

Meaning of “leviable establishment”

3.—(1) For the purposes of this Order “leviable establishment” means, subject to paragraph (3) below—

- (a) an establishment engaged during the necessary period wholly or mainly in the engineering construction industry; and
- (b) an establishment (not falling within sub-paragraph (a)) at or from which persons were employed during the necessary period in any activities such as are mentioned in paragraph 1(c) of the Schedule to the industrial training order ((but subject to paragraph 2 of that Schedule) (related and administrative etc. activities).

(2) In this article “the necessary period” means—

- (a) unless sub-paragraph (b) applies, a period (which need not be continuous) consisting of a total of 27 or more weeks falling within the base period; or
- (b) in the case of an establishment that started to carry on business in the base period, a period (which need not be continuous) falling within the base period consisting of a total number of weeks exceeding one half of the number of weeks in the part of the base period starting on the day on which business was commenced and ending on the last day of the base period.

(3) An establishment in respect of which—

- (a) the sum of the emoluments and net labour-only payments referred to in article 5(1)(a) below does not exceed £75,000; and
- (b) the sum of the emoluments and net labour-only payments referred to in article 5(1)(b) below does not exceed £1,000,000 is not, however, a leviable establishment.

Imposition of levy

4.—(1) The levy to be imposed by the Board on employers in respect of the levy period shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(2) The levy shall be assessed by the Board separately in respect of each establishment of an employer, but in agreement with the employer one assessment may be made in respect of any number of such establishments, in which case those establishments shall be treated for the purposes of that assessment as constituting one establishment.

(6) S.I. 1976/766; the whole of the Industrial Training Act 1982 has been applied by the Employment Protection (Offshore Employment) Order 1976 for such purposes as are relevant to or in relation to persons in employment to which that Order applies (article 3 and Part I of the Schedule, paragraph 1); relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1977/588 and 1981/208.

(3) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (5) below the levy on each employer shall be assessed by the Board in respect of the emoluments and net labour-only payments paid by him to all persons specified in paragraph (4) below employed by the employer in the base period at leviable establishments of his and the amount of the levy shall be as specified in article 5 below.

(4) The persons referred to in paragraph (3) are,

(a) in the case of an establishment such as is mentioned in article 3(1)(a), all persons employed at or from the establishment except—

(i) any person undergoing a course of training as a seagoing officer or rating under an agreement in writing with an employer in the shipping industry, or with any organisation of employers in that industry or with any association of such organisations,

(ii) any person engaged wholly in agriculture (within the meaning of section 109(3) of the Agriculture Act 1947⁽⁷⁾ or, as the case may be, section 85(1) of the Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 1991⁽⁸⁾),

(iii) any person engaged wholly in the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption, or

(b) in the case of an establishment such as is mentioned in article 3(1)(b), all persons employed at or from the establishment wholly or mainly in any of the activities such as are mentioned in paragraph 1(c) of the Schedule to the industrial training order and for the purposes of this paragraph a company director remunerated solely by fees shall be left out of account but otherwise a company director (including a person occupying a position of director by whatever name he is called) shall be treated as employed.

(5) A charity within the meaning of section 506 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 shall be exempted from the levy.

Amount of the levy

5.—(1) The levy assessed in respect of any leviable establishment shall be the aggregate of—

(a) an amount equal to 1.5 per cent. of the sum of—

(i) the total emoluments of all persons specified in article 4(3) who are site employees employed in the base period at or from the establishment by the employer, and

(ii) the total net labour-only payments made in the base period for such persons who are site employees, where that sum exceeds £75,000; and

(b) an amount equal to 0.18 per cent. of the sum of—

(i) the total emoluments for all persons specified in article 4(3) who are off site employees employed in the base period at or from the establishment by the employer, and

(ii) the total net labour-only payments made in the base period for such persons who are off site employees, where that sum exceeds £1,000,000.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) above the net labour-only payments made in the base period is the difference between labour-only payments and labour-only receipts during that period (and where labour-only receipts exceed labour-only payments the net labour-only payments shall be zero) and for the purposes of this paragraph—

(7) 1947 c. 48.

(8) 1991 c. 55.

- (a) “labour-only payments” in any period means the sum which (rounded down where necessary to the nearest £1) represents all payments (including payments for the incidental use of tools) made by the employer during the period under labour-only agreements for services rendered to him in his trade or business carried out at or from the establishment; and
- (b) “labour-only receipts” in any period means the sum which (rounded down where necessary to the nearest £1) represents all payments (including payments for the incidental use of tools) received by the employer during the period under labour-only agreements for services rendered by him or on his behalf in his trade or business carried out at or from the establishment.

Assessment notices

6.—(1) The Board shall serve an assessment notice on every employer assessed to the levy, but one notice may comprise two or more assessments.

(2) The amount of any assessment payment under an assessment notice shall be rounded down to the nearest £1.

(3) An assessment notice shall state the amount of the levy payable by the person assessed to the levy, and that amount shall be equal to the total amount of the levy assessed by the Board under the provisions of this Order in respect of each establishment included in the notice.

(4) An assessment notice shall state the Board’s address for the service of a notice of appeal or of an application for an extension of time for appealing.

(5) An assessment notice may be served on the person assessed to the levy either by delivering it to him personally or by leaving it, or sending it to him by post, at his last known address or place of business in the United Kingdom, or if that person is a corporation, by leaving it, or sending it by post to the corporation, at such address or place of business or at its registered or principal office.

Payment of the levy

7.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this Order, the amount of each assessment appearing in an assessment notice served by the Board (the date of which shall not be earlier than 31st August 2001) shall be due and payable by the employer to the Board one month after the date of the notice.

(2) The amount of an assessment shall not be recoverable by the Board until there has expired the time for appealing against the assessment allowed by article 9(1) below and any further period or periods of time that the Board or an employment tribunal may have allowed for appealing under article 9(2) or (3) or where an appeal is brought, until the appeal is decided or withdrawn.

Withdrawal of assessment

8.—(1) The Board may, by a notice served on the person assessed to the levy in the same manner as an assessment notice, withdraw an assessment if that person has appealed against that assessment under the provisions of article 9 below and the appeal has not been entered in the Register of Appeals kept under the appropriate regulations specified in article 9(4).

(2) The withdrawal of an assessment shall be without prejudice—

- (a) to the power of the Board to serve a further assessment notice in respect of any establishment to which that assessment related; or
- (b) to any other assessment included in the original assessment notice, and such notice shall thereupon have effect as if any assessment withdrawn by the Board had not been included therein.

Appeals

9.—(1) A person assessed to the levy may appeal to an employment tribunal against the assessment within one month from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within any further period or periods of time that may be allowed by the Board or an employment tribunal under the following provisions of this article.

(2) The Board by notice may for good cause allow a person assessed to the levy to appeal to an employment tribunal against the assessment at any time within the period of four months from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within such further period or periods as the Board may allow before such time as may then be limited for appealing has expired.

(3) If the Board shall not allow an application for extension of time for appealing, an employment tribunal shall upon application made to the tribunal by the person assessed to the levy have the like powers as the Board under paragraph (2) above.

(4) An appeal or an application to an employment tribunal under this article shall be made in accordance with the Employment Tribunals (Constitution and Rules of Procedure) Regulations 1993⁽⁹⁾ except where the establishment to which the relevant assessment relates is wholly or mainly in Scotland in which case the appeal or application shall be made in accordance with the Employment Tribunals (Constitution and Rules of Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 1993⁽¹⁰⁾.

(5) The powers of an employment tribunal under paragraph (3) above may be exercised by the President of the Employment Tribunals (England and Wales) or by the President of the Employment Tribunals (Scotland) as the case may be.

Cessation of business

10.—(1) The provisions of this article shall apply in relation to an establishment that ceases to carry on business in the levy period.

(2) The amount of the levy imposed in respect of the establishment shall be in the same proportion to the amount that would otherwise be due under the provisions of articles 4 and 5 above as the number of days between the commencement of the levy period and the date of cessation of business (both dates inclusive) bears to the number of days in the levy period.

(3) Article 7(1) above shall have effect as if the words in parenthesis were omitted.

Evidence

11.—(1) Upon the discharge by a person assessed to the levy of his liability under an assessment the Board shall if so requested issue to him a certificate to that effect.

(2) The production in any proceedings of a document purporting to be certified by the Secretary of the Board or any other person, being a member, officer or servant of the Board authorised to act in that behalf, to be true copy of an assessment or other notice issued by the Board or purporting to be a certificate such as is mentioned in paragraph (1) above shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the document and of the facts stated therein.

(9) S.I. 1993/2687, amended by S.I. 1994/536 and 1996/1757. The title of these Regulations, formerly “the Industrial Tribunals (Constitution and Rules of Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 1993”, was amended by operation of section 1(2) of the Employment Rights (Dispute Resolution) Act 1998 c. 8.

(10) S.I. 1993/2688, amended by S.I. 1994/538 and 1996/1758. The title of these Regulations, formerly “the Industrial Tribunals (Constitution and Rules of Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 1993”, was amended by operation of section 1(2) of the Employment Rights (Dispute Resolution) Act 1998 c. 8.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order gives effect to proposals of the Engineering Construction Industry Training Board which were submitted to the Secretary of State. The proposals are for the imposition of a levy on employers in the engineering construction industry for the purpose of raising money towards meeting the expenses of the Board. The Order also imposes a levy on employers who are not mainly engaged in engineering construction activities but are engaged in any related or administrative activities of a kind to which paragraph 1(c) of Schedule 1 to the Industrial Training (Engineering Board) Order 1964 (as amended by the Industrial Training (Engineering Construction Board) Order 1991) applies; and for those employers the levy will be imposed only in respect of such related or administrative activities.

The levy is to be imposed in respect of the levy period commencing on the day on which this Order comes into force and ending on 31st August 2001.

The levy will be assessed by the Board in accordance with articles 4 and 5, and there is a right of appeal against an assessment to an employment tribunal.

A full regulatory assessment of the effect that this Order will have on the costs of business is available from the Department of Education and Employment, Library and Information Service, Moorfoot, Sheffield S1 4PQ, or Sanctuary Buildings, Great Smith Street, London SW1P 3BT.
