

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes provision about the membership of district policing partnerships in the period immediately following a local general election. It also amends the law on removal of members following conviction for a criminal offence and makes new provision about chairmen and vice-chairmen of district policing partnerships.