The European Community and its Member States subsequently offered certain compensatory adjustments to seventeen WTO members affected by the aforementioned modifications under Article XXI GATS, contained in the agreements specified by this Order.

The principal effect of declaring these agreements to be Community Treaties, as so defined, is that the provisions of section 2 of the European Communities Act 1972 (which provide for the implementation of Community Treaties) apply to it.

An Impact Assessment has not been produced for this instrument, as no impact on the private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.
