(d) all results of research and documents relating to research; and

(e) all library material, books, reference material and publications;

“transfer date” means the beginning of the 5th July 2010.

Winding up of the Authority

3. The Authority is wound up and dissolved on the transfer date.

Transfer of property, rights and liabilities

4.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), all of the property, rights and liabilities of the Authority, including the property, rights and liabilities described or referred to in Schedule 1, are, on the transfer date, transferred to the corporation.

(2) The property, rights and liabilities described or referred to in Schedule 2 are, on the transfer date, transferred to the Secretary of State.

Effects of the Order in relation to employees

5. For the purposes of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006^(b), the transfer of property, rights and liabilities from the Authority to the corporation is to be treated as a “relevant transfer” within the meaning of regulation 2 of those Regulations.

Information

6.—(1) In relation to any property, rights or liabilities that are transferred to the corporation under article 4(1), the Secretary of State shall provide to the corporation on request a copy of any record, or any other information, that she holds and that the corporation needs in order to deal with that property or those rights or liabilities.

(2) In relation to any property, rights or liabilities that are transferred to the Secretary of State under article 4(2), the corporation shall provide to the Secretary of State on request a copy of any record, or any other information, that it holds and that the Secretary of State needs in order to deal with that property or those rights or liabilities.

(a) The Authority means the Personal Accounts Delivery Authority (see section 20(1) of the Act).

(b) S.I. 2006/246.

Continuity in functions

7.—(1) Where in relation to any property, rights or liabilities that are transferred under article 4, any action has been taken under any enactment, by or against the Authority, that action shall be regarded as having been taken by or against the corporation or the Secretary of State, as the case may be.

(2) Where in relation to any property, rights or liabilities that are transferred under article 4, any legal proceedings have been commenced by or against the Authority, those proceedings may be continued by or against the corporation or the Secretary of State, as the case may be.

Repeals and savings

8.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the following provisions are repealed—

- (a) sections 20 and 22 of the Act;
- (b) Schedule 6 to the Act; and
- (c) sections 79 to 85 of the 2008 Act.

(2) Paragraph 17 of Schedule 6 to the Act shall continue to apply in relation to the report on the exercise of the Authority's functions during the financial year ending on 31st March 2010, as if—

- (a) in sub-paragraph (1), for “Authority” there were substituted “The National Employment Savings Trust Corporation established under section 75 of the Pensions Act 2008”; and

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order winds up and dissolves the Personal Accounts Delivery Authority (“the Authority”) and makes provision for the transfer of its property, rights and liabilities to the [] (“the corporation”) established under section 75 of the Pensions Act 2008 (c. 30) and to the Secretary of State.

Article 3 winds up and dissolves the Authority.

Article 4 transfers the property, rights and liabilities of the Authority (including the property, rights and liabilities described or referred to in Schedule 1 and excluding the property, rights and liabilities described or referred to in Schedule 2) to the corporation. It transfers the property, rights and liabilities described or referred to in Schedule 2 to the Secretary of State.

Article 5 provides for the application of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 (known as the “TUPE Regulations”) to the transfer of employees from the Authority to the corporation.

Article 6 provides for the Secretary of State and the corporation to provide each other, on request, with any record or information that the other party needs in order to deal with any property, rights or liabilities that are transferred to them under article 4.

Article 7 provides that any action that has been taken by or against the Authority under any enactment, and any legal proceedings that have been commenced by or against the Authority, may be continued by or against the corporation or the Secretary of State, as the case may be.

Article 8 repeals sections 20 and 22 of, and Schedule 6 to, the Pensions Act 2007 and sections 79 to 85 of the Pensions Act 2008 (establishment, constitution and functions of the Authority), with certain savings with respect to the accounts and annual report of the Authority for 2009/2010.

Article 9 provides that the accounts and annual report of the Authority for 2010/2011 are to be included within the accounts and annual report of the corporation for that year.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has no impact on the private or voluntary sector.

Draft Order laid before Parliament under section 23(8) of the Pensions Act 2007, for approval by resolution of each House of Parliament.
