(2) The requirement in paragraph (1)(b) does not apply in relation to the information specified in regulation 3(1)(g), (h), (i), (j) or (k), where the trustees or managers of the occupational pension scheme notify, or the personal pension scheme provider notifies, the employer that they do not require that piece of information to achieve active membership of that scheme.

(3) Where the information referred to in regulation 3(1)(f) is not available to the employer on the date the notice is received by the employer, the employer must give the trustees or managers of the occupational pension scheme or the personal pension scheme provider that information within one month from the date on which the employer receives it.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation, any reference to ‘the jobholder’ in regulation 3(1) shall be read as a reference to ‘worker’.

PART 6

Postponement of automatic enrolment

Information

24.—(1) At any time before the end of a period of one month beginning with the date on which the automatic enrolment date was postponed under regulation 25, the jobholder’s employer must give the jobholder the information specified in paragraph (2).

(2) The information, which must be given in writing, is—

- (a) the jobholder’s automatic enrolment date;
- (b) a statement giving the reasons for postponement of the automatic enrolment date;
- (c) a statement that during the period prior to the automatic enrolment date the jobholder has no entitlement to become an active member of an automatic enrolment scheme under the Act and therefore no entitlement to contributions payable by the employer; and
- (d) a statement giving details of where to obtain further information about pensions and saving for retirement.

Postponement of the automatic enrolment date

25.—(1) Where a jobholder is within any of the cases set out in regulation 26, the jobholder’s automatic enrolment date is the date 3 months after the date (“postponement date”) otherwise applicable to that jobholder under section 3(7) (automatic enrolment) of the Act.

(2) For the purposes of section 4(3) of the Act, the prescribed period is the period of 3 months beginning with the automatic enrolment date for the jobholder determined under paragraph (1).

Cases in which automatic enrolment may be postponed

26.—(1) Each of cases 1 to 4 is a prescribed case for the purposes of regulation 25.

(2) Each case applies where a person whose automatic enrolment date in respect of previous employment with that employer—

- (a) occurred within a period of 12 months before the postponement date; and
- (b) was not postponed under regulation 25(1).

(3) Case 1 is where an automatic enrolment scheme which is a money purchase scheme is in existence on the person's postponement date and—

- (a) the employer's contribution payable in accordance with section 20(1)(b) (quality requirement: UK money purchase schemes) of the Act, however calculated, is equal to or more than 6% of the amount of the person's qualifying earnings in any applicable pay reference period; and
- (b) the total amount of contributions payable by the person and the employer in accordance with section 20(1)(c) of the Act, however calculated, is equal to or more than 11% of the amount of the person's qualifying earnings in any applicable pay reference period.

(4) Case 2 is where an automatic enrolment scheme which is a personal pension scheme is in existence on the person's postponement date and—

- (a) the employer's contribution payable in accordance with section 26(4)(b) (quality requirement: UK personal pension schemes) of the Act, however calculated, equal to or more than 6% of the amount of the person's qualifying earnings in any applicable pay reference period; and
- (b) the total amount of contributions payable by the person and the employer in accordance with section 26(5)(b) of the Act, however calculated, is equal to or more than 11% of the amount of the person's qualifying earnings in any applicable pay reference period.

(5) Case 3 is where an automatic enrolment scheme which is a defined benefits scheme is in existence on the person's postponement date and the scheme satisfies the requirements contained in section 21(1) or (2) (quality requirement: UK defined benefits schemes) of the Act.

(6) Case 4 is where an automatic enrolment scheme which is a hybrid scheme is in existence on the person's postponement date and the scheme—

- (a) falls within a description of hybrid schemes specified in any rule made under section 24(2) to (4) of the Act; and
- (b) satisfies such of the requirements referred to in section 24(1)(a) or (b) of the Act as the rule in question specifies as being appropriate to schemes of that description subject to—
 - (i) any prescribed modification of those requirements which is referred to in that rule; and
 - (ii) paragraph (7).

(7) When applying, in accordance with any such rule as is referred to in paragraph (6), the requirements for a money purchase scheme under section 20 of the Act—

- (a) the employer's contribution payable in accordance with section 20(1)(b) of the Act, however calculated, must be equal to or more than 6% of the amount of the jobholder's qualifying earnings in any applicable pay reference period; and
- (b) the total amount of contributions payable by the jobholder and the employer in accordance with section 20(1)(c) of the Act, however calculated, must be at least 11% of the amount of the jobholder's qualifying earnings in any applicable pay reference period.

(8) For the purposes of this regulation "postponement date" has the meaning given in regulation 25(1).

(9) In relation to Cases 1, 3 and 4, any reference to a particular provision of the Act is a reference to that provision as it applies to—

- (a) an occupational pension scheme within section 18(a) (occupational pension schemes with main administration in the UK) of the Act, or

- (b) an occupational pension scheme within section 18(b) (occupational pension schemes with main administration in an EEA State other than the UK) of the Act(8).
- (10) In relation to Case 2, any reference to section 26 of the Act is a reference to that provision as it applies to—
 - (a) a personal pension scheme within section 26(1) (quality requirement: UK personal pension schemes) of the Act, or
 - (b) a personal pension scheme within regulation 35(1)(a)(ii) (automatic enrolment schemes which are personal pension schemes regulated by a competent authority of an EEA State other than the UK)(9).

PART 7

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (4), the prescribed period is a period of—

(a) 5 years beginning with the date on which section 3 (automatic enrolment) of the Act comes into force in accordance with provision made by order by the Secretary of State under section 149(1) of the Act; or

(b) such shorter period as is agreed between the jobholder and the employer.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation and regulation 6 “closure date” has the meaning given by section 30(4) (transitional period for defined benefits and hybrid schemes) of the Act.”.

- (c) a statement that the employer may not take any action or make any omission, by which (without the jobholder ceasing to be employed by the employer) the jobholder ceases to be an active member of the scheme or the scheme ceases to be a qualifying scheme unless the jobholder is or within a period of one month becomes an active member of another qualifying scheme.

Continuity of scheme membership

34. The prescribed period for the purposes of section 2(3) (continuity of scheme membership) of the Act is one month beginning with the date on which—

- (a) the jobholder ceases to be an active member of a qualifying scheme; or
- (b) the scheme ceases to be a qualifying scheme.

PART 9

Automatic enrolment schemes

Further conditions applicable to automatic enrolment schemes

35.—(1) The conditions prescribed for the purposes of section 17(1)(c) (automatic enrolment schemes) of the Act are—

- (a) that the scheme must be—
 - (i) an occupational pension scheme within section 18(a) or (b) (occupational pension schemes) of the Act; or
 - (ii) a personal pension scheme where the operation of the scheme—
 - (aa) is regulated by a competent authority; and
 - (bb) is carried on by a person who is in relation to that activity authorised by a competent authority; and
- (b) where the scheme is an occupational pension scheme within the meaning of section 18(b) (occupational pension schemes) of the Act or a personal pension scheme where the operation of the scheme is carried on in accordance with paragraph (1)(a)(ii) by a person authorised by a competent authority other than that of the United Kingdom, the regulatory requirements applicable must provide that—
 - (i) at least 70% of any money purchase benefits applicable to the jobholder will be designated for the purpose of providing that jobholder with an income for life; and

PART 10

Exclusion as a qualifying scheme

Certain schemes providing average salary benefits excluded from being qualifying schemes

36.—(1) A pension scheme which provides for average salary benefits to be provided to or in respect of a jobholder is not a qualifying scheme if, subject to paragraph (3), the scheme has any of the features specified in paragraph (2).

(2) The specified features are that, in relation to any jobholder who has accrued rights to benefits under the scheme (“accrued benefits”)—

- (a) there is no provision for revaluation of such benefits;
- (b) such benefits are to be revalued at less than the minimum rate; or
- (c) such benefits are to be revalued only on the exercise of a discretionary power, at any time when the jobholder’s pensionable service is continuing.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not apply to a scheme with the feature specified in paragraph (2)(c) if—

- (a) the funding of the scheme takes account of the exercise of the discretionary power and does so on the assumption that accrued benefits would be revalued at or above the minimum rate; and
- (b) such funding is provided for in the scheme’s statement of funding principles under section 223 (statement of funding principles) of the Pensions Act 2004(15) or, if the scheme is not required to have such a statement, in an equivalent statement of the scheme’s funding plan.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation, the minimum rate on a revaluation of accrued benefits is an annual increase by—

- (a) the percentage increase in the retail prices index for the year by reference to which the revaluation is made; or
- (b) 2.5 %,

whichever is the lesser.

(5) In paragraph (4)(a), “retail prices index” means—

- (a) the general index of retail prices (for all items) published by the Statistics Board; or
- (b) where that index is not published for any month, any substituted index or figures published by the Board.

PART 11

Test Scheme

Test scheme: requirements to revalue accrued benefits and increase pensions in payment

37.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies for the purposes of section 23(1)(b) (test scheme) of the Act.

(2) The following must be satisfied in relation to a test scheme—

- (a) the requirements of section 84(1) (basis of revaluation) of the 1993 Act; and

(b) the requirements of section 51 (annual increase in rate of pension) of the 1995 Act⁽¹⁶⁾.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), section 84(1) of the 1993 Act shall have effect as if the words “Subject to subsections (2) and (3),” were omitted.

Staged increase in appropriate age

38.—(1) In paragraph (2), “relevant determination” means a determination under section 22 (test scheme standard) of the Act as to whether a scheme satisfies the test scheme standard in relation to a jobholder.

(2) For the purposes of making any relevant determination on or after the date specified in an entry in Column 1 of the Table, the higher “appropriate age” prescribed for the purposes of section 23(3) of the Act is the age specified in Column 2 of the same entry.

Table

Date	Pension age in test scheme
6 April 2024	66 years
6 April 2034	67 years
6 April 2044	68 years

Requirements for meeting the test scheme standard

39.—(1) This regulation applies for the purposes of section 22(4) of the Act.

(2) No person other than—

- (a) the scheme actuary, or
- (b) the employer of the relevant members of the scheme,

may certify that a scheme satisfies the test scheme standard.

(3) An employer may certify a scheme under paragraph (2)(b) only in cases that do not require any calculation, comparison or assessment of a description usually carried out by actuaries.

(4) In determining whether a scheme satisfies the test scheme standard, a scheme actuary or employer—

- (a) must have regard to the benefits to be provided under the scheme for persons who, at the date by reference to which the determination is made (which may precede the date on which it is made), are relevant members of the scheme; and
- (b) must not have regard to—
 - (i) pension credit benefits;
 - (ii) death benefits;
 - (iii) discretionary benefits (apart from those arising from discretionary pre-retirement revaluation made in the case of schemes providing for average salary benefits);
 - (iv) survivors’ benefits;
 - (v) money purchase benefits (but this is subject to regulations 41 and 42);
 - (vi) benefits in respect of any person who is not a jobholder for the purposes of the Act;

⁽¹⁶⁾ Section 51 was amended by paragraph 51 of Schedule 12 to the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999 (c.30), section 51(1) of the Child Support, Pensions and Social Security Act 2000 (c.19), section 278 of the Pensions Act 2004 (c.35) and S.I. 2006/745.

- (vii) benefits in respect of any jobholder whose annual rate of benefit accrual under the scheme has been reduced below the rate specified in section 23(4)(a) of the Act, where the reduction is made as a result of a request made by the jobholder in question in accordance with scheme rules; or
- (viii) benefits in respect of any jobholder who has given notice under section 8 (jobholder’s right to opt out) of the Act.

(5) A scheme actuary or employer may not certify that a scheme satisfies the test scheme standard if the benefits to be provided for more than 10% of relevant members are not at least as valuable as the benefits which would be provided for them under a test scheme.

(6) In determining whether—

- (a) any of paragraphs (3) to (5) apply in relation to a scheme; or
- (b) a scheme otherwise satisfies the test scheme standard,

a scheme actuary or employer must follow any guidance issued by the Secretary of State under section 22(5) of the Act which is for the time being in force.

(7) “Scheme actuary” has the meaning given in section 22(7) of the Act except—

- (a) where the scheme is a defined benefits or hybrid scheme within section 18(b) (occupational pension schemes) of the Act;
- (b) where the scheme is a defined benefits or hybrid scheme within section 18(c) of the Act and there is an actuary appointed to the scheme who satisfies the requirements of regulations made under section 47(5) (professional advisers) of the 1995 Act⁽¹⁷⁾; or
- (c) in any other circumstances where, by virtue of regulations made under section 47 of the 1995 Act⁽¹⁸⁾, the scheme is not required to appoint a scheme actuary.

(8) In any case falling within paragraph (7)(b), “scheme actuary” means the actuary referred to in that paragraph who is appointed to the scheme.

(9) “Relevant members” has the meaning given in section 22(2) of the Act.

PART 12

Hybrid schemes

Interpretation

40. In this Part—

“the paragraph (a) quality requirements” means the requirements for a money purchase scheme under section 20 of the Act (referred to in relation to hybrid schemes in paragraph (a) of section 24(1) (quality requirements: UK hybrid schemes) of the Act);

“the paragraph (b) quality requirements” means the requirements for a defined benefits scheme under sections 21 to 23 of the Act (referred to in relation to hybrid schemes in paragraph (b) of section 24(1) of the Act);

“relevant rule” means any rule made under section 24(2) to (4) of the Act⁽¹⁹⁾.

⁽¹⁷⁾ See the Occupational Pension Schemes (Scheme Administration) Regulations 1996 (S.I. 1996/1715).

⁽¹⁸⁾ Ibid.

⁽¹⁹⁾ The rules are available at www.dwp.gov.uk.

Modification of test scheme standard: money purchase benefit lump sum accruals

41.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies where a relevant rule—

- (a) specifies a description of hybrid schemes; and
- (b) provides that the paragraph (b) quality requirements are to apply to any scheme of that description subject to the modifications made by this regulation.

(2) In determining whether any such scheme satisfies the paragraph (b) quality requirements in relation to a jobholder, section 23 (test scheme) of the Act has effect as if for subsection (4) there were substituted—

“(4) The requirements of either subsection (4A) or (4B) must be satisfied in relation to the amount (“the amount”) available for the provision of a pension to a member at the appropriate age.

(4A) The requirements of this subsection are that the amount must accrue at an annual rate of at least 16% of qualifying earnings.

(4B) The requirements of this subsection are that the amount must—

- (a) accrue at an annual rate of at least 8% of qualifying earnings; and
- (b) until the date on which the member attains normal pension age (within the meaning of the Pension Schemes Act 1993), be increased as a minimum by 3.5% per annum, in addition to any increase that is required by virtue of regulation 37(2) (a) of the Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (Automatic Enrolment) Regulations 2010.”.

(3) Where the modification described in paragraph (2) has effect in relation to a hybrid scheme of the relevant description, regulation 39 is to be read as if, after paragraph (4) there were inserted—

“(4A) Where, in relation to a scheme to which the modification described in regulation 41(2) applies, an employer is determining whether the scheme satisfies the test scheme standard—

- (a) the employer must choose between a test scheme which satisfies the requirements of section 23(4A) of the Act or those of section 23(4B) of the Act; and
- (b) having made that choice, that is the test scheme which the employer must apply in relation to all persons who are relevant members.”.

Modification of test scheme standard: final salary lump sum accruals

42.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies where a relevant rule—

- (a) specifies a description of hybrid schemes; and
- (b) provides that the paragraph (b) quality requirements are to apply to any scheme of that description subject to the modification made by this regulation.

(2) In determining whether any such scheme satisfies the paragraph (b) quality requirements in relation to a jobholder, section 23 of the Act has effect as if for subsection (4) there were substituted—

“(4) The amount available for the provision of a pension to a member must accrue at an annual rate of at least 16% of average qualifying earnings in the last three tax years preceding the end of pensionable service.”.

Modification allowing different quality requirements to be satisfied in aggregate

43.—(1) Paragraphs (2) to (5) apply where a relevant rule—

- (a) specifies a description of hybrid schemes; and
- (b) provides that—

- (i) the provisions of any scheme of that description which relate to defined benefits and the provisions of the scheme relating to money purchase benefits are to be treated as if they provided for benefits under separate schemes;
 - (ii) in respect of the money purchase benefits provisions, the paragraph (a) quality requirements are to apply; and
 - (iii) in respect of the defined benefits provisions, the paragraph (b) quality requirements are to apply; and
 - (iv) those quality requirements are to apply to the scheme subject to the modifications made by this regulation.
- (2) Notwithstanding that not all of the paragraph (a) quality requirements or the paragraph (b) quality requirements are satisfied in relation to the scheme, those requirements are nevertheless to be treated as having been satisfied in relation to any jobholder in the circumstances set out in paragraph (3).
- (3) The circumstances are that—
- (a) all of the paragraph (a) quality requirements are met apart from either or both of the requirement in section 20(1)(b) of the Act (“requirement X”) and the requirement in section 20(1)(c) of the Act;
 - (b) all of the paragraph (b) quality requirements are met apart from the requirement in section 23(4) of the Act (“requirement Y”); and
 - (c) having carried out the calculations set out in paragraph (4)(a) and (b), the aggregate of the resulting percentages is at least 100.
- (4) Each of the following is to be calculated as a percentage—
- (a) the extent to which requirement X is met as a proportion of the minimum rate of employer’s contribution specified in section 20(1)(b) of the Act;
 - (b) the extent to which requirement Y is met as a proportion of the annual rate of pension specified in section 23(4) of the Act.
- (5) In relation to a scheme to which any modification described in regulation 41 or 42 applies by virtue of a relevant rule, the reference in paragraph (3)(b) to the requirement in section 23(4) of the Act is to that requirement as modified by regulation 41 or 42, as the case may be.
- (6) Where paragraphs (2) to (5) have effect in relation to a hybrid scheme of the relevant description, regulation 39 is to be read as if, for paragraph (5), there were substituted—
- “(5) A scheme actuary or employer may not certify that a scheme satisfies the test scheme standard if the aggregate percentage referred to in regulation 43(3)(c) is less than 100 in relation to more than 10% of relevant members.”.

Non-UK Pension Schemes

Description of an occupational pension scheme with its main administration outside the EEA States

44. A pension scheme that has its main administration outside the EEA States is an occupational pension scheme for the purposes of section 18(c) (occupational pension schemes) of the Act if it is an occupational pension scheme within the meaning of section 1(1) of the 1993 Act.

Quality requirements: non-UK occupational pension schemes

45.—(1) A money purchase scheme within section 18(b) or (c) (occupational pension schemes) of the Act satisfies the quality requirement for the purposes of section 25 (quality requirement: non-UK occupational pension schemes) of the Act in relation to a jobholder—

- (a) if it satisfies the requirements for a money purchase scheme under section 20(1) (quality requirement: UK money purchase schemes) of the Act; or
- (b) if Article 6 of Directive 98/49/EC of the European Council of 29 June 1998 on safeguarding the supplementary pension rights of employed and self employed persons moving within the Community⁽²⁰⁾ applies in relation to the jobholder and the scheme is a supplementary pension scheme within the meaning given by Article 3(b) of that Directive.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), section 20(1) of the Act is to be read as if for the words “that has its main administration in the United Kingdom” there were substituted “within section 18(b) or (c)”.

(3) A defined benefits scheme within section 18(b) or (c) of the Act satisfies the quality requirement for the purposes of section 25 of the Act in relation to the jobholder—

- (a) if it satisfies the requirements for a defined benefits scheme under sections 21 to 23 (quality requirement: UK defined benefits schemes) of the Act; or
- (b) if Article 6 of Directive 98/49/EC of the European Council of 29 June 1998 on safeguarding the supplementary pension rights of employed and self employed persons moving within the Community applies in relation to the jobholder and the scheme is a supplementary pension scheme within the meaning given by Article 3(b) of that Directive.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3), section 21 of the Act is to be read as if for the words “that has its main administration in the United Kingdom” there were substituted “within section 18(b) or (c)”.

(5) Section 24 (quality requirement: UK hybrid schemes) of the Act applies to any hybrid scheme within section 18(b) or (c) of the Act as it applies to a hybrid scheme that has its main administration in the United Kingdom.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (5)—

- (a) the reference in section 24(1)(a) to the requirements for a money purchase scheme under section 20 of the Act; and

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision under the Pensions Act 2008 (the Act). They are one of a package of measures which implement Part 1 of the Act.

Part 1 of the Regulations provides definitions. Parts 2, 3, 4 and 7 prescribe the arrangements an employer must make for a jobholder to become an active member of an automatic enrolment scheme with effect from the automatic enrolment date (Part 2), the automatic re-enrolment date (Part 3), the enrolment date (Part 4) or the date applicable to jobholders affected by the transitional period for defined benefit and hybrid schemes under section 30 of the Act (Part 7), as the case may be. The process is largely similar in each case. The same Parts also provide for opting out and refunds of contributions where a jobholder has been automatically enrolled, automatically re-enrolled or opts in, as the case may be. Part 3, in addition, prescribes the automatic re-enrolment dates.

Part 5 prescribes the arrangements an employer must make for a worker (on request) to become an active member of a pension scheme.

Part 6 enables an employer to postpone a person's automatic enrolment date by 3 months provided an employer has an existing occupational money purchase or hybrid pension scheme or personal pension scheme under which the employer and jobholder contributions are at a specified greater level than the level of contributions normally required in relation to a qualifying scheme under the Act or the employer has an existing defined benefit scheme. Postponement may only apply as long as the jobholder's postponement date, in relation to previous employment with the employer, has not been postponed in the last 12 months.

Part 8 makes provision for the period (3 months) within which an employer will not breach the duty in section 2 of the Act when moving jobholders between schemes.

Parts 2 to 8 also require the employer to provide the jobholder or worker, as the case may be, with certain information about the effect of sections 2 to 9 of the Act in relation to them

Part 9 imposes a geographical restriction, the effect of which is to prescribe that only schemes established in the UK or an EEA State which fulfil certain requirements, may be used as automatic enrolment schemes for the purposes of the Act.

Part 10 provides that certain schemes which provide average salary benefits are excluded from being qualifying schemes for the purposes of the Act unless certain conditions are met.

Part 11 prescribed further requirements that apply to the test scheme described in section 23 of the Act. It also makes provision for an actuary or the employer to determine whether the pensions to be provided for the relevant members are broadly equivalent to, or better than, the pensions which would be provided for them under the test scheme, and about how such determinations are to be made.

Part 12 contains modifications of the quality requirements under section 20 or 21 of the Act so as to reflect detailed characteristics of certain hybrid schemes. The Hybrid Schemes Quality Requirements Rules 2010, made under section 24(2) of the Act, underpin the operation of Part 12 (Hybrid Schemes) of these Regulations. The Rules will be made early in 2010. They provide for the application of these quality requirements to different descriptions of hybrid schemes, subject to prescribed modifications.

Part 13 sets out the quality requirements applicable to non-UK schemes and the requirements which a non-UK scheme must meet if section 16(1)(b) (registration under Chapter 2 of Part 4 of the Finance Act 2004) of the Act is not to apply.

Part 14 sets the dates by which pension contributions must be paid by the employer to the scheme and makes provision related to the Regulator's power to issue an unpaid contribution notice.
