Coming into force in accordance with article 1(2)

The Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 1292, 1294 and 1296 of the Companies Act 2006(a), make the following Order.

In accordance with sections 1290 and 1294(6) of the Companies Act 2006, a draft of this instrument was laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Companies Act 2006 (Consequential Amendments and Transitional Provisions) Order 2011.

(2) This Order comes into force on the day after the day on which it is made.

Repeal of the Companies Consolidation (Consequential Provisions) Act 1985 (c.9)

2. The Companies Consolidation (Consequential Provisions) Act 1985 is repealed.

3. In Part 1 of Schedule 1 (commencement of repeals made by the Companies Act 2006) to the Companies Act 2006 (Commencement No. 8, Transitional Provisions and Savings) Order 2008(b), omit the entry relating to the Companies Consolidation (Consequential Provisions) Act 1985.

4.—(1) The Companies Act 2006 (Consequential Amendments, Transitional Provisions and Savings) Order 2009(c) is amended as follows.

(2) In article 12 (saving for earlier consequential amendments, transitional provisions and savings)—

(a) in paragraph (1) omit the words “the Companies Consolidation (Consequential Provisions) Act 1985 and”;

(b) in paragraph (2) omit the words “Act or” in each place where they appear.

(a) 2006 c.46.

SCHEDULE 1

Article 5(1)

PROVISIONS RELATING TO OLD PUBLIC COMPANIES

Meaning of “old public company”

1. For the purposes of this Schedule an “old public company” is a company limited by shares, or a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital, in respect of which the following conditions are met—

- (a) the company either existed on 22nd December 1980 or was incorporated after that date pursuant to an application made before that date,
- (b) on that date or, if later, on the day of the company’s incorporation, the company was not or (as the case may be) would not have been a private company within the meaning of section 28 of the Companies Act 1948(a), and
- (c) the company has not since that date or the day of the company’s incorporation (as the case may be) either been re-registered as a public company within the meaning of section 1(3) of the Companies Act 1985 or section 4(2) of the Companies Act 2006 or become a private company within the meaning of section 1(3) of the Companies Act 1985 or section 4(1) of the Companies Act 2006.

Application of Companies Acts to old public companies

2.—(1) References in the Companies Acts to—

- (a) a public company, or
- (b) a company other than a private company, are to be read (unless the context otherwise requires) as including an old public company.

(2) References in the Companies Acts to a private company are to be read accordingly.

(3) Sub-paragraphs (1) and (2)—

- (a) do not apply in relation to—
 - (i) Part 7 of the Companies Act 2006 (re-registration as a means of altering a company’s status), and
 - (ii) sections 662 to 669 of that Act (treatment of shares held by or for public company) (see paragraph 7(1) and (2) below), and
- (b) do not restrict the power to make provision by regulations under section 65 of that Act (inappropriate use of indications of company type or legal form).

Old public company re-registering as a public company

3.—(1) Sections 90 to 96 of the Companies Act 2006 (re-registration as public company limited by shares) apply to an old public company.

(2) As they so apply—

- (a) references to a private company shall be read as references to an old public company, and
- (b) references to a special resolution of the company shall be read as references to a resolution of the directors.

(a) 1948 c.38.

(3) Chapter 3 of Part 3 of that Act (resolutions affecting a company's constitution) applies to any such resolution.

(4) References in this Schedule to re-registration as a public company, in relation to an old public company, are to re-registration by virtue of this paragraph.

Old public company becoming private: special resolution

4.—(1) An old public company may pass a special resolution not to be re-registered as a public company.

(2) Sections 98 and 99 of the Companies Act 2006 (application to court to cancel resolution; notice to registrar of court application or order) apply to such a resolution as they would apply to a special resolution by a public company to be re-registered as private.

(3) If either—

- (a) 28 days from the passing of the resolution elapse without an application being made under section 98 of the Companies Act 2006 (as applied), or
 - (b) such an application is made and proceedings are concluded on the application without the court making an order for the cancellation of the resolution,
- the registrar of companies shall issue the company with a certificate stating that it is a private company.

(4) The company then becomes a private company by virtue of the issue of the certificate.

(5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (3)(b), proceedings on the application are concluded—

- (a) except in a case within the following paragraph, when the period mentioned in section 99(3) of the Companies Act 2006 (as applied) for delivering a copy of the court's order on the application to the registrar has expired, or
- (b) when the company has been notified that the application has been withdrawn.

(6) A certificate issued to a company under sub-paragraph (3) is conclusive evidence that the requirements of this paragraph have been complied with and that the company is a private company.

Old public company becoming private: statutory declaration

5.—(1) If an old public company delivers to the registrar a statutory declaration by a director or secretary of the company that the company does not at the time of the declaration satisfy the conditions for the company to be re-registered as public, the registrar shall issue the company with a certificate stating that it is a private company.

(2) The company then becomes a private company by virtue of the issue of the certificate.

(3) A certificate issued to a company under sub-paragraph (1) is conclusive evidence that the requirements of this paragraph have been complied with and that the company is a private company.

Failure by old public company to obtain new classification

6.—(1) If at any time a company which is an old public company has not delivered to the registrar of companies a declaration under paragraph 5, the company and any officer of it who is in default is guilty of an offence unless at the time the company—

- (a) has applied to be re-registered as a public company, and the application has not been refused or withdrawn, or
- (b) has passed a special resolution not to be re-registered as a public company, and the resolution has not been revoked, and has not been cancelled under section 98 of the Companies Act 2006, as applied by paragraph 4.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under this paragraph is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

Old public company holding, or having charge on, own shares

7.—(1) In sections 662 to 669 of the Companies Act 2006 (treatment of shares held by or for public company) references to a public company do not include an old public company.

(2) Section 668 of that Act (application of sections 662 to 667 to private company re-registering as public company) applies to an old public company as to a private company.

(3) In the case of a company that—

- (a) after 22nd March 1982 remained an old public company, and
- (b) did not before that date apply to be re-registered as a public company, any charge on its own shares which was in existence on or immediately before that date is a permitted charge and not void under section 670 of the Companies Act 2006.

Old public companies: trading under misleading name

8.—(1) An old public company commits an offence if it carries on a trade, profession or business under a name that includes, as its last part, the words “public limited company” or “cwmni cyfyngedig cyhoeddus”.

(2) Where an offence under this paragraph is committed by a company, an offence is also committed by every officer of the company who is in default.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under this paragraph is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

Old public companies: payment for share capital

9. Sections 584 to 587 of the Companies Act 2006 (payment for shares: additional rules for public companies) apply to an old public company whose directors have passed and not revoked a resolution to be re-registered as a public company, as those sections apply to a public company.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS: NORTHERN IRELAND OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIESMain transitional provisions

1.—(1) An open-ended investment company that immediately before the date this Order comes into force was incorporated under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2004^(a) (or was treated as so incorporated) is treated on and after that date as incorporated under regulation 3(1) of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001^(b).

(2) Anything done (including subordinate legislation made), or having effect as if done, under or for the purposes of any repealed Northern Ireland provision, if in force or effective immediately before the date this Order comes into force, has effect on and after that date as if done under or for the purposes of the corresponding UK provision.

(3) Any reference (express or implied) in any enactment, instrument or document to a UK provision shall be construed (so far as the context permits) as including, as respects times, circumstances or purposes in relation to which the corresponding repealed Northern Ireland provision had effect, a reference to that corresponding provision.

(4) Any reference (express or implied) in any enactment, instrument or document to a repealed Northern Ireland provision shall be construed (so far as the context permits), as respects times, circumstances and purposes in relation to which the corresponding UK provision has effect, as being or (according to the context) including a reference to that corresponding provision.

(5) In this paragraph—

“repealed Northern Ireland provision” means—

(a) any provision of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Act (Northern Ireland) 2002^(c), or

(b) any provision made under that Act that ceased to have effect as from 1st October 2009;

“UK provision” means section 262 of the Financial Service and Markets Act 2000 and any provision made under that section that on and after the date this Order comes into force extends to the whole of the United Kingdom.

(6) References in sub-paragraph (5) to provision made under an Act include provisions applied by any such provision.

Applications for authorisation in respect of Northern Ireland Open-Ended Investment Company

2.—(1) This paragraph applies to applications for an authorisation order in respect of an open-ended investment company whose registered office is to be in Northern Ireland.

(2) The provisions of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001 apply to applications received by the Financial Services Authority on or after the date this Order comes into force.

(3) Any application for an authorisation order under those provisions received by the Authority before that date shall not be considered.

(a) S.R. (NI) 2004 No 335.

(b) S.I. 2001/1228.

(c) 2002 c.13 (N.I.).

(4) The corresponding provisions of the Open-Ended Investment Companies (Northern Ireland) Regulations 2004 continue to apply to an application for an authorisation order if—

- (a) it is received by the Authority, and
- (b) the requirements of those Regulations are met in relation to it, before the date on which this Order comes into force.

(5) Any application for an authorisation order under those Regulations in relation to which the requirements of those Regulations are not met before that date shall be treated as withdrawn.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph 1 above as it applies to treat an open-ended investment company incorporated under the Open-Ended Investment Companies (Northern Ireland) Regulations 2004 as incorporated under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, an open-ended investment company that is incorporated on an application to which subparagraph (4) above applies is treated as if it had been incorporated immediately before the date this Order comes into force.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes amendments to primary and secondary legislation which are consequential on certain provisions of the Companies Act 2006 (c.46) having been brought into force, including the replacement of references to various provisions of the Companies Act 1985 (c.6) with references to the appropriate, superseding provisions of the Companies Act 2006 and the removal of references to the repealed Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 (S.I. 1986/1032 (N.I.6)).

Articles 4 and 5 of this Order have the effect of ensuring that there are valid savings provisions in place in respect of the Companies Consolidation (Consequential Provisions) Act 1985 (c.9).

Schedule 2 to this Order makes consequential amendments to the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001 (S.I. 2001/1228) to ensure that the regime for open-ended investment companies is consistent with the Companies Act 2006.

The Companies Act 2006 (Commencement No. 8, Transitional Provisions and Savings) Order 2008 (S.I. 2008/2860) repealed the Open-Ended Investment Companies Act (Northern Ireland) 2002 (c.13 (N.I.)). Schedule 3 to this Order contains transitional provisions in relation to open-ended investment companies which were incorporated under the Open-Ended Investment Companies (Northern Ireland) Regulations 2004 (S.R. (NI) 2004 No 335).

A full regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.
