

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE DOUBLE TAXATION RELIEF AND INTERNATIONAL TAX
ENFORCEMENT (CHINA) ORDER 2011

2011 No. [XXXX]

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by HM Revenue & Customs (“HMRC”) and is laid before the House of Commons by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the instrument

2.1 The Order brings into effect an agreement between the Governments of the United Kingdom and the People’s Republic of China for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with Respect to Taxes on Income and on Capital Gains (“the Agreement”).

3. Matters of special interest to the Select Committee on Statutory Instruments

3.1 None.

4. Legislative context

4.1 This Order is being made to give effect in UK legislation to the Agreement. The Agreement is scheduled to the Order, and is thus given domestic legislative effect.

4.2 This Order does not implement EU legislation.

5. Territorial extent and application

5.1 This Order applies to all of the United Kingdom.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

The Exchequer Secretary to the Treasury, David Gauke, has made the following statement regarding human rights:

“In my view the provisions of the Double Taxation Relief and International Tax Enforcement (China) Order 2011 are compatible with the Convention rights”.

7. Policy background

- What is being done and why

7.1 Agreements of the kind scheduled to the Order aim to eliminate the double taxation of income or gains arising in one country and paid to residents of another country. They do this by allocating the taxing rights that each treaty partner has under its domestic law over the same income and gains and/or by providing relief from double taxation. They provide additional protection for taxpayers by specific measures combating discrimination in tax treatment. More generally, such agreements benefit the taxpayer by ensuring certainty of treatment and, as far as possible, by reducing compliance burdens.

7.2 They also serve an Exchequer protection role by including provisions to combat tax avoidance and evasion, partly by measures providing for the exchange of information between revenue authorities.

7.3 They also encourage and maintain international consensus on the appropriate tax treatment of cross-border economic activity and thus promote international trade and investment. All of the UK's recent double taxation agreements largely follow the approach adopted in the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development's ("OECD") Model Tax Convention on Income and on Capital. The Agreement scheduled to the Order continues that approach.

- Consolidation

7.4 Not applicable.

8. Consultation outcome

8.1 HMRC regularly consults with external interested parties, including business representatives, about the effectiveness of existing arrangements for the avoidance of double taxation and fiscal evasion as well as new needs. The annual treaty negotiating programme is agreed with Ministers and published on the HMRC website.

9. Guidance

9.1 General guidance on the operation of the UK's double taxation agreements can be found on the HMRC website at:

<http://www.hmrc.gov.uk/manuals/intmanual/INTM150000.htm>

or in the Double Taxation Relief Manual at:

<http://www.hmrc.gov.uk/manuals/dtmanual/index.htm>

A new page to this Manual regarding the Agreement will be added once it enters into force.

10. Impact

10.1 The impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies is negligible. The provisions of the Agreement do not introduce new tax burdens; rather, they provide relief from tax and thus are of benefit to business both large and small. Taxpayers may have to make a claim to HMRC or the other country's fiscal authority in order to benefit from the Agreement.

10.2 There is no impact on the UK public sector. HMRC already operates the terms of many other similar agreements currently in force.

10.3 A Tax Information and Impact Note has not been prepared for this Order as it gives effect to a previously announced policy to enact a double taxation agreement.

11. Regulating small business

11.1 The Agreement only applies to small businesses if they have taxed income arising in China. As with other businesses, the impact is negligible. No special approach for small business is therefore necessary.

12. Monitoring & review

12.1 Both Governments will keep the Agreement scheduled to the Order under review to ensure that it meets the policy objectives set out above in section 7.
