The Electricity Market Reform (General) Regulations 2014

PART 3

Supply chain statements and documents

Providing supply chain statements or refusing applications

11.—(1) Except where regulation 12 applies, the Secretary of State must as soon as practicable after a supply chain application is received by the Secretary of State give a notice to the applicant which includes—

- (a) a supply chain statement and the period for which the statement has effect; or
 - (b) a refusal of the application and reasons for that refusal.
- (2) Where paragraph (1)(a) applies, the period for which a supply chain statement has effect is—
- (a) 12 months from the date of the notice; or
 - (b) where the Secretary of State is of the opinion that there is a compelling reason for the period to be longer, such longer period.
