Saving provisions for the Insolvency Rules 1986

Interpretation of Part 5

25. In this Part a reference to the revocation of the Insolvency Rules 1986 is a reference to the revocation of the Rules listed in Schedule 1 to the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016(62) by introductory rule 2 of those Rules.

Savings in relation to special insolvency rules

26.—(1) Despite the revocation of the Insolvency Rules 1986, those Rules apply as they applied(63) before they were revoked for the purposes of the application of—

- (b) the Bank Administration (England and Wales) Rules 2009(65);
- (c) the Building Society Special Administration (England and Wales) Rules 2010(66); and
- (d) the Building Society Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2010(67).

(2) Despite the revocation of the Insolvency Rules, Rule 12A.30 of, and Schedule 4 to, the Insolvency Rules 1986(68) (forms for use in insolvency proceedings) apply as they applied before they were revoked for the purpose of prescribing forms for the statement of affairs required to be delivered and for any statement of concurrence required to be submitted under rule 54 of the Investment Bank Special Administration (England and Wales) Rules 2011(69) (verification and filing).

Savings in relation to insolvency proceedings

27.—(1) Despite the revocation of the Insolvency Rules, those Rules apply as they applied before they were revoked for the purposes of—

- (a) a proposal to a society and its creditors for a voluntary arrangement within the meaning given in section 1 of the Insolvency Act 1986(70) as applied in relation to a relevant society by article 2(1) of the 2014 Order;
- (b) the administration of a society under Part 2 of the Insolvency Act 1986 as applied by article 2(2) of the 2014 Order; and
- (c) proceedings instituted in England and Wales for the winding up of a relevant scheme (within the meaning given in regulation 17(1)(a) of the Collective Investment in Transferable Securities (Contractual Scheme) Regulations 2013).

(2) In this regulation—

(62) S.I. 2016/1024. These savings are made in consequence of the revocation by those Rules on 6th April 2017 of the Insolvency Rules 1986.

(63) For the purposes specified in this paragraph the Insolvency Rules 1986 applied without the amendments made by the Insolvency (Amendment) Rules 2010 and the amending instruments made after that instrument.

(67) S.I. 2010/2581, as amended by S.I. 2013/472.

(68) Rule 12A.30 was inserted with the rest of Part 12A by S.I. 2010/686.

(69) S.I. 2011/1301. There are amendments, but they are not relevant. Rule 54(8) provides that a reference in that rule to a specific form is a reference to that form as prescribed in the Insolvency Rules 1986, with any modification thought to be desirable to reflect the nature of special administration.

(70) Section 1 was amended by the Insolvency Act 2000 (c. 39), Schedule 2, paragraphs 1 and 2, and by the Enterprise Act 2002, Schedule 17, paragraphs 9 and 10. There are other amendments, but they are not relevant.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend certain enactments either in consequence of, or to save them from, provisions of the Small Business, Enterprise and Employment Act 2015 (c. 26) (“SBEEA”) which amend the Insolvency Act 1986 (c. 45) to implement a reform of provisions about creditors’ meetings and provisions about creditors’ notices. The reforms are made by—

- sections 122 and 123 of SBEEA (abolition of requirements to hold meetings: company insolvency and individual insolvency);
- sections 124 and 125 of SBEEA (ability for creditors to opt not to receive certain notices: company insolvency and individual insolvency); and
- section 126 of SBEEA, which introduces Schedule 9 to that Act (further amendments relating to sections 122 to 125).

These provisions (“the reforms”) came into force in England and Wales on 6th April 2017.

Parts 1 and 5 of these Regulations come into force on the day after the day on which these Regulations are made. Parts 2, 3 and 4 of these Regulations come into force on the 21st day after the day on which these Regulations are made.

Parts 2 and 3 of these Regulations make savings and consequential amendments in relation to the reforms. Part 2 amends primary legislation and Part 3 amends subordinate legislation.

Where primary or subordinate legislation applies provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 with modifications—

- to financial institutions which are not companies or partnerships, or
- for the purposes of special insolvency regimes enacted for financial institutions (whether or not they are companies or partnerships), the amendments insert savings provision (with one exception), so that the applied provisions will continue to have effect in relation to the institutions and regimes concerned as though the reforms had not been enacted.

The exception is Part 6 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (c. 33) (“the 2013 Act”), which provides for the special administration of financial market infrastructure systems. In this case and where primary or subordinate legislation modifies the application of the Insolvency Act 1986 to companies, partnerships or individuals carrying on insurance or other financial activities, consequential amendments are made to take account of the reforms.

The reforms have effect with reference to insolvency rules. In England and Wales those rules are contained in the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 (S.I. 2016/1024) (“the 2016 Rules”), which came into force on 6th April 2017. The reforms and the 2016 Rules commenced in England and Wales before the reforms are commenced in Scotland. Consequently, enactments amended to take account of the reforms in England and Wales are also amended, where necessary, so that they apply in Scotland as if the reforms had not been enacted.

Part 4 of these Regulations makes transitional provision, where necessary, for amendments made to give effect to the reforms. Transitional provision ensures that certain amendments will not have effect in relation to creditors’ meetings arranged before 6th April 2017 which are to be held on or after the date on which Parts 2 and 3 of these Regulations come into force.
