2024 No.

The Service Address (Rectification of Register) Regulations 2024

Part 6

Change of address from one default address to another default address

Change of default address

12.—(1) This regulation applies where—

- (a) the registrar has changed a relevant person's registered service address under regulation 7 or 10, and
- (b) the relevant company has not since delivered a notice to the registrar in accordance with the applicable notice requirement.

(2) The registrar may change the address of the relevant person's registered service address to another default address.

(3) The change in the relevant person's registered service address is effected by the registrar proceeding as if the relevant company had given notice under the applicable notice requirement.

(4) The registrar must give the relevant person and the relevant company notice of the change.

(5) The notice must state—

- (a) the new address;
- (b) where in the register the new address has been registered, and
- (c) the date on which the address was changed.
