ELIZABETH II

1969 CHAPTER xix

An Act to confirm a Provisional Order under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936, relating to the Aberdeen Corporation (Fish Market).

[25th June 1969]

WHEREAS the Provisional Order set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed has been made by the Secretary of State under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936, and it is requisite that the said Order should be confirmed by Parliament:

1936 c. 52.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Provisional Order contained in the schedule hereunto annexed is hereby confirmed. Confirmation of Order in schedule.
2. This Act may be cited as the Aberdeen Corporation (Fish Short title. Market) Order Confirmation Act 1969.

SCHEDULE

ABERDEEN CORPORATION (FISH MARKET)

Provisional Order to provide for the transfer of the fish market held by the Corporation of the City of Aberdeen to the Aberdeen Harbour Board, to confer powers on the said board with respect to the fish market; and for purposes connected therewith.

Whereas the lord provost, magistrates and town council of the town and royal burgh of Aberdeen (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") operate and have for many years operated a fish market established by them within the harbour of Aberdeen on land formerly belonging to the Aberdeen Harbour Commissioners and now belonging to the Aberdeen Harbour Board (hereinafter called "the board");

And whereas powers were conferred upon the Corporation with respect to the said fish market by the Aberdeen City Acts, 1952 and 1955;

And whereas it is expedient that the said fish market and certain other powers of the Corporation with respect thereto should be transferred from the Corporation to the board and that further powers should be conferred on the board with respect to the said fish market as hereinafter provided:

And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made with respect to the transfer to the board of certain officers and servants of the Corporation:

And whereas these purposes cannot be effected without an Order confirmed by Parliament under the provisions of the Private Law Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936:

Now therefore in pursuance of the powers contained in the aforesaid mentioned Act the Secretary of State hereby orders as follows:

PART I

Aberdeen Corporation (Fish Market Order) - CH XIX
Confirmation Act 1962

2.—(1) In this Order unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction the following words and expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, (that is to say):

Part I
and

- "Board" means the Aberdeen Harbour Board;
- "city" means the city and royal burgh of Aberdeen;
- "Corporation" means the Lord provost, magistrates and town council of the city;
- "existing" means existing immediately before the commencement of this Order;
- "fish market" means the existing fish market at the Corporation at Commercial Quay, Pierside or Quay and Albert Quay, within the harbour and the buildings, wharfs and yards used by the Corporation or their tenants for the purposes thereof immediately before the commencement of this Order;
- "harbour" and "harbour undertaking" have the same respective meanings as in the Order of 1960;
- "Order of 1960" means the Aberdeen Harbour Order, 1960;
- "repealed Acts" means those provisions of Acts and Orders which are repealed by this Order;
- "sheriff" means the sheriff of Aberdeen, Kincardine and Banff and includes his substitutes.

(2) Any reference in this Order to any ~~other~~ instrument shall except so far as the context otherwise requires be construed as a reference to ~~the~~ ~~instrument~~ as amended by or under any other instrument including this Order.

Part II

TRANSFER OF FISH MARKET

3.—(1) The fish market as it exists and as it is used and enjoyed by ~~people~~ ~~and~~ ~~is held~~ in the Corporation immediately before the commencement ~~of this Order~~ ~~of this~~ ~~order~~ shall by virtue of this Order be transferred to and shall ~~be~~ ~~in~~ the Board and that without the necessity of any disposition, assignment, transfer, conveyance, notice of title or other instrument and ~~shall~~ form part of the harbour undertaking of the Board.

(2) To enable the Board to complete a title if thought fit to any property transferred to and vested in them by virtue of this Order by ~~source~~ of title or otherwise this Order shall be deemed to be and may be used as a general disposition or assignation as the case may be of such property in favour of the Board.

(3) For the removal of doubt it is hereby declared that nothing in this Order shall be construed as transferring to the Board any sums standing to the credit of the fish market revenue receipt account in the accounts of the Corporation at the commencement of this Order, and all such sums shall remain the property of the Corporation as fully and effectually as if the Act constituting this Order had not been passed.

CH. XIX Aberdeen Corporation (Fish Market) Order Confirmation Act 1969

—cont.
Consideration for transfer of fish market

4. (1) In consideration of the transfer to and vesting in the board of the fish market the board shall, within fourteen days from the commencement of this Order, pay to the Corporation the sum of thirty-seven thousand five hundred pounds, which sum, on payment, shall form part of the common good fund of the city.

(2) It is hereby provided and declared that the payment to be made in pursuance of the foregoing subsection shall in addition be accepted by the Corporation as being in full satisfaction and settlement of any claim whatsoever competent to them in respect of the resumption or surrender to the board before the 1st June, 1967, of rights which, prior to such resumption or surrender, had formed part of the fish market.

Board to continue to provide facilities at fish market for sale of fish by auction.

5. It shall be the duty of the board to continue to provide a fish market or at such other premises as they may hereafter provide for the purpose such facilities for the sale of fish by public auction as may be adequate and suitable having regard to the needs of the city for the time being.

Saving for existing contracts, agreements,
etc

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) hereof, from the commencement of this Order all leases, securities, contracts, agreements and obligations granted, made or entered into, in favour of or by the Corporation in relation to the fish market, shall, subject to the provisions of this Order, remain in full force and effect and shall be available to or against the board in the same manner as the same might have been available to or against the Corporation immediately before the commencement of this Order.

(2) No agreement entered into or liability incurred by the Corporation other than an agreement or a liability necessary for and entered into or incurred in the ordinary course of carrying on the fish market after the 1st June, 1967, shall impose any liability on the board unless such agreement has been entered into or such liability incurred with the approval of the board.

Recovery and appropriation of sums due to or by Corporation.

7. Notwithstanding anything in this Order—

- (a) all sums which immediately before the commencement of this Order were due and payable to or by the Corporation in respect of the fish market may be levied, collected, sued for and recovered by, or, as the case may be, from the Corporation in the same manner as they might have been levied, collected, sued for and recovered by or from them if this Order had not been passed;
- (b) all sums accruing as due and payable to or by the Corporation in respect of the fish market after the commencement of this Order under any contract or arrangement entered into by the Corporation in respect of a period beginning before the commencement of this Order and ending after that date.

be apportioned between the Corporation and the board at that date in such manner, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, as may be agreed between them.

8. All books and documents which, if the Act containing this Order had not been passed, would have been evidence in respect of any matter for or against the Corporation in relation to the fish market shall, on and after the commencement of this Order, be admitted in evidence in respect of the same or like matter for or against the board.

POWERS OF BOARD WITH RESPECT TO FISH MARKET

9. For the purposes of this Part of this Order the expression "fish market" includes the existing fish market and such other premises as the board may hereafter provide in pursuance of section 9 of this Order.

10. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the board shall have power to demand, take and receive in respect of the fish market such tolls, dues, stallages, rates and rents (all of which are hereinafter together referred to as "fish market tolls") as they think fit.

(2) The provisions of sections 26, 30, 31, 33, 34, 47, 48, 50 and 51 of the Harbours Act 1961 (which relate to the availability for inspection and sale of lists of certain charges, to objections to and revision of certain dues and to ancillary matters) shall apply and have effect in relation to fish market tolls (whether or not they are ship, passenger and goods dues within the meaning of that Act) as they apply and have effect in relation to ship, passenger and goods dues, with the substitutions:

- (i) for any reference to ship, passenger and goods dues, of a reference to fish market tolls;
- (ii) for any reference to ships, passengers or goods, of a reference to any matter or thing in respect of which fish market tolls are being charged;
- (iii) for any reference to the National Ports Council or a Minister, of a reference to the Secretary of State; and
- (iv) for any reference to a marine work, of a reference to the harbour.

(3) Save as applied by this section the provisions of the Harbours Act 1961 shall not apply to fish market tolls.

(4) The fish market tolls payable under the repealed Acts shall remain in force and payable to the board until the same are altered or revised in accordance with the provisions of the Harbours Act 1961 applied by this section.

11. (1) No person shall sell or expose for sale any fish otherwise than to retail in any public place within the city except in the fish market.

(2) Any person who acts in contravention of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction to a fine not exceeding fifty ; or in the case of a second or subsequent conviction to a fine not ex-two hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term not ex-three months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(3) Where an offence under this section which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect part of, a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer body corporate, or any person who was purporting to act in any capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against accordingly.

(4) In the foregoing subsection, "director" in relation to any corporate established by or under any enactment for the pur-carrying on under national ownership any industry or part industry or undertaking, being a body corporate wholly ad-managed by its members, means a member of that body.

(5) Nothing in this section shall extend or apply to salmon, herrings or to fish sold or exposed for sale in private premises.

Recovery of tolls, etc

12. If any person liable for the payment of any tolls, dues, staffages or rents payable to the board in respect of the fish market to pay the same when demanded the board or any person authorised by them to collect the same may seize any fish or article in the market belonging to the person liable to pay the same or in his charge and if the tolls, dues, stallages, rates or rents and the reasonable expenses of such seizure are not forthwith paid the board may sell the fish or article seized and out of the money arising therefrom retain such tolls, dues, stallages, rates or rents and expenses and the surplus proceeds (if any) of such sale to the owner of the article seized or such tolls, dues, stallages, rates or rents and may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Bylaws as to
fish market

13.—(1) In addition to and without derogation from the powers the board under section 91 (Power to make general bylaws) of the Order of 1960 the board may, subject to the provisions of this make bylaws for all or any of the following purposes:—

- (a) for fixing and regulating the hours during which the fish market or any part thereof shall be open;
- (b) for regulating the use of the fish market and the stalls and offices therein;
- (c) for regulating the conduct of persons working in the fish market or resorting thereto;
- (d) for fixing the time for and manner of collecting tolls, dues, stallages, rates and rents payable to the board in respect of the fish market and the stalls and offices therein;
- (e) with respect to the cleansing of boxes used or intended to be used as containers for fish to be sold in the fish market.

(2) The confirming authority for the purpose of bylaws made under this section shall be the Minister of Transport.

(3) The provisions of section 94 (General provisions as to by-laws) and section 95 (Evidence of by-laws) of and the Seventh Schedule to the Order of 1960 shall apply and have effect with respect to by-laws made by the board under this section as if the sections were included in the Order of 1960.

Provided that for the purposes of such application and of read the said section 94 shall be read and have effect as if in place of the words "on summary conviction" there were inserted the words "on conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction".

14. Notwithstanding the provisions of the last preceding section having regard to the application of section 94 and section 95 of the Order, by-laws made by the Corporation under the repealed Acts, for any purpose, and in the last preceding section and in this section except that the commencement of this Order shall remain in force until such time as by-laws for such purpose have been made by the board and determined in accordance with the provisions of this Order and the provisions of section 94 and section 95 of the Order of 1960 shall apply, and have effect in relation to the said by-laws in so far as they may be made by the board under the Order of 1960.

Provided that in the application to the said by-laws of the Order of 1960—

- (i) section 94 thereof shall be read and have effect as if in place of the words "on summary conviction" there were inserted the words "on conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction"; and
- (ii) section 95 thereof shall be read and have effect as if references therein to the Commissioners were references to the Corporation and as if references to the repealed Acts were references to the repealed Acts as defined in this Order.

PART IV

OFFICERS AND SERVANTS

15. As from the commencement of this Order the board shall take transfer of over and all such officers or servants who immediately before the commencement in connection with the fish market in so far as their persons and services were employed immediately before the commencement of this order.

Provided that any increase made by the Corporation after the 1st June, 1969, of the remuneration, salaries, wages or other remuneration of any of the officers or servants employed immediately before the commencement with the fish market shall not exceed at any time the board unless the board have either before or after the commencement signed their approval thereof or unless such increase is made in accordance with any contract of service or scale of remuneration or at the instance of any wage-negotiating body.

--cont.
Compensation for loss of office, etc
1964 c. 40.

16. -(1) Any officer or servant of the Corporation who suffers loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments in consequence of any of the provisions of this Order shall be entitled to compensation payable by the board and determined in accordance with regulations for the time being in force made by the Minister of Transport under section 19 of the Harbours Act 1964.

(2) The amount of any compensation which would, apart from this subsection, become due to any officer or servant of the Corporation under the provisions of the foregoing subsection in respect of such loss as is therein mentioned shall be reduced by the amount of sum paid or payable to him under any other enactment in respect of that loss, not being a sum which has been deducted in calculating the amount of such compensation.

(3) The board shall indemnify the Corporation in respect of liability which they may incur under any other enactment to make payment to any such officer or servant as aforesaid in respect of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments in consequence of the provisions of this Order.

Superannuation.

17. -(1) Notwithstanding anything in this Order and subject to the provisions of this section, the provisions of the Local Government Superannuation (Scotland) Acts, 1937 to 1953, and any resolutions made thereunder by the Corporation and in force at the commencement of this Order shall continue to apply to the transferred officers of the Corporation in respect of the transferred officers as if confirming this Order had not been passed.

(2) For the purposes of recovering contributions to be made by transferred officers to the superannuation fund maintained by the Corporation under the said Acts the board shall in respect of transferred officers have the powers of an employing authority under the said Acts.

(3) The board shall periodically on such dates as may be agreed between the Corporation and the board—

(a) pay to the Corporation all such contributions received by them from the transferred officers in pursuance of the foregoing subsection; and

(b) repay to the Corporation all payments made after the commencement of this Order by the Corporation to the superannuation fund in respect of the transferred officers in pursuance of the said Acts and resolutions and in accordance with any enactment making provision with respect to pensions or supplements in respect of pensions.

(4) For the purposes of this section "transferred officer" means an officer or servant employed by the Corporation who, by virtue of this Order, becomes an officer or servant of the board and who, in respect of whom before the commencement of this Order, was—

(a) a contributor to the said superannuation fund maintained by the Corporation; or

- (b) a whole-time servant of the Corporation who had not completed eighteen months' continuous service after appointment in a temporary capacity and who, by virtue of any such resolution as aforesaid, would, on completion of that period of service with the Corporation, have become a contributor to the said superannuation fund.
- (c) The transferred effects to whom the said employee shall not, while in the employment of the board, be subject to the provisions of the board's superannuation scheme as contained in Part XI of the Order of 1950 and the Ninth Schedule annexed thereto.

Part IV

Part V

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

1. Any question or difference between the Corporation and the Management Board arising under this Order shall, at the instance of either party, be referred to and determined by an arbiter to be appointed, failing agreement, by the sheriff.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Order, as from the commencement of Repeal of this Order the enactments specified in the Schedule to this Order, so far as the same are not already repealed, hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column of the said schedule.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Order, and notwithstanding the General saving of the repealed Acts, all existing orders, decrees, regulations, instructions and approvals and things done in execution of or in relation to or granted in pursuance of any of the repealed Acts shall continue in force until repealed, altered or revoked under the provisions of this Order or otherwise or until their expiration, and may be used in like manner and with the same penalties as if made for like purposes respectively under the provisions of this Order.

4. The costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the preparation for, obtaining and confirming this Order or otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid by the Corporation.
