ELIZABETH II

1969 CHAPTER xxvii

Act to make provision for the transfer to the State of New South Wales in the Commonwealth of Australia of the registered office of Farmer & Company, Limited; the assent of application to that company of provisions of the Companies Acts 1948 to 1967; and for other purposes incidental thereto. [25th June 1969]

WHEREAS Farmer & Company, Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") is an existing company within the meaning of the Companies Acts 1948 to 1967 and is a company limited by shares:

whereas in the year 1956 Farmers (Holdings) Limited was incorporated in the State of New South Wales, in the Commonwealth of Australia (hereinafter referred to as "New South Wales") under the Companies Act 1936 passed by the legislature of New South Wales and that company acquired the whole of the issued capital of the Company:

whereas in the year 1961 The Myer Emporium Limited, being a company incorporated in the State of Victoria in the Commonwealth of Australia under the Companies Act 1915, passed by the legislature of that state, acquired the whole of the issued ordinary capital of Farmers (Holdings) Limited and the Company therefore, a subsidiary of The Myer Emporium Limited.

CH. xxvii Farmer & Company, Limited
(Transfer of Registration) Act 1969

And whereas the Company carries on the business of retailers of clothing, haberdashery, furniture and household goods in New South Wales:

And whereas the registered office of the Company is situated in England:

And whereas having regard to the fact that the area of operation of the Company is wholly in the Commonwealth of Australia certain advantages would accrue to the Company if the Company was deemed to be incorporated under the laws of New South Wales instead of under the laws of England:

And whereas no procedure exists whereby the registration of a company to which the Companies Acts 1948 to 1967 apply can be transferred from England to another country:

And whereas procedure by way of winding up and dissolution of the Company and the transfer or sale of assets to a new company incorporated in New South Wales would involve loss of the identity of the Company, and the disturbance of its financial structure would interfere with the continuity of its operations with considerable attendant expense:

And whereas it is desirable that the Company should be enabled to become a company incorporated under the laws of New South Wales without any such loss of identity, disturbance or interference and that thereupon the provisions of the Companies Acts 1948 to 1967 (with the exception of those provisions which apply to overseas companies) should cease to apply to the Company:

And whereas by virtue of provisions contained in the Companies (Transfer of Domicile) Act 1968, passed by the legislature of New South Wales and subject to the several conditions set forth in that Act, the Company will be enabled, upon the passing of this Act, to become a company deemed to be incorporated under the Companies Act 1961 passed by the said legislature:

And whereas it is expedient that such provisions should be enacted as are in this Act contained:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
