[24th November 1977]

WHEREAS the Provisional Order set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed has been made by the Secretary of State under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936, and it is requisite that the said 1936 c. 52. Order should be confirmed by Parliament:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Provisional Order contained in the schedule hereunto annexed is hereby confirmed.

Confirmation of Order in schedule.

2. This Act may be cited as the Aberdeen Shoemakers Short title. Incorporation Order Confirmation Act 1977.

SCHEDULE

ABERDEEN SHOEMAKERS INCORPORATION

Provisional Order to amend the Aberdeen Shoemakers Incorporation Act 1854; and for purposes connected therewith.

1854 c. 12.

Whereas the Shoemaker or Cordwainer Trade of the former burgh of Aberdeen having from time immemorial enjoyed certain privileges and rights as a craft or trade of the said burgh, the said craft of Shoemakers or Shoemaker Trade and the whole members thereof, present and future, were by the Aberdeen Shoemakers Incorporation Act 1854 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1854") incorporated into one body politic and corporate under the name of "The Aberdeen Shoemakers Incorporation" (hereinafter referred to as "the Incorporation"):

And whereas by section 8 of the Act of 1854 the Incorporation are empowered to make all such byelaws, rules and orders as they shall think fit and necessary for the management and regulation of the Incorporation provided that any such byelaws, rules and orders and alterations thereof proposing to increase the fees payable to the funds of the Incorporation by entrants thereto or to affect the mode at present in use of electing the deacon and other office-bearers of the Incorporation shall, before being adopted by the Incorporation, be submitted for confirmation to either of the divisions of the Court of Session and be approved of by any two judges of such divisions:

And whereas it is expedient for the more convenient management of the affairs of the Incorporation that they should have power by such byelaws, rules and orders to increase such fees as aforesaid and to affect the mode at present in use of electing the deacon and other office-bearers as aforesaid without recourse to the Court of Session:

And whereas it is expedient that the other provisions of this Order should be enacted:

1936 c. 52.

And whereas the powers aforesaid cannot be effected without an Order confirmed by Parliament under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936:

Now therefore in pursuance of the powers of the said Act the Secretary of State orders as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1. This Order may be cited as the Aberdeen Shoemakers Incorporation Order 1977 and the Act of 1854 and this Order may be cited together as the Aberdeen Shoemakers Incorporation Acts 1854 and 1977.

2. Section 8 (byelaws, rules and orders) of the Act of 1854 shall be Amendment of read and have effect as if the words from " And provided farther " Act of 1854. to the end of the section were omitted.

3. The costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the preparing Costs of Order. for, obtaining and confirming of this Order or otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid out of the funds of the Incorporation.
