PART III

HIGHWAYS AND STREETS

11.—(1) Where any street works in the county have been completed but the street works authority are unable to recover the amount due in respect of the expenses of such works from the owner of any premises or otherwise under Part IX of the Act of 1959 (making up of private streets) or any local enactment by reason of the fact that such owner is unknown and cannot after diligent inquiry made when the said amount becomes due and at reasonable intervals thereafter be found, the street works authority may, at any time after the expiration of twelve years from the date when the said amount becomes due, apply to the county court and that court may, on being satisfied that the provisions of this subsection have been complied with, make an order vesting the said premises in the street works authority absolutely, and thereupon the street works authority may appropriate the said premises subject to and in accordance with the provisions of section 122 of the Act of 1972 as if the said premises were land which was not required for the purpose for which it was held immediately before the appropriation.

Recovery of street works charges where owner unknown.

(2) Where the county court makes an order under subsection (1) above, the Lands Tribunal shall, for the purpose of determining the value of the said premises, nominate one of their members selected in accordance with section 1 (6) of the

—cont.
1949 c. 42.

Lands Tribunal Act 1949, and the member nominated shall determine the same accordingly and shall annex to his valuation a declaration in writing subscribed by him of the correctness thereof and the street works authority shall pay into court a sum equal to the amount of such valuation after deduction of the amount due as aforesaid with interest thereon for a period of six years at the rate chargeable in respect of the said amount together with all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by the street works authority.

1965 c. 56.

(3) Any payment into court under subsection (2) above shall be made in accordance with section 25 of the Compulsory Purchase Act 1965 and section 9 (5) of that Act shall apply to any such payment into court.

(4) The powers conferred by subsection (1) above shall be exercisable by the street works authority in addition to any existing rights, powers and remedies for the recovery of expenses and shall be exercisable by the street works authority in respect of all street works, whether completed before or after the commencement of this Act.

Public seats in streets, etc.

12. The county council or any person with the consent of the highway authority and subject to such conditions as the highway authority impose may in proper and convenient situations in any street in the county or the roadside waste thereof or on any land abutting on any such street provide seats for the use of the public:

Provided that—

- (a) no seat shall be provided on any land or premises not forming part of a street, or in a position obstructing or interfering with any existing access to any such land or premises, except with the consent of the owner and the occupier of the land or premises; and
- (b) nothing in this section shall relieve the county council or any person acting with the consent of the highway authority from liability for damage caused by them or him to any apparatus belonging to or maintained or used by any statutory undertakers in the exercise of the powers of this section, and those powers shall be so exercised as not to obstruct or render less convenient, so far as is reasonably practicable, the access to any such apparatus

Highway amenities.

13.—(1) Subject to the modifications specified in subsection (2) below, section 213 of the Act of 1971 (power for local authorities to provide facilities for recreation or refreshment in certain highways) shall in the county apply to—

- (a) footpaths within the meaning of the Act of 1959;

- (b) subways constructed under section 69 of that Act;
- (c) bridges constructed under section 69A of that Act; and
- (d) roads the use of which by vehicular traffic is prohibited by a traffic regulation order made under section 1 (3) of the Act of 1967;

—cont.

as it applies to a highway in relation to which an order has been made under section 212 (2) of the Act of 1971.

(2) The modifications referred to in subsection (1) above are—

- (a) the omission from section 213 (1) of the words “ giving effect to the order or of ”;
- (b) the substitution in section 213 (3) (a), for the words “ the order under section 212 of this Act was made ”, of the words “ the powers were exercised ”;
- (c) the substitution in section 213 (3) (d), for the words from “ permitted ” to the end, of the words “ lawful; or ”;
- (d) the substitution in section 213 (5), for the words “ consulted the highway authority (if different) and ” of the words “ obtained the consent of the highway authority (if different) and consulted ”.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1) (d) above, use by vehicular traffic is prohibited where the prohibition applies to the whole width of the road and is so prohibited notwithstanding that the traffic regulation order permits certain vehicles or classes of vehicle to use the road or permits vehicles or classes of vehicle to use the road at certain times or on certain days or during certain periods.

(4) In section 213 (2) of the Act of 1971 as it has effect in the county the power to provide facilities for recreation or refreshment includes power, subject to subsections (6) and (7) below, to permit their provision by any person on such conditions as the competent authority think fit:

Provided that, except where such facilities are provided on land belonging to the competent authority the authority shall only make such charge for permission to provide such facilities as will reimburse the authority for their reasonable expenses in connection with granting their permission; but this provision shall not prejudice the right of the authority to require payment in respect of, or indemnities against, claims, liabilities and obligations arising by reason of—

- (a) the provision of such facilities and costs incurred by the authority in connection therewith; and
- (b) the removal or alteration of such facilities when required by the authority.

—cont.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be taken to relieve any person from liability for damage caused by him to any apparatus belonging to or maintained or used by statutory undertakers.

(6) Where a competent authority propose—

- (a) to exercise the powers of section 213 of the Act of 1971 to provide facilities in any such footpath or road as is mentioned in subsection (1) (a) or (d) above; or
- (b) to consider an application for permission to provide facilities for recreation or refreshment pursuant to subsection (4) above for more than twenty-eight days in a calendar year;

they shall give notice of their proposal or, as the case may be, the application, specifying the nature of the facilities and the place where it is proposed that they be provided and the period, not less than six weeks after giving the notice, during which representations regarding their proposal or, as the case may be, the application may be made to them:

Provided that notice shall not be required where the application is for renewal of permission previously given.

(7) Notice for the purpose of subsection (6) above shall be given—

- (a) by fixing the notice in a conspicuous position at or near the place where it is proposed to provide the facilities; and
- (b) by serving the notice on the occupier of any premises appearing to the competent authority to be likely to be affected by the facilities, addressed to him by name or, if his name is not known, by delivering the notice at the premises addressed to him as “The Occupier”.

(8) The competent authority shall not proceed with any proposal to exercise any such powers, or to grant any such permission, as are mentioned in subsection (6) above until they have taken into consideration all representations made in accordance with that subsection.

(9) The competent authority shall take such steps as they think necessary for affording to any organisation appearing to them to represent the interests of persons trading in shop premises which may be affected by the provision of facilities under this section an opportunity to make representations to the authority about any such proposal as is mentioned in subsection (6) above.

(10) (a) A competent authority shall not exercise the powers of section 213 of the Act of 1971 so far as extended by this section in relation to any highway belonging to or repairable by, or any operational land or disused railway belonging to, the British Railways Board except with the consent of that board, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(b) Any question whether consent is unreasonably withheld under paragraph (a) above shall be determined by a single arbitrator to be appointed by agreement between the parties or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers on the application of either party after giving notice in writing to the other party.

14.—(1) The appropriate authority may provide in any street in the county kiosks, show cases or other similar structures for the sale of articles, the display of articles for sale or the display of posters, and may let any such structure on such terms and conditions as they think fit. Power to provide kiosks, etc.

(2) For the purposes of this section, section 213 (3) of the Act of 1971 (restriction of access to highway) shall apply subject to the following modifications:—

(a) the substitution in paragraph (a), for the words from “the order” to the end, of the words “the powers were exercised; or”; and

(b) the substitution for paragraph (d) of the following:—

“ (d) to obstruct any use of vehicles which is lawful; or ”.

(3) The power exercisable by the appropriate authority under subsection (1) above to provide kiosks, show cases or other structures includes power to permit their provision by any person on such conditions as the appropriate authority think fit.

(4) (a) Subsection (5) of section 13 (Highway amenities) of this Act shall apply to this section.

(b) Subsections (6) to (8) of the said section 13 shall apply to any proposal of the appropriate authority to exercise the powers of subsection (1) or (3) above for the provision of any structure in a street as if that structure were provided in exercise of the powers of section 213 of the Act of 1971 as having effect in accordance with the said section 13.

(5) The appropriate authority shall not themselves undertake or engage in the business of newspaper vendors or any other business at, or in connection with, any structures provided under this section.

(6) The appropriate authority for the purposes of this section means, in relation to a street in a district, the county council or the district council, but neither council shall exercise the powers conferred by this section except after consultation with the other and the said powers shall not be exercised—

—cont.

- (a) by the district council in relation to a street which is a highway, without the consent of the highway authority; or
- (b) by the county council in relation to a street which is a highway for which they are not the highway authority, without the consent of the Minister of Transport.

(7) (a) The appropriate authority shall not exercise the powers of this section in relation to any street belonging to or repairable by the British Railways Board except with the consent of that board, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(b) Any question whether consent is unreasonably withheld under paragraph (a) above shall be determined by a single arbitrator to be appointed by agreement between the parties or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers on the application of either party after giving notice in writing to the other party.

PART IV

BURIAL GROUNDS AND CEMETERIES

As to offences in crematoria.

15.—(1) In this section “burial” includes the interment of cremated human remains, “crematorium” means a crematorium belonging to a burial authority and “vault” means a chamber provided for the reception of human remains or cremated human remains, together with the access thereto.

(2) No person shall—

- (a) wilfully create any disturbance in a crematorium;
- (b) commit any nuisance in a crematorium;
- (c) wilfully interfere with any burial taking place in a crematorium;
- (d) wilfully interfere with any vault, kerb or memorial or any flower or plant in a crematorium; or
- (e) play at any game or sport in a crematorium.

(3) No person not being an officer or servant of the burial authority or another person so authorised by or on behalf of the burial authority shall enter or remain in a crematorium at any hour when it is closed to the public.

(4) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50.

16. A district council may in relation to part of a burial ground (not being a cemetery provided and maintained by a burial authority under section 214 (2) of the Act of 1972) exercise any of the powers conferred by the Open Spaces Act 1906 in relation to burial grounds.

PART IV
—cont.

Powers in relation to disused parts of burial grounds.

17.—(1) A district council may exercise the powers of this section in respect of any closed or disused burial ground in their district for the time being belonging to them (hereafter in this section referred to as a “burial ground”):

1906 c. 25.

Power to use certain burial grounds for building, etc.

Provided that in respect of a closed or disused burial ground forming the churchyard of a Church of England church, whether or not there is a church standing in it still in use for public worship at the time of the proposed exercise of such powers, the said powers shall not be exercised without the licence or faculty of the bishop.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any enactment, but subject to the provisions of this section it shall be lawful for the district council to use, deal with or dispose of a burial ground for building or for any other purpose in like manner as if no part thereof had ever been used or set apart for the purpose of the burial of human remains.

(3) Before erecting or causing to be erected any building on a burial ground the district council shall remove or cause to be removed therefrom the remains of all deceased persons interred therein.

(4) Before proceeding to remove any such remains the district council shall—

- (a) publish notice of their intention to do so in a newspaper circulating in their district once in each of two successive weeks with an interval between each publication of not less than six clear days;
- (b) display a copy of that notice in a conspicuous position in the burial ground concerned; and
- (c) where the remains have been interred for less than twenty-five years, serve a copy of that notice on the personal representatives or next of kin (or, in the event of their being untraceable, any known relative) of the deceased person; and any such notice shall have embodied in it the substance of subsections (5) to (10) below.

(5) At any time within two months after the first publication of such notice any person who is an heir, executor, administrator or relative of any deceased person in respect of whose remains the district council have published a notice under subsection (4) above may give notice to the district council of his intention to undertake the removal of such remains and any tombstone relating thereto and thereupon he shall be at liberty to cause such remains to be removed to and re-interred in any burial ground or cemetery in which burials may legally take place (but in the case of a churchyard only with the consent of the incumbent of the parish) or be removed to and cremated in any crematorium, and to remove such tombstone.

(7) The expense of such removal and re-interment or cremation of such remains and such removal of such tombstone shall be defrayed by the district council.

(8) If within the aforesaid period of two months no such notice as aforesaid shall have been given to the district council in respect of the remains in any grave or if after such notice has been given the persons giving the same or, as the case may be, the person specified in any order made under subsection (6) above shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section the district council may remove the remains of the deceased person and cause them to be re-interred in such burial ground or cemetery in which burials may legally take place as the district council think suitable for the purpose (but in the case of a churchyard only with the consent of the incumbent of the parish) or to be removed to and cremated in any crematorium.

(9) Upon any removal of remains under this section the district council shall deposit with the Registrar General a certificate giving the dates of removal and re-interment or cremation respectively and the place in which they were re-interred or cremated, showing the particulars of each removal separately.

(10) The district council shall remove and dispose of all tombstones relating to the remains of any deceased person removed under this section except tombstones removed in pursuance of subsection (5) above and the district council shall cause to be made a record of such tombstones and of any tombstones removed in pursuance of the said subsection (5) showing the particulars respecting each tombstone as a separate entry and deposit a copy of the record with the Registrar General.

(11) Any jurisdiction or power conferred on the county court by this section may be exercised by the registrar of the court.

(12) The removal of the remains of any deceased person under this section shall be carried out in accordance with any directions that may be given by the Secretary of State.

—cont.

18.—(1) In this section—

“the Commission” means the Commonwealth War Graves Commission;

“Commonwealth war burial” means a burial of any member of the forces of His Majesty fallen in the war of 1914 to 1921 or the war of 1939 to 1947;

“tombstone” includes kerbs.

For protection of Commonwealth War
Graves
Commission.

(2) The powers conferred by section 16 (Powers in relation to disused parts of burial grounds) and section 17 (Power to use certain burial grounds for building, etc.) of this Act shall not be exercisable in respect of—

(a) any grave, vault, tombstone or other memorial provided or maintained by or on behalf of the Commission; or

(b) any other grave or vault containing a Commonwealth war burial; except with the consent in writing of the Commission.

(3) Before their first exercise of the powers conferred by the said section 16 or the said section 17 in relation to any particular burial ground, the district council shall notify the Commission.

PART V

MARKETS

19. Any market carried on by a district council within their district which was not established or acquired under section 49 of the Act of 1955 or any of the enactments mentioned in subsection (2) of that section shall be deemed to have been acquired by the district council under the said section 49.

Part III of Act of 1955
to apply to markets
undertakings.

20. A district council may enter into a composition with any person with respect to the payment of any tolls or charges which they may demand under the Act of 1955.

Power to compound
for payment of tolls.

21.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section a district council may, by notice served on any person who, whether as principal or as agent, sells in any market carried on by the district council, require him to furnish to them such information, including information as to the quantity and value of articles, commodities or produce dealt in by him, and as to the places of origin of such articles, commodities or produce, as may be necessary for or

Power of district council to require information.

incidental to the discharge or exercise by the district council of their duties or powers as a market authority:

Provided that nothing in this section shall enable the district council to require any person to furnish information except such information as he may possess relating to articles, commodities or produce dealt in by him in the market.

(2) Section 105 (3) of the Act of 1955 shall apply for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of that Act.

As to public meetings, etc.

22. A district council may permit any market place or any lands used for the purposes of any market, and any open land belonging to them adjoining thereto, to be used for public meetings, public services and speaking and public lectures, or for exhibitions, entertainments or amusements or for dancing, and they may make regulations with respect to the purposes of such use and as to the conduct of persons resorting thereto, and may make such charges for such use as they may from time to time determine:

Provided that—

- (a) nothing in this section shall operate to prevent the holding of any market;
- (b) the powers of this section shall not be exercised in relation to any land forming part of a highway without the consent of the highway authority.

Market byelaws.

23. In addition to and without prejudice to any other powers conferred on a district council by section 61 of the Act of 1955, the district council may make and enforce byelaws with respect to the market for the purpose of preventing the outbreak and spread of fire in the market and, in particular, for that purpose—

- (a) imposing requirements with respect to the provision and maintenance of fire-fighting equipment;
- (b) imposing such prohibitions, restrictions or requirements as appear to the district council requisite for securing that no articles, commodities or produce of any description are stored in such manner as to obstruct the use of fire-fighting equipment.

PART VI

HACKNEY CARRIAGES

Driving of hackney carriages for test and examination purposes.

1847 c. 89.

24. The provisions of section 46 of the Town Police Clauses Act 1847 shall not apply to a person driving a hackney carriage licensed under that Act while the hackney carriage is being driven for the purpose of or in connection with—

- (a) a test carried out as to—
 - (i) the mechanical condition or fitness of the hackney carriage or its equipment; or

- (ii) the competence to drive of an applicant for a licence to drive a hackney carriage; or
- (b) an examination under section 43 of the Road Traffic Act 1972.

—cont.

1972 c. 20.

PART VII

LICENSING OF PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENTS

25.—(1) In this Part—

“boxing or wrestling entertainment” means public boxing or wrestling or other public entertainment of the like kind;

“entertainment licence” means a licence under this Part to keep or use premises for a boxing or wrestling entertainment or, as the case may be, a music or dancing entertainment; and includes such a licence for occasions specified in the licence (in this Part referred to as “an occasional entertainment licence”);

“music or dancing entertainment” means public dancing, singing, music or other public entertainment of the like kind;

“specified entertainment” means a boxing or wrestling entertainment or a music or dancing entertainment.

Interpretation
of Part VII
and repeal.

(2) Section 51 of the Act of 1890 shall not be adopted by a district council and if the said section 51 is in operation in any part of a district immediately before the appointed day fixed for the purposes of this Part in that district, it shall on that day cease to have effect therein.

26.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, as from the appointed day in any district premises within the district shall not be kept or used for a specified entertainment except as authorised by an entertainment licence.

Licensing of entertainments.

(2) The district council may, on the application of any person, grant or renew to him an entertainment licence for premises specified in the licence on such terms and conditions as may be so specified.

(3) An application for an entertainment licence shall be accompanied by such plans and particulars as the district council may by resolution prescribe.

(4) An applicant for an entertainment licence shall give notice of the application to the fire authority and to the chief officer of police, and shall give public notice of the application (identifying the premises) in such form as the district council may by resolution prescribe—

—cont.

- (a) by displaying the notice in a conspicuous position on or near the premises for fourteen days beginning with the date of the application; and
- (b) except in the case of application for the renewal of a licence, by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the district published not later than seven days after the date of the application.

(5) An application for the grant or renewal of an entertainment licence shall not be entertained by the district council unless they are satisfied that the applicant has complied with subsection (4) above in respect of the application.

(6) On considering an application for the grant or renewal of an entertainment licence the district council shall take into consideration any objection made against the application of which notice has, not later than twenty-one days after the date of the application, been sent to the district council and to the applicant stating in general terms the grounds of the objection.

(7) Before refusing to grant or renew an entertainment licence the district council shall give to the applicant an opportunity of appearing before and of being heard by a committee or sub-committee of the council and, if so required by him, the council shall within seven days after their decision give him notice thereof containing a statement of the grounds upon which it was based.

(8) Applications for entertainment licences shall be decided without undue delay.

(9) An entertainment licence is not required—

- (a) in respect of a specified entertainment carried on at a pleasure fair within the meaning of section 75 of the Act of 1961;
- (b) by reason only of the use, for the playing of music or singing, of any place of public religious worship (as defined in section 213 (2) of the Act of 1959) or, if so used as an incident to any religious meeting or service, any other premises.

Nature and duration of entertainment licences and conditions.

27.—(1) An entertainment licence shall be for such period, not exceeding twelve months, specified in the licence as the district council may determine or for occasions so specified.

(2) (a) With his application for an entertainment licence the applicant shall pay such reasonable fee to cover the expense of the district council in dealing with such applications as the council may by resolution prescribe; and different fees may be prescribed for applications of different kinds.

(b) No fee shall be payable under this subsection where the application relates to an entertainment which, in the opinion of the district council, is of an educational character or is given for a charitable purpose; and in any other case the district council may dispense with, or reduce, the fee.

(3) The district council may on the application of the holder of an entertainment licence, other than an occasional entertainment licence, or of any person to whom he wishes to assign the licence, transfer the licence to that person; and subsections (4) to (8) of section 26 (Licensing of entertainments) of this Act and subsection (2) above shall apply to a transfer as they apply to the grant of an entertainment licence.

(4) Where, before the date of expiry of an entertainment licence, an application has been made for the renewal of that licence, the licence shall be deemed to remain in force, notwithstanding that the date of expiry of the licence has passed, until the determination of the application by the district council or until the withdrawal of the application.

(5) Where, before the date of expiry of an entertainment licence, an application has been made for the transfer of that licence, the licence shall be deemed to remain in force (with any necessary modifications) notwithstanding that the date of expiry of the licence has passed or that the applicant for such transfer is carrying on at the premises in respect of which the licence was granted the functions to which the licence relates, until the determination of the application by the district council or until the withdrawal of the application.

28. A person who—

- (a) keeps or uses, or permits the use of, premises contrary to subsection (1) of section 26 (Licensing of entertainments) of this Act; or
- (b) contravenes, or permits the contravention of, a term or condition specified in an entertainment licence;

Offences
under
Part VII.

shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £500.

29. If the holder of an entertainment licence is convicted of contravention of any terms or conditions on which the licence has been granted, the licence may be revoked by the district council.

Revocation of licences.

—cont.

Part VII
appeals.

30. A person aggrieved by a refusal to grant, renew or transfer an entertainment licence, or by any terms or conditions specified in such a licence, or by the revocation of such a licence, may appeal to a magistrates' court; and on any such appeal the court may order the grant, renewal or transfer of the licence, or the grant, renewal or transfer of it on such terms or conditions, not more onerous than those imposed by the district council, as the court thinks fit and make directions for giving effect to its decision.

Part VII
powers of entry,
inspection
and examination.

31.—(1) An authorised officer of the district council or any officer of the fire authority in either case on producing if so required a duly authenticated document showing his authority or any police constable, may at all reasonable times enter upon and inspect and examine any premises which he has reasonable cause to believe are used or intended to be used for a specified entertainment for the purpose of ascertaining—

- (a) whether there is, or has been, in or in connection with the premises, a contravention of the provisions of this Part or of any term or condition on which an entertainment licence for those premises has been granted; or
- (b) whether or not circumstances exist which would authorise the district council to take action under this Part.

(2) Subsections (2), (3) and (4) of section 287 of the Act of 1936 shall apply in respect of entry to premises for the purposes of this section as they apply to entry to premises for the purposes of subsection (1) of that section.

Extension of general
enactments.

1952 c. 68.
1955 c. 20.
1968 c. 54.
1971 c. 40.

32.—(1) Section 7 of the Cinematograph Act 1952, section 4 of and paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to the Revision of the Army and Air Force Acts (Transitional Provisions) Act 1955, section 182 (1) of the Act of 1964, section 12 (2) of the Theatres Act 1968 and section 31 of the Fire Precautions Act 1971 (all of which exclude the operation of enactments regulating the use of premises for the provision of entertainments) shall have effect as if the enactments respectively referred to in those provisions included this Part.

1967 c. 19.

(2) For the purposes of section 1 of the Private Places of Entertainment (Licensing) Act 1967 (power to adopt that Act) this Act shall be deemed to be such an enactment as is referred to in subsection (1) (d) of that section.

Devolution of licence under this Part or Cinematograph
Act 1909.

1909 c. 30.

33.—(1) In the event of the death of the holder of an entertainment licence or of a licence under the Cinematograph Act 1909 in respect of premises in a district, then, until a legal personal representative of the deceased holder has been duly constituted, the person carrying on at those premises the functions in respect of which the licence was granted, shall be deemed to be the holder of the licence.

—cont.

(2) Upon the due constitution of a legal personal representative of the deceased holder of any such licence as is mentioned in subsection (1) above the licence shall be deemed to be granted to that personal representative.

PART VIII

PUBLIC ORDER AND PUBLIC SAFETY

34.—(1) Where it appears to a district council that a building in their district is, by reason of damage to the building, not secured against entry by trespassers and that the occupier of the building is absent from the building, the district council may do such things as are reasonably required to render the building secure and recover from the owner or occupier the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing.

Protection of damaged buildings.

(2) The district council shall not exercise their powers under subsection (1) above without the consent of the owner or occupier of the building unless, having regard to all the circumstances, it is not reasonably practicable to obtain such consent within a reasonable time.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to premises to which section 8 of the Act of 1976 applies (unoccupied houses subject to closing orders or undertakings against use for human habitation).

35.—(1) A district council may seize and impound any cattle trespassing on land of which they are the occupier or on any other land in the district with the consent of the owner and occupier of such land.

Seizure of cattle.

(2) A district council shall, within twenty-four hours after impounding any cattle under this section, give notice of the impounding to the officer in charge of a police station and also to the owner of the cattle if his identity be known to them.

(3) A district council shall keep one or more registers of all cattle seized by them under this section. The register shall contain a brief description of the cattle, the date of seizure and particulars as to the manner in which such cattle are disposed of and every such register shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times.

(4) If after seven clear days from the date of impounding the owner has not claimed the cattle and paid all expenses incurred in seizing and impounding them, the district council may sell or otherwise dispose of the cattle otherwise than by destruction and if after fourteen clear days from the said date the owner has not claimed the cattle and paid all such expenses, the district council may destroy the cattle in a manner to cause as little pain as possible.

(5) Where the district council dispose of any cattle otherwise than by destruction under subsection (4) above, they shall be accountable to the owner of the cattle for any money arising from the disposal after deducting all such expenses as are mentioned in that subsection.

(6) Whilst any cattle are impounded by a district council under this section the district council shall cause them to be properly fed and maintained.

(7) In this section "cattle" has the same meaning as in the 1847 c. 89. Town Police Clauses Act 1847.

PART IX

ENTERTAINMENT CLUBS

Interpretation
of Part IX.

36. In this Part "entertainment club" means, subject to section 43 (Exemption of premises) of this Act, any premises in a district which are used by the members of a club, organisation or body for the provision of entertainment, for dancing or for the playing of games in pursuance of the objects of the club, organisation or body.

Prohibition of unregistered
entertainment
clubs.

37. As from the appointed day in any district, any person, being the owner or occupier, or a person concerned in the conduct or management, of premises in the district, who—

- (a) uses or permits the use of those premises as an entertainment club when they are not registered under this Part; or
- (b) contravenes or permits the contravention of a condition imposed on registration of the premises under this Part;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £500.

Offences in connection with
clubs.

38. If an entertainment club is habitually used for an unlawful purpose, or as a resort of criminals or prostitutes, any person concerned in the conduct or management of the entertainment club who knows that the premises are so used and does not take such steps as may be reasonable to prevent that use shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £500.

—cont.

39.—(1) Application for registration or the renewal of registration of premises under this Part shall be made to the district council by the owner or occupier of the premises, stating— Application for registration.

- (a) the name and address of the applicant;
- (b) the address or situation of the premises to which the application relates; and
- (c) such other information regarding the premises, the persons concerned or intended to be concerned in the conduct or management thereof, and the manner in which the premises are to be used, as the district council may reasonably require;

and the applicant shall supply such plans of the premises as the district council may reasonably require.

(2) (a) With his application for registration, or for the renewal of registration, of premises under this Part the applicant shall pay such reasonable fee to cover the expense of the district council in dealing with such applications as the council may by resolution prescribe; and different fees may be prescribed for applications of different kinds.

(b) The district council may dispense with, or reduce, a fee chargeable under this subsection.

(3) An applicant for registration, or for the renewal of registration, of premises under this Part shall, upon making his application, give notice of the application to the fire authority and to the chief officer of police, and shall give public notice of the application (identifying the premises) in such form as the district council may by resolution prescribe—

- (a) by displaying the notice in a conspicuous position on or near the premises for fourteen days beginning with the date of the application; and
- (b) except in the case of application for the renewal of registration, by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the district published not later than seven days after the date of the application.

(4) An application for registration, or for the renewal of registration, of premises under this Part shall not be entertained by the district council unless they are satisfied that the applicant has complied with subsection (3) above in respect of the application.

PART IX
—cont.

Registration of
clubs.

40.—(1) (a) The district council shall, on considering an application for the registration of premises under this Part, take into account the suitability of the premises for use as an entertainment club having regard to the matters referred to in subsection (1) below and shall, on considering an application for the renewal of registration, take those matters into account if in their opinion there has, since the last registration or renewal, been a material change of circumstances affecting any of those matters.

(b) Before considering an application for the registration, or the renewal of registration, of premises under this Part the district council shall consult the fire authority.

(2) On considering an application for the registration, or the renewal of registration, of premises under this Part the district council shall take into consideration any objection made against the application of which notice has, not later than twenty-one days after the date of the application, been sent to the district council and to the applicant, stating in general terms the grounds of the objection.

(3) The district council may refuse to register or renew the registration of premises under this Part if they are satisfied that it is reasonable to do so, having regard to all the circumstances, on the grounds that—

- (a) the premises are not structurally suitable for the intended use, or are not provided with satisfactory means of lighting, sanitation and ventilation;
- (b) the premises are not safe for such use, or the means of heating the premises are not safe;
- (c) satisfactory means of ingress and egress, and suitable fire-fighting appliances, are not available on the premises;
- (d) proper precautions against fire on the premises have not been taken;
- (e) the applicant has, within the period of five years immediately preceding the date of the application, been convicted of an offence under section 8 (b) of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 (supply of controlled drugs) or under this Part;
- (f) any person concerned or intended to be concerned in the conduct or management of the premises is of such character that persons resorting to the premises are likely to be depraved or corrupted; or
- (g) the intended use of the premises is likely to cause nuisance

1971 c. 38.

and shall refuse to register or renew the registration of any premises if they are satisfied that a disqualification order is for the time being in force under section 100 of the Act of 1964 or section 11 of the Late Night Refreshment Houses Act 1969 in respect of the premises or of any person concerned or intended to be concerned in the conduct or management thereof. PART IX

—cont.
1969 c. 53.

(4) The district council may, on registering or renewing the registration of premises under this Part, impose such conditions as may be reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances, as to—

- (a) the maintenance and safe condition of the premises and of means of heating the premises;
- (b) the taking of proper precautions against fire, and the maintenance in proper order of all means of ingress and egress, fire-fighting appliances and means of lighting, sanitation and ventilation;
- (c) the maintenance of good order;
- (d) the number of persons who may be allowed to be on the premises at any time.

(5) The district council may at any time revoke a registration under this Part on any ground upon which, by subsection (3) above, they are authorised or required to refuse to register or renew the registration of the premises, or if they are satisfied that a condition imposed under subsection (4) above has not been complied with.

(6) Before refusing to register or renew the registration of premises under this Part, revoking a registration, or imposing any condition on a registration or renewal of a registration, the district council shall give to the person applying for registration or renewal of registration, or, in the case of a revocation, the person in whose name the premises are registered, an opportunity of appearing before and of being heard by a committee or sub-committee of the council and, if so required by him, the council shall within seven days after their decision give him notice thereof containing a statement of the grounds upon which it was based.

(7) Applications for registration of premises under this Part shall be determined without undue delay.

(8) Registration under this section shall, unless revoked, remain in force for such period, not exceeding thirteen months, as may be fixed by the district council on the grant of the registration or renewal thereof.

41.—(1) A person aggrieved by a refusal to register or to renew a registration of premises under this Part, or by the revocation thereof, or any condition imposed thereon, may not later than twenty-one days after the day on which notice is given to him PART IX appeals.

—cont.

under subsection (6) of section 40 (Registration of entertainment clubs) of this Act appeal to a magistrates' court.

(2) On any such appeal the court may, by order—

- (a) confirm or set aside such refusal or revocation and, on setting aside a refusal or revocation, impose any condition which the district council would have been entitled to impose; or
- (b) confirm, vary or set aside any condition imposed on the registration;

and make directions for giving effect to its decision:

Provided that, where conditions have been imposed on a registration by the district council, the court shall not vary any such condition so as to make the conditions more onerous than those imposed by the district council.

Part IX
powers of entry, inspection and
examination.

42.—(1) An authorised officer of the district council or any officer of the fire authority in either case on producing if so required a duly authenticated document showing his authority, or any police constable, may at all reasonable times enter upon, inspect and examine any premises which he has reasonable cause to believe are used, or intended to be used, as an entertainment club for the purpose of ascertaining—

- (a) whether there is, or has been, in or in connection with the premises, a contravention of the provisions of this Part or of any condition imposed on registration under this Part; or
- (b) whether or not circumstances exist which would authorise the district council to take action under this Part.

(2) Subsections (2), (3) and (4) of section 287 of the Act of 1936 shall apply in respect of entry to premises for the purposes of this section as they apply to entry to premises for the purposes of subsection (1) of that section.

Exemption of premises.

43.—(1) Nothing in this Part shall apply to—

- (a) premises in respect of which there is in force for the time being a justices' on-licence as defined in section 1(2) of the Act of 1964 or a Part IV licence as defined in section 93 of that Act;
- (b) premises while in use wholly or mainly for any purpose authorised by a licence under section 51 of the Act of 1890, the Private Places of Entertainment (Licensing)

Act 1967 or Part VII (Licensing of public entertainments) of this Act, or a licence for the public performance of stage plays or a cinematograph exhibition;

—cont.
1967 c. 19.

(c) premises kept open wholly or mainly in the course of carrying on the business of a hotel or boarding-house keeper providing sleeping accommodation for members of the public as guests;

(d) premises used by a club which is registered or licensed under the Act of 1964 or is managed or controlled by a local authority;

(e) premises used exclusively as a canteen forming part of a factory or office which is subject to any of the relevant statutory provisions as defined in Part I of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974;

(f) premises by reason only of their use for the purposes of a club, organisation or body which is registered as a charity under section 4 of the Charities Act 1960 or excepted from registration by virtue of subsection (4) of that section;

(g) premises at a railway station used as a refreshment room and managed by and under the direct control of the British Railways Board or any wholly-owned subsidiary (within the meaning of section 92 of the Transport Act 1962) of that board.

(2) (a) A district council may by resolution—

- (i) exempt from this Part premises of a class or description specified in the resolution, from a date so specified; and
- (ii) remove that exemption, in whole or as respects premises of a particular class or description so specified, from a date so specified.

(b) Subsections (2) and (3) of section 3 (Appointed day) of this Act shall, with any necessary modifications, apply in respect of a resolution made under this subsection and of any date specified by the resolution.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Part, it shall be lawful for any person who—

(a) immediately before the appointed day was using any premises as an entertainment club and had before that day duly applied for the registration of those premises for that purpose;

(b) was using any premises as an entertainment club immediately before the date specified in a resolution under subsection (2)(a)(ii) above for the removal of an

—cont.

exemption affecting those premises and had before that date duly applied for registration of those premises for that purpose; or

- (c) before the expiration of the period of registration of any premises for use as an entertainment club, had duly applied for the renewal of that registration;

to continue that use of the premises until he is informed of the decision with regard to his application; and, in the case of an applicant for the renewal of registration mentioned in paragraph (c) above, the registration shall be deemed to remain in force notwithstanding the expiration of the period of registration until he is so informed.

PART X

PUBLIC HEALTH

Dust, etc.,
from building
operations.

44.—(1) This section applies to any building operation, including any work of demolition or the cleansing of any building or structure, which is either carried out in the open air or carried out in such circumstances that dust from the operation is emitted into the open air.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (6) below, a district council may give notice to any person carrying out, or controlling the carrying out of, an operation to which this section applies in their district requiring him, within such time as is specified in the notice, to take such reasonably practicable steps as are so specified to reduce the emission of dust from the operation.

(3) In considering what steps are reasonably practicable for the purposes of subsection (2) above, the district council shall have regard, amongst other matters, to the requirements of safety and safe working conditions, any relevant provisions of any code of practice approved under section 16 of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 and to the financial implications.

1974 c. 37.

(4) Any person aggrieved by a notice under subsection (2) above may appeal to the county court and the judge may make such order, either confirming or quashing or varying the notice as he thinks fit but shall not so vary the notice that it is more onerous than the notice given by the district council.

(5) (a) Subject to any order made on appeal under subsection (4) above, any person who fails to comply with a notice under subsection (2) above shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200 and to a daily fine not exceeding £20.

(b) In any proceedings under this subsection it shall be a defence to show that the quantity of dust emitted into the open air was not materially greater than would have been emitted if the notice had been complied with.

PART X
—cont.

(6) (a) If, before the carrying out of any operation to which this section applies, the person who intends to carry it out applies to the district council for their consent to the operation giving particulars of—

- (i) the operation and the method by which it is to be carried out; and
- (ii) the steps proposed to be taken to reduce the emission of dust from the operation; and the district council consider that, on the carrying out of the operation in accordance with the application, they would not serve a notice under subsection (2) above in respect of that operation, the district council may give their consent to the operation for the purposes of this section, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as may be specified in the consent.

(b) In acting under this subsection the district council shall have regard to the matters specified in subsection (3) above.

(c) If the district council do not, within twenty-one days from the receipt of an application under this subsection, give to the applicant a consent, with or without conditions, which is acceptable to the applicant, he may appeal to the county court.

(d) On any appeal under this subsection the judge may make such order either confirming the refusal of the consent or varying any conditions subject to which the consent has been given or ordering the giving of the consent with or without conditions as he thinks fit but shall not so vary any conditions that they are more onerous than those specified by the district council.

(7) In this section “dust” includes chemicals in solution and grit.

(8) Nothing in this section shall prejudice or affect the operation of any of the relevant statutory provisions as defined in Part I of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.

1974 c. 37.

45.—(1) In section 92 (1) (d) of the Act of 1936 (statutory nuisances) in its application to a district the expression “inhabitants of the neighbourhood” includes persons who work within the neighbourhood.

Definition of “inhabitant” in Act of 1936.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prejudice or affect the operation of any of the relevant statutory provisions as defined in Part I of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.

PART X
—cont.

Application
of certain enactments
to vessels and floating structures.

46.—(1) Part IX shall apply to vessels and floating structures as if they were premises.

(2) The enactments mentioned in Parts I and II of Schedule 1 to this Act in their application to a district shall apply in relation to a vessel or floating structure used for human habitation as if that vessel or floating structure were a house, building or premises.

(3) The enactments mentioned in Part I of Schedule 1 to this Act in their application to a district shall apply in relation to a vessel or floating structure used for the sale of food as if that vessel or floating structure were a house, building or premises.

(4) In relation to any vessel or floating structure used for human habitation or for the sale of food the enactments applied by the foregoing provisions of this section shall have effect as if the person in charge of the vessel or floating structure were the occupier.

(5) This section shall not apply to any vessel which is being used for the purpose of navigation.

Control of rats and mice.

47.—(1) A district council may with the consent of the owner or occupier of land take any steps for the destruction of rats or mice on the land, or otherwise for keeping it free from rats or mice, and recover from him any expenses reasonably incurred by them in doing so.

1949 c. 55.

(2) Expressions used in subsection (1) above and in the Prevention of Damage by Pests Act 1949 have the same meaning as in that Act.

(3) Section 294 of the Act of 1936 (limitation of liability of owners receiving rent as agent of trustee) shall apply to expenses incurred under this section as if they were expenses incurred under section 5 of the said Act of 1949.

Powers of entry for Prevention of Damage by Pests Act
1949.

48. Section 22 of the Prevention of Damage by Pests Act 1949 (powers of entry) shall have effect in a district as if after subsection (1) there were inserted the following subsections:—

“ (1A) If it is shown to the satisfaction of a justice of the peace on sworn information in writing—

(a) that admission to any land has been refused or that refusal is apprehended; or

(b) that the land is unoccupied or that the occupier is temporarily absent or that the case is one of urgency or that an application for admission would defeat the object of the entry;

and, in either case, that there is reasonable ground for entry upon the land for any such purpose as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section the justice may by warrant under his hand authorise the local authority, by any person duly authorised by them in writing, to enter upon the land, if need be by force:

—cont.

Provided that such a warrant shall not be issued unless the justice is satisfied either that notice of the intention to apply for a warrant has been given to the occupier or that the circumstances are as mentioned in paragraph (b) above.

(1B) A person entering upon any land by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section or of a warrant issued under this section may take with him such other persons as may be necessary and on leaving any unoccupied land upon which he has so entered shall leave it as effectually secured against trespassers as he found it.

(1C) Every warrant issued under this section shall continue in force until the purpose for which the entry is necessary has been satisfied.”.

49. In its application to a district section 85 of the Act of 1936 (cleansing of verminous persons and their clothing) shall have effect as if— Amendment of section 85 of Act of 1936.

(a) in subsection (2) after the word “that” where it first occurs there were inserted the words “there is reasonable cause to suspect that” and after the word “clothing” where it secondly occurs there were inserted the words “should be examined and if found to be verminous”;

(b) in subsection (4) after the word “The” there were inserted the words “examination or”.

50.—(1) In this section the expression “separate system of drainage” means a separate system of drains for the conveyance of— Power to require separate system of drainage.

(a) soil water and waste water; and

(b) rainwater;

respectively.

(2) (a) Where plans—

(i) of a building; or

(ii) of an extension of a building; or

PART X
—cont.

- (iii) of an alteration of a building already provided with a separate system of drainage; or
- (iv) of an alteration of a building which show that it is intended to provide in the building five or more additional water closets; are in accordance with building regulations deposited with the district council, the district council may, notwithstanding anything in section 64 of the Act of 1936, reject the plans unless they show that the building or the extension or the part of the building to be altered, as the case may be, will be provided with a separate system of drainage.

(b) If the district council reject the plans under the authority of this section, the notice to be given under section 64 (2) of the Act of 1936 shall specify this section as that under which the plans have been so rejected.

(c) Section 64 (2) and section 65 (2) to (5) of the Act of 1936 shall have effect as if this section were a section of that Act.

(d) Any question arising under this section between the district council and any person by whom or on whose behalf the plans are deposited as to whether the plans show that the building or the extensions or the part of the building to be altered, as the case may be, will be provided with a separate system of drainage may on the application of that person be determined by a magistrates' court.

PART XI

FIRE PRECAUTIONS

Firemen's switches for luminous
tube signs.

51.—(1) This section applies to apparatus consisting of luminous tube signs designed to work at a voltage normally exceeding 650 volts, or other equipment so designed; and references in this section to a cut-off switch are, in a case where a transformer is provided to raise the voltage to operate the apparatus, references to a cut-off switch on the low-voltage side of the transformer.

(2) As from the appointed day in the county—

- (a) no apparatus to which this section applies shall be installed on or in any premises in the county unless it is provided with a cut-off switch; and
- (b) the switch shall be so placed, and coloured or marked, as to satisfy such reasonable requirements as the fire authority may impose to secure that it shall be readily recognisable by and accessible to firemen.

(3) Not less than six weeks before work is begun to install apparatus to which this section applies, the owner or the occupier of the premises where the apparatus is to be installed shall give notice to the fire authority showing where the cut-off switch is to be placed and how it is to be coloured or marked.

(4) Where notice has been given to the fire authority as required by subsection (3) above, the proposed position, colouring or marking of the switch shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of the fire authority unless, within twenty-one days from the date of the service of the notice, the fire authority have served on the owner or occupier a counter-notice stating that their requirements are not satisfied.

(5) Where apparatus to which this section applies has been installed before the appointed day, the owner or the occupier of the premises where it is installed shall, not more than twenty-one days after the appointed day, give notice to the fire authority stating whether the apparatus is already provided with a cut-off switch and, if so, where the switch is placed and how it is coloured or marked.

(6) Where apparatus to which this section applies has been installed before the appointed day, the fire authority may serve on the owner or occupier of the premises a notice—

(a) in the case of apparatus already provided with a cut-off switch stating that they are not satisfied with the position, colouring or marking of the switch and requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the notice, to take such steps as will secure that the switch will be so placed and coloured or marked as to be readily recognisable by, and accessible to, firemen in accordance with the reasonable requirements of the fire authority; or

(b) in the case of apparatus not already provided with a cut-off switch, requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the notice, to provide a cut-off switch in such a position and so coloured or marked as to be readily recognisable by, and accessible to, firemen in accordance with the reasonable requirements of the fire authority.

(7) A cut-off switch which complies with the regulations of the Institution of Electrical Engineers for a fireman's emergency switch as to position, colour and marking shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to satisfy the requirements of the fire authority.

(8) The provisions of section 290 of the Act of 1936 shall apply to notices given by the fire authority under this section as they apply to the notices mentioned in subsection (1) of that section and as if reference therein to a local authority included reference to the fire authority.

(9) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to apparatus installed or proposed to be installed on or in premises in respect of which a licence under the Cinematograph Acts 1909 and 1952 is for the time being in force but, where any apparatus to which this section applies is proposed to be installed on or in any such premises, the owner or occupier of the premises shall, before the apparatus is installed, give notice to the fire authority informing them of the position in which it is proposed to place the cut-off switch and how it is to be coloured or marked.

(10) The owner or occupier of premises where apparatus to which this section applies is installed which does not comply with subsection (2) above and the owner or the occupier of the premises who does not comply with the requirements of the fire authority stated in a notice under subsection (6) above shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200 and to a daily fine not exceeding £20.

(11) Any person who fails to give notice as required by subsection (3), (5) or (9) above shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200.

PART XII

FINANCE

Insurance
of certain voluntary assistants.

52.—(1) A local authority may enter into a contract with any authorised insurers whereby, in consideration of payments made by way of premium or otherwise by the local authority, those insurers undertake to pay to the local authority such sums as may be provided in the contract in the event of any voluntary assistant meeting with a personal accident, whether fatal or not, while he is engaged as such, or suffering any disease or sickness, whether fatal or not, as a result of being so engaged.

(2) Any sum received by a local authority under any such contract shall, after deduction of any expenses incurred in the recovery thereof, be paid by the local authority to, or to the personal representatives of, the voluntary assistant who suffered the accident, disease or sickness in respect of which the sum is received or to such other person as the local authority consider appropriate having regard to the circumstances of the case.

1774 c. 48.

1974 c. 49.

(3) The provisions of the Life Assurance Act 1774 shall not apply to any such contract, but any such contract shall be deemed for the purposes of the Insurance Companies Act 1974 to be a policy of insurance upon the happening of personal accidents, disease or sickness.

(4) In this section—

—cont.

“ authorised insurers ” means a person who is permitted under the Insurance Companies Act 1974 or the corresponding provision for the time being in force in Northern Ireland to carry on in Great Britain or in Northern Ireland insurance business of a relevant class or who has corresponding permission under the law of another member state; 1974 c. 49.

“ voluntary assistant ” means a person who, at the request of the local authority or a proper officer of the local authority, performs any service or does anything, otherwise than for payment by the local authority (except by way of reimbursement of expenses), for the purposes of, or in connection with, the carrying out of any of the functions of the local authority.

PART XIII

AIRCRAFT NOISE

53. In this Part, unless the subject or context otherwise requires— Interpretation of Part XIII.

“ aircraft noise ” means noise attributable to aircraft using the airport;

“ the airport ” means the aerodrome in the city of Leeds known as the Leeds and Bradford Airport;

“ the councils ” means the local authorities for the time being concerned in the management of the airport and “ council ” means any one of those authorities;

“ local authority ” has the meaning assigned to it by section 270 of the Act of 1972.

54.—(1) A council may, in accordance with a scheme made by them under the next succeeding section, make grants towards the cost of insulating buildings or parts of buildings against aircraft noise. Grants towards cost of insulating buildings.

(2) The following enactments in the Rent Act 1977 shall have effect as if a reference to this section had been included therein, namely:— 1977 c. 42.

(a) paragraph (a) of section 33 (1);

(b) paragraph (a) (i) of section 48 (2).

55.—(1) A council may, after consulting the other councils, make a scheme or schemes providing for the making of grants under the last foregoing section in respect of buildings in an area, or areas, within or outside the county; but a scheme under this section need apply only to such classes of buildings as the council think fit. Schemes for grants towards cost of insulating buildings.

—cont.

(2) A scheme under this section shall specify by reference to a map the area, or areas, in which buildings must be situated for the grants to be payable and shall make provision as to the persons to whom, the expenditure in respect of which and the rate at which the grants are to be paid, and may make the payment of any grant dependent upon compliance with such conditions as may be specified in the scheme.

(3) A scheme under this section shall specify a date, not being less than two years after the first publication of the notice referred to in subsection (6) below, not later than which an application may be submitted to the council for the making of a grant.

(4) A scheme under this section shall require the council, in any case where an application for a grant is refused, to give to the applicant at his request a written statement of their reasons for the refusal.

(5) A scheme under this section may make different provision with respect to different areas or different circumstances and may be varied or revoked by a subsequent scheme under this section without prejudice to grants already made.

(6) (a) As soon as may be after the making of a scheme under this section the council shall publish once at least in each of two successive weeks in one or more newspapers circulating in the area, or areas, to which the scheme relates a notice stating the general effect of the scheme and specifying a place or places in the area, or areas, where a copy of the scheme and of the map therein referred to may be inspected by any person free of charge at all reasonable hours.

(b) A photostatic or other reproduction certified by the proper officer to be a true reproduction of a page, or part of a page, of any newspaper bearing the date of its publication and containing a notice mentioned in this subsection shall be evidence of the publication of the notice and of the date of the publication.

Orders for insulating
new buildings.

56.—(1) Where a council have made a scheme under section 55 (Schemes for grants towards cost of insulating buildings) of this Act in respect of any area, or areas, they may apply to the Secretary of State for an order requiring provision for insulation against aircraft noise to be made in any building of a class to which the scheme applies which is erected after a date specified in the order (or in any extension of or alteration to any such building made after that date) in the area, or areas, defined in the order by reference to a map, which area, or areas, may comprise the whole or part of the area, or areas, to which the scheme relates.

(2) An application for an order under this section shall be accompanied by a draft of the order which the council desire the Secretary of State to make and a map defining the area, or areas, to which the draft order relates.

(3) Before making application to the Secretary of State for an order under this section the council shall publish in each of two successive weeks in one or more newspapers circulating in the area, or areas, proposed to be comprised in the order a notice—

(a) stating the general effect of the order;

(b) specifying a place in the said area, or areas, where a copy of the draft order and of the relevant map may be inspected by any person free of charge at all reasonable hours during a period of twenty-eight days from the date of the first publication of the notice;

(c) stating that within the said period any person may by notice to the Secretary of State object to the application.

(4) Any person claiming to be affected by the application may object thereto by sending notice of his objection and of the grounds thereof to the Secretary of State within the period specified in the notice and by sending a copy of the objection and of the grounds thereof to the council.

(5) The Secretary of State may make the order in the terms of the draft or in those terms as modified in such manner as he thinks fit:

Provided that if any objection is duly made as aforesaid by any person appearing to the Secretary of State to be affected by the application and is not withdrawn, the Secretary of State shall not make the order unless he has caused a public local inquiry to be held into the proposed order and has considered the report of the person who held the inquiry.

(6) (a) If the Secretary of State makes an order under this section the council shall give notice of the making and of the effect of the order by publishing the same in one or more newspapers circulating in the area, or areas, to which the order relates.

(b) An order under this section shall be a local land charge.

(7) Where plans for the erection, extension or alteration of a building in an area to which an order made under this section relates are, in accordance with building regulations, deposited with a local authority, the local authority shall, notwithstanding anything in section 64 of the Act of 1936, reject the plans unless it is shown to them—

(a) that satisfactory provision will be made for insulating the building (or, as the case may be, the extension or alteration of the building) against aircraft noise; or

—cont.

(b) that in the case of an extension or alteration no such insulation is necessary.

(8) Section 64 (2) and section 65 (2) to (5) of the Act of 1936 shall have effect as if this section were a section of that Act.

Misuse of conditioning house certificates
or reports.
1968 c. 29.

62.—(1) If any person having obtained a conditioning house certificate or a conditioning house report is convicted of an offence under the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 by reason of his having published or used any conditioning house certificate or any conditioning house report or any copy of or extract from any such certificate or report for the purpose of advertising any goods or material other than the goods or material to which the certificate or report relates the Bradford council may call in and cancel any certificate or report so published or used and may refuse to grant or issue any further certificates or reports to such person.

(2) If any person is convicted of an offence under the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 by reason of his having, for the purpose of advertising any goods or material, falsely stated or implied that a conditioning house certificate or a conditioning house report has been granted or issued in respect of those goods or that material or falsely stated or implied with regard to any matter that it is justified by a conditioning house certificate or a conditioning house report the Bradford council may refuse to grant or issue conditioning house certificates or conditioning house reports to such person.

Protection of Bradford council.

63. The Bradford council shall not incur any liability in respect of any conditioning house certificate or conditioning house report or in respect of any tops, noils, yarns or wool and other matters and things of the like character deposited with them for examination, testing or certificate beyond such as may arise from negligence or misconduct on the part of any of their officers.

Baildon
Moor.

64. The provisions of Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect in relation to Baildon Moor.

Use of Peel Park.

65. Notwithstanding anything contained in any conveyance or deed to the contrary the Bradford council may permit Peel Park or any part of that park to be used on Sundays for the playing of games or for other forms of recreation.

Use of Cartwright
Hall.

66.—(1) The Bradford council may use or allow to be used any part of the Cartwright Hall which is not at the time required for the purpose of a museum or art gallery for any of the following purposes, that is to say:—

- (a) the provision of an entertainment of any nature;
- (b) the provision of facilities for dancing.

PART XIV
—cont.

(2) Nothing in this section shall—

- (a) be taken to dispense with the consent of any Minister of the Crown to any appropriation, lease or other disposition of any lands of the Bradford council in any case in which the consent of such Minister would have been required if this section had not been enacted; or
- (b) affect the provisions of any enactment by virtue of which a licence is required for the public performance of a play or the public exhibition of cinematograph films or for public music or dancing or other entertainment.

(3) Any byelaws relating to a museum or art gallery of the Bradford council shall not apply to any part of the Cartwright Hall which is used for any purpose other than as a museum or art gallery so long as that part is so used, except to such extent as they may be expressed so to apply.

67. Any line prescribed under section 17 (Defining line of Improvement streets) of the Bradford Improvement Act 1873 shall be deemed to be an improvement line prescribed under section 72 of the 1873 c. clxvii. Act of 1959.

PART XV

CALDERDALE PROVISIONS

68. In this Part—

Interpretation
of Part XV.

- “the council” means the Calderdale council;
- “the deposited plan” means the plan marked “West Yorkshire. Plan of the People’s Park, Shibden Hall Estate and Skircoat Moor” and prepared in triplicate, one copy of which has been deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, one in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons and one in the office of the proper officer of the council at the Town Hall, Halifax;
- “the People’s Park” means the lands in the metropolitan borough of Calderdale comprising a public park and pleasure ground, containing 5.0 hectares or thereabouts, which lands are coloured pink on the deposited plan;
- “Shibden Hall Estate” means the lands in the metropolitan borough of Calderdale comprising a public park and pleasure ground, containing 30.6 hectares or thereabouts, which lands are coloured brown on the deposited plan;

“Skircoat Moor” means the lands in the metropolitan borough of Calderdale comprising open, public and unenclosed recreation or play ground, containing 28.5 hectares or thereabouts, which lands are coloured blue on the deposited plan.

Skircoat
Moor.

69.—(1) The council shall continue to hold and maintain Skircoat Moor for ever as an open, public and unenclosed recreation or play ground.

(2) The council may from time to time lay out and set apart any parts of Skircoat Moor for cricket or for other games or purposes, and may on the lands situated thereat and known as Savile Park or adjacent thereto erect such pavilions and ancillary buildings as may be required for the purposes aforesaid on that portion of those lands not exceeding in extent one-fifth of a hectare immediately adjoining the existing refreshment house and public convenience situated on the easterly side of the highway traversing the said park from the church of St. Jude in Free School Lane in the north to the junction of Skircoat Moor Road and Birdcage Lane in the south.

Shibden Hall
Estate.

1875 c. 55.

70.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the council shall at all times keep the Shibden Hall Estate (hereafter in this section referred to as “the estate”) as a public walk, pleasure ground, public park or recreation ground, and for the avoidance of doubt the estate shall be deemed, for the purposes of section 164 of the Public Health Act 1875, to have been purchased for the purpose of being used as public walks or pleasure grounds.

(2) The council may permit the use of the whole, or set apart any part, of the estate for specific games or sports, for gymnastics or drills, for concerts and any other amusements or for any other purpose tending to promote the health, amusement and enjoyment of the inhabitants and the public.

(3) The council shall preserve the mansion house known as Shibden Hall as a building of historic interest to the public.

(4) No buildings shall be erected upon any part of the estate except such as the council may consider necessary or desirable in connection with use of the estate for the purposes of a public walk, pleasure ground, public park or recreation ground.

(5) No buildings shall be erected upon any part of the estate and no structural alteration shall be made to any existing buildings thereon, nor shall any such buildings be pulled down, except with the approval of the President for the time being of the Yorkshire Archaeological Society.

—cont.

71.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section the council shall continue to hold and maintain the People's Park (hereafter in this section referred to as "the park") for ever as a public park or pleasure ground. People's Park,
Halifax.

(2) Byelaws made by the council shall provide—

- (a) that the park shall be kept open to the public on every day of the week during the hours of daylight;
- (b) that the park shall be used by the public as a promenade only, and that no games or sports, swimming or dancing shall be permitted therein;
- (c) that no refreshments of any kind shall be sold within the park;
- (d) that no political or other meetings, open-air preaching, nor the celebration of anniversaries or reunions of clubs or benefit societies shall be permitted within the park.

(3) No buildings shall be erected in the park except such summer-houses, pavilions, lodges or similar structures as appear to the council to be necessary or proper for the convenience of those frequenting the park, or for the residence of the keepers or other persons employed therein.

(4) The Right Honourable Savile William Francis, third Baron Somerleyton, and the heirs to the barony and title Baron Somerleyton of Somerleyton in the county of Suffolk, shall for the purposes of this section continue to be the protector of the park and ex officio a member of the committee of the council responsible for the maintenance of the park.

(5) No charge shall be made for entry to the park nor for any services or facilities provided therein:

Provided that with the written consent of the protector (which he may at any time revoke on giving to the council not less than six months' notice in writing) and subject to any conditions or restrictions imposed by him, the council may make a reasonable charge for the use of seats or chairs on the occasion of musical performances in the park.

(6) With the written consent of the protector the council may allow the park to be used for any demonstration or entertainment held or provided for a charitable object and on such occasion may close the park to the public (but not for more than six days in all in any one year nor for more than two consecutive days, nor on a Sunday or public holiday) and may charge for admission thereto.

—cont.

(7) If the council fail for three consecutive months to maintain, manage and regulate the park in accordance with the provisions of this section the protector may in that capacity apply to the Crown Court for such order as the court deem fit to secure compliance with those provisions and to compel the council to pay the costs and expenses of and incidental to the application.

Provisions
applicable to sections 70
and 71.
1960 c. 58.

72. The provisions of section 70 (Shibden Hall Estate) and section 71 (People's Park, Halifax) of this Act may be amended or repealed by a scheme made by the Charity Commissioners under section 18 of the Charities Act 1960.

Bonded warehouses.
1979 c. 2.

73. The keeping or making available of warehouses approved under section 92 of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 shall continue to be a function of the council for the purposes of section 120 of the Act of 1972, and in the exercise of that function it shall be lawful for the council to construct and to maintain warehouses.

Repair of certain
premises.

74.—(1) This section applies to dwelling-houses in the parish of Hebden Royd in the metropolitan borough of Calderdale and in this section "dwelling-house" means a building or part of a building intended to be occupied as a separate dwelling.

(2) If it appears to any person, being an owner of a dwelling-house to which this section applies which is so constructed that any part of the dwelling-house is above or beneath any other premises, that those other premises are in such a state of disrepair as to be detrimental to the structure or the amenities of the dwelling-house, he may serve on the owner of those premises a notice (hereafter in this section referred to as a "repairs notice") requiring the owner of the premises to carry out within such reasonable time as may be therein specified such repairs as may be so specified for the purpose of preserving or restoring the structure or the amenities of the dwelling-house.

(3) If an owner of premises to whom a repairs notice has been given under subsection (2) above fails to commence the works specified in the notice before the expiration of twenty-eight days, or fails to complete such works within the time specified in the notice, the owner of the dwelling-house may apply to the county court for an order under this subsection and if the court is satisfied, having regard to the age and condition of the premises and to all the other circumstances of the case, including the obligations of any person under a lease, that the premises should be repaired by the owner thereof, the court may make an order (hereafter in this section referred to as a "repairs order") requiring the owner of the premises to carry out within a time specified in the order such of the works specified in the repairs notice as it considers necessary for the purpose mentioned in subsection (2) above and may make directions for giving effect to its decision.

—cont.

(4) If the owner of the premises fails to comply with a repairs order, the owner of the dwelling-house (or, with the consent of the owner of the dwelling-house, the council) may enter upon the premises and carry out the works specified in the repairs order and may recover from the owner for the time being of the premises the expenses reasonably incurred in so doing.

(5) Nothing in this section shall authorise a repairs notice to be served or a repairs order to be made with respect to any premises which are subject to compulsory acquisition under any enactment, but nothing in this subsection shall affect any right to recover expenses incurred before the premises became so subject.

(6) (a) Sections 283, 285, and 294 of the Act of 1936 shall have effect for the purposes of this section as if references therein to that Act included a reference to this section and references to a council included a reference to the owner of a dwelling-house.

(b) The council may at the request of the owner of a dwelling-house to which this section applies exercise the powers of section 16 of the Act of 1976 in relation to any premises as if the provisions of this section conferred a function on the council.

LEEDS PROVISIONS

77. In addition to the powers of the Leeds council under section 44 of the Act of 1890 (parks and pleasure grounds) and notwithstanding the proviso to subsection (1) of that section, the Leeds council may on such Sundays as they think fit (not exceeding ten in any one year) close to the public Roundhay Park or any part thereof and may grant the use of the same in accordance with the provisions of the said section 44 but subject to the foregoing provisions of this section.

Occasional closure of Roundhay
Park.

78.—(1) The Leeds council may maintain the mansion house called Temple Newsam and may do all such acts as they may deem necessary in order that the character thereof as a mansion house of national and historic interest may be preserved.

Powers as to Temple
Newsam
Estate.

(2) The Leeds council may make reasonable charges for admission to the said mansion house.

(3) In addition to the powers of the Leeds council under section 44 of the Act of 1890 (parks and pleasure grounds) and notwithstanding the proviso to subsection (1) of that section, the Leeds council may on such Sundays as they think fit (not exceeding ten in any one year) close to the public so much of the Temple Newsam Estate as may be appropriated for the purpose of a recreation ground or any part thereof and may grant the use of the same in accordance with the provisions of the said section 44 but subject to the foregoing provisions of this subsection.

79. Where the Leeds council propose to exercise the powers of section 77 (Occasional closure of Roundhay Park) or subsection (3) of section 78 (Powers as to Temple Newsam Estate) of this Act to close to the public any part of Roundhay Park or the Temple Newsam Estate on a Sunday, the Leeds council shall give reasonable notice thereof by publishing a notice in a newspaper circulating in the city of Leeds and shall affix a copy or copies of the

PART XVIII
MISCELLANEOUS

Byelaws for sports centres,
 gymnasiums,
 etc.

80.—(1) A district council may make byelaws for regulating or controlling the use of any lands or buildings held or managed by them under section 19 of the Act of 1976 and of any facilities or services provided in connection therewith.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, byelaws under this section may be made for all or any of the following purposes:—

(a) for the prevention of nuisances on or in any such lands or buildings;

(b) for securing the good and orderly conduct of persons on or in any such lands or buildings.

Trees impeding natural light
 to houses,
 shops and offices.

81.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section a tree or shrub which impedes or excludes the access of natural light to a dwelling-house, shop or office premises to such an extent as to be prejudicial to the health of the occupiers of the dwelling-house, shop or office premises shall be a statutory nuisance for the purpose of Part III of the Act of 1936 in its application to a district, and the provisions of that Act shall have effect accordingly as if the provisions of this section were provisions of the said Part III.

(2) In proceedings brought by virtue of subsection (1) above in respect of a tree or shrub which is alleged to impede or exclude the access of natural light to a dwelling-house, shop or office premises, the court shall have regard to the question whether or not immediately after the construction, erection or extension of the dwelling-house, shop or office premises the tree or shrub or one or more trees or shrubs having a substantially similar effect impeded or excluded the access of natural light thereto and the extent of any such impeding or exclusion.

(3) In this section—

“ dwelling-house ” means a building or part of a building intended to be occupied as a separate dwelling;

“ office premises ” has the same meaning as in the Offices, Shops and Railway Premises Act 1963;

“ shop ” has the same meaning as in the Shops Act 1950.

1963 c. 41.

1950 c. 28.

Local land
 charges
 register.

1975 c. 76.

82.—(1) In this section “ the Act of 1975 ” means the Local Land Charges Act 1975.

(2) The duties imposed on a district council by sections 3 and 5 of the Act of 1975 to keep a local land charges register and to register local land charges in it shall be discharged if the district council record all information which is registrable under that Act by means of a device or combination of devices serving the purpose of a register, and, subject to subsections (3) and (4) below, the Act of 1975 shall have effect accordingly.

(3) If the duty to keep a local land charges register is discharged as aforesaid, the entitlement of any person under section 8 (1) of the Act of 1975 to search in the register shall be satisfied if the district council on payment of the prescribed fee make available to him for inspection in legible form a photographic or other image of any information so recorded in respect of any land which he may wish to examine or an indication that no such information is so recorded and the reference in section 8 (2) of the Act of 1975 to photographic or other images or copies of any portion of the register shall be construed as a reference to any photographic or other image or indication as aforesaid.

(4) If the duty to keep a local land charges register is discharged as aforesaid, a copy of any information so recorded which is furnished by that device or combination of devices and is authenticated by the proper officer of the district council shall be deemed for all the purposes of the Act of 1975 to be an office copy of an entry in a local land charges register containing that information.

(5) The power to make rules under section 14 of the Act of 1975 shall include power to make rules for carrying into effect the provisions of this section.

83.—(1) The county council may after consultation with the executive make byelaws—

Byelaws relating to executive's
undertaking.

(a) regulating the use of premises belonging to or leased by the executive for, or in connection with, bus services within their area, including premises provided at stations for interchange between road and rail traffic, the maintenance of order on such premises and the conduct of all persons, including their officers and servants, while on such premises; and

(b) for the safe custody and redelivery or disposal of property found in premises belonging to or leased by the executive for, or in connection with, such bus services and for fixing the charges which may be made in respect thereof; and the executive shall enforce any such byelaws.

—cont.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing subsection, byelaws under subsection (1) (a) above may contain provisions—

- (a) with respect to interference with, or obstruction of, premises or facilities provided in connection with such bus services;
- (b) with respect to the use of tobacco or other substances, the control of animals and the prevention of nuisances;
- (c) with respect to the receipt and delivery of goods and the payment of charges with respect to the conveyance, custody or handling of goods;
- (d) for regulating the passage of bicycles and other vehicles on footways and other premises controlled by the executive and intended for the use of persons on foot.

(3) Any byelaws made under this section may provide that any person contravening them shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50 for each offence.

(4) Without prejudice to the taking of proceedings under subsection (3) above, if the contravention of any byelaws having effect under this section is attended with danger or annoyance to the public, or hindrance to the executive, in the lawful conduct of bus services, it shall be lawful for the executive summarily to take action to obviate or remove the danger, annoyance or hindrance.

PART XIX

GENERAL

Disputes about compensation.

84.—(1) Any dispute arising on a claim for compensation under this Act being a dispute for the determination of which no other provision is made by or under this or any other Act, shall be determined, if the parties so agree, by arbitration, or, in default of agreement, by a county court.

(2) A county court shall have jurisdiction to deal with any dispute which by virtue of subsection (1) above is to be determined by such a court notwithstanding that, by reason of the amount of the claim or otherwise, the case would not, but for this provision, be within the jurisdiction of a county court.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the operation of section 115 of the County Courts Act 1959 (removal into the High Court of proceedings commenced in a county court).

85. A Minister of the Crown may cause such local inquiries to be held as he may consider necessary for the purpose of any of his functions under this Act and section 250 (2) to (5) of the Act of 1972 shall apply to any such inquiry.

—cont.
Local inquiries.

86. Where under any provision of this Act the consent of a local authority to the carrying on of any business or to the use of premises for any purpose is required as from an appointed day, it shall be lawful for any person who—

Saving for conduct of business or use of premises.

- (a) immediately before that day was carrying on the business, or using any premises for the purpose; and
- (b) had before that day duly applied for the consent required by that provision; to continue to carry on that business, or, as the case may be, to use those premises for that purpose, until he is notified of the decision with regard to his application, and if the decision is adverse, during such further time as is provided under section 87 (Appeals) of this Act.

87.—(1) Sections 300 to 302 of the Act of 1936 shall apply in respect of appeals to a magistrates' court under this Act.

Appeals.

(2) Where a requirement, refusal or other decision of a local authority against which a right of appeal is conferred by this Act—

- (a) involves the execution of any work or the taking of any action; or
- (b) makes it unlawful for a person to carry on a business which he was lawfully carrying on immediately before the requirement, refusal or decision was made or, but for this section, came into effect, or to use premises for any purpose for which they were lawfully then used;

then, until the time for appealing has expired, or, if an appeal is lodged, until it is disposed of or withdrawn or fails for want of prosecution—

- (i) no proceedings shall be taken in respect of any failure to execute the work, or to take the action, nor shall the local authority themselves execute the work or take the action; and
- (ii) the person may continue to carry on the business or to use the premises for that purpose.

88. The written consent of the Attorney-General is needed for the laying of an information of an offence created by or under this Act by any person other than a party aggrieved, a local authority or a constable.

Restriction on right to prosecute.

—cont.
Crown
rights.

89.—(1) Nothing in this Act affects prejudicially any estate right, power, privilege, authority or exemption of the Crown and in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, nothing in this Act authorises a local authority to take use, enter upon or in any manner interfere with, any land or hereditaments or any rights of whatsoever description—

- (a) belonging to Her Majesty in right of Her Crown and under the management of the Crown Estate Commissioners without the consent in writing of those commissioners; or
- (b) belonging to Her Majesty in right of Her Duchy of Lancaster, without the consent in writing of the Chancellor for the time being of the said duchy; or
- (c) belonging to a government department, or held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of a government department, without the consent in writing of that government department.

(2) A consent under subsection (1) above may be given unconditionally or subject to such conditions and upon such terms as shall be considered necessary or appropriate.

1950 c. 39.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prejudice or affect any statutory powers of a local authority to carry out code-regulated works within the meaning of the Public Utilities Street Works Act 1950 in any highway vested in, or maintained by, the Minister of Transport.

Liability of directors, etc.

90.—(1) Where an offence under this Act or against any byelaw made under this Act committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of the offence.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) above shall apply to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

Penalty for obstruction.

91. Any person who intentionally obstructs any officer of a local authority acting in execution of this Act, or of any byelaws made thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200.

Defence of due diligence.

92.—(1) In proceedings for an offence under any provision mentioned in Schedule 3 to this Act, it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of such an offence.

—cont.

(2) If in any case the defence provided under subsection (1) above involves the allegation that the commission of the offence was due to the act or default of another person, the person charged shall not, without leave of the court, be entitled to rely on that defence unless, within a period ending seven clear days before the hearing, he has served on the prosecutor a notice in writing giving such information identifying or assisting in the identification of that other person as was then in his possession.

93.—(1) The sections of the Act of 1936 mentioned in Schedule 4 to this Act shall have effect as if references therein to that Act included references to this Act.

Application
of general provisions
of Act of 1936.

(2) Section 287 of the Act of 1936 (powers of entry) shall have effect as if references therein to that Act included a reference to the following provisions of this Act:—

Section 34 (Protection of damaged buildings);

Section 44 (Dust, etc., from building operations):

Provided that, before entry on any operational railway line of the British Railways Board in pursuance of any of those provisions of this Act and of the said section 287 as it has effect by virtue of this section, not less than twenty-four hours' notice of intended entry shall, except in case of emergency, be given to that board and any person entering on any such railway line in pursuance of that notice or in any such emergency shall comply with the reasonable requirements of the British Railways Board for the protection of their undertaking.

94. In the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974—

Saving for Health and Safety at Work etc.
Act 1974.
1974 c. 37.

(a) subsection (5) of section 62 (repeal or modification of certain enactments by building regulations) shall apply to any enactment in this Act and to any provision of a byelaw (or other instrument of a legislative character) made under it as that subsection applies to any enactment mentioned therein;

(b) subsection (1) of section 80 (repeal or modification of certain provisions by regulations) shall apply to any provision of this Act and to any regulation and byelaw made under it as that subsection applies to any provision mentioned in subsection (2) of the said section 80.

PART XIX
—cont.

Repeals.

95.—(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section the enactments mentioned in column (1) of Part I of Schedule 5 to this Act in so far as they apply within the county are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in column (2) thereof.

(2) The saving provisions contained in Schedule 6 to this Act shall have effect in relation to repeals effected by this Act.

SCHEDULE 2

PROVISIONS RELATING TO BAILDON MOOR

Baildon Moor to continue vested in Bradford council.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule the Bradford council shall continue to hold and be entitled to exercise and enjoy the estate, interests, rights, powers, privileges and authorities in, under and over Baildon Moor (in this Schedule referred to as "the Moor") vested in and exercisable or enjoyed by the Bradford council at the commencement of this Act.

Land to be kept open.

2. The Moor shall be held by the Bradford council and be at all times kept open, unenclosed and unbuilt on and (subject to the exercise of rights of common thereon) as open spaces for the recreation and enjoyment of the public.

Natural aspect to be preserved.

3. The Bradford council shall at all times so far as possible but subject to any rights reserved by or granted pursuant to this Schedule preserve the natural aspect and state of the Moor and shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, protect the trees, shrubs, plants, turf and herbage growing on the same and shall prevent all persons from felling, cutting, lopping or injuring the same and from digging stone, shale, clay, loam, soil, gravel, sand or other material therefrom.

Powers of Bradford council as to Moor.

4. The Bradford council may exercise the following powers in regard to the Moor (that is to say) they may:—

- (a) improve portions of the Moor so far as may be necessary or desirable for the purposes of health, recreation and enjoyment;
- (b) make, maintain, stop up, alter and divert roads, footpaths and ways thereover other than highways maintainable at the public expense, and make ornamental waters in the Moor;
- (c) plant trees and shrubs for purposes of shelter or ornament and fell, cut, lop and manage the same and any other trees, plants and shrubs on the Moor and make and maintain so long as shall be necessary temporary inclosures for the protection of trees, shrubs and turf:

Provided that in exercising the powers aforesaid the Bradford council shall not unduly interfere with, hinder or prejudice any rights of common;

- (d) let the pasturage of the Moor in such manner and at such rent as they may think proper subject to any rights of common;
- (e) provide and maintain pounds for the impounding of cattle and other animals straying on the Moor.

5. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule the Bradford council may make byelaws for any of the following purposes relating to the Moor (that is to say):—

—cont.

Power to make byelaws.

- (a) for preventing fires and nuisances and for preservation of order;
- (b) for preventing bird catching, bird trapping and the taking of or searching for birds' eggs or nests and for preventing the killing, taking, injuring, shooting, chasing or disturbing of animals and for preventing the setting of traps, nets, snares or other engines for any of those purposes;
- (c) for excluding and removing horses, asses, cattle, sheep and other animals from and for preventing persons from turning out or permitting horses, asses, cattle, sheep or other animals to feed or graze upon the Moor otherwise than in the exercise of any rights of common and for regulating the turning out of horses, cattle and sheep in the exercise of any such rights;
- (d) for preventing the firing or discharging of firearms or the throwing or discharging of missiles;
- (e) for preventing injury to or the defacement or removal of fences, barriers or notice-boards or other things put up by the Bradford council and the disfigurement of fences, buildings or trees by posting or painting bills, placards or notices thereon or otherwise;
- (f) for regulating with respect to Baildon Green and Bracken Hill Green the playing of games, the letting and hiring of horses, asses and other animals and of carriages and other vehicles and preventing the racing of horses or other animals;
- (g) for regulating the traffic on the roads and footpaths of the Moor other than roads and footpaths maintainable at the public expense;
- (h) for regulating the time and place for the performance of bands of music and for securing orderly conduct during the time when the band is performing;
- (i) for regulating the use of cabmen's shelters and public lavatories;
- (j) for setting apart parts of the Moor upon which persons may deliver lectures, sermons or speeches, hold entertainments or perform music or exercise horses and for prohibiting the assembly of persons, the delivery of lectures, sermons or speeches, the holding of entertainments, the playing of music and the exercising of horses upon the Moor except upon any part so set apart as aforesaid:

Provided that no part of the Moor to be set apart for any of the purposes mentioned in this sub-paragraph shall be situate within one hundred yards of any dwelling-house; and

- (k) generally for carrying into effect the powers of the Bradford council and for preventing any improper use of the Moor or anything tending to the injury or disfigurement thereof or of any property of the Bradford council thereon or therein.

SCH. 2

Compensation to persons injuriously affected by byelaws. 1961 c. 33. Cabmen's shelters and public conveniences.

6. The Bradford council shall pay compensation to any person having rights of common over the Moor who is injuriously affected by any byelaws made under the provisions of this Schedule and such compensation shall be determined in case of dispute under and in accordance with the Land Compensation Act 1961.

Power to provide stands, shelters and seats.

7. The Bradford council may erect and maintain shelters for cabmen and public lavatories with proper sanitary arrangements upon the Moor and may charge for the use thereof and shall erect and maintain sufficient sanitary conveniences which may be used free of charge.

Power to enclose lakes for skating and to charge for admission.

8. The Bradford council may erect and maintain temporary bandstands, shelters and inclosures adjoining thereto on the Moor and may place or authorise any person to place seats or chairs on the Moor for the use of the public and may if they think fit charge or allow such person to charge a reasonable sum for the use of such chairs.

Power to erect, maintain and let conservatories, refreshment rooms, etc.

9. The Bradford council during times of frost may for the purpose of protecting ice for skating on all or any part of any lake or piece of water on the Moor enclose such parts of the Moor as may be necessary to effect such purpose and charge for admission to any part so enclosed.

Setting apart and closing of Moor for special purposes.

10. The Bradford council may erect, maintain, furnish and equip and may remove conservatories, refreshment rooms and other temporary or permanent buildings, erections and conveniences on the Moor as may be required or convenient for the purpose thereof and for the public resorting thereto and may let any refreshment rooms or other buildings with their appurtenances belonging to them or under their control to such person on such terms and conditions as the Bradford council think fit.

11.—(1) The Bradford council may set apart any part or parts of the Moor to be used for cricket, football, golf, lawn tennis and other games and sports, for gymnastics, for the drill of any military or police force, for concerts and other amusements and for any purpose tending to promote the health, amusement and enjoyment of the public and may make charges for such use.

(2) When any part or parts of the Moor are used or set apart under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph the Bradford council may close the same against the public for not more than twelve days in any year nor for more than four consecutive days on any one occasion nor on any public holiday.

As to purchase and extinguishment of rights of common.

12.—(1) If at any time it shall in the opinion of the Bradford council be expedient having regard to the use and enjoyment by the public of the Moor to extinguish the rights of common over all or any part of the Moor the Bradford council may acquire and extinguish those rights upon compensating the owners of rights of common and for the purpose of determining the amount of such compensation and the person or persons to whom the same is to be paid and the time and manner of such payment the provisions of Schedule 4 to the Compulsory Purchase Act 1965 shall apply.

1965 c. 56.

—cont.

(2) In addition to the powers conferred upon the Bradford council by sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph they may purchase by agreement all or any rights of common and, until the extinguishment of all rights of common, they may hold the same and let the rights of pasture.

13. In the exercise of the powers conferred upon them by virtue of this Schedule the Bradford council and their successors and assigns shall not at any time do or permit to be done any act, deed, matter or thing whereby any damage, injury or interruption shall be caused or sustained to or by all or any of the reservoirs, aqueducts, conduits or pipes situate, lying and being on and under the Moor and used and occupied by the water authority or to the several springs or streams of water, rights, privileges or easements mentioned and described in a certain indenture dated 20th April 1857 and made between William Maude of the one part and the local board of health for the district of Baildon of the other part or whereby the use and enjoyment of the same by the water authority may be interrupted, diminished or affected and notwithstanding anything in this Schedule the Bradford council and their successors and assigns shall at all times permit the water authority to have and enjoy free and uninterrupted rights of access for themselves, their servants, agents and workmen with or without horses, carts or vehicles to and from the said reservoirs, aqueducts, conduits and pipes, springs and streams of water or any of them or any part or parts thereof for all purposes incidental to the full and proper use and enjoyment thereof with liberty for any such purposes to break open the surface of the lands in or under which the same may be situate.

Section 95.

SAVING PROVISIONS

1.—(1) Notwithstanding the repeal by this Act of enactments continued in force by the Water Act 1973 relating to functions exercisable by the water authority for or in connection with the supply of water within their area—

(a) the water authority may continue and maintain all waterworks authorised by or acquired under those enactments as if this Act had not been passed; and

(i) for the purposes of section 3 of Schedule 3 to the Water Act 1945, the said waterworks shall be deemed to be authorised by, and the lands on which those works are constructed shall be deemed to be specified in, an enactment which is for the time being in force; and

(ii) for the purposes of section 36 of the Water Resources Act 1963, the said waterworks shall be deemed to be authorised by virtue of such an alternative statutory provision as is therein referred to;

(b) the water authority may take any water which may be taken or intercepted by any of the said waterworks under and in accordance with any licences granted under Part IV of the Water Resources Act 1963 and expressed by reference to any of the said enactments repealed by this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal by this Act of enactments continued in force by the Water Act 1973 relating to any other functions exercisable by the water authority, the water authority may continue and maintain all works authorised by those enactments as if this Act had not been passed.

2. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Schedule shall prejudice or affect any provision made, or which may be made, in any order under section 254 of the Act of 1972 as extended by section 34 of the Water Act 1973.

3. Where any enactment referred to in Part I of Schedule 5 to this Act is material for the purposes of interpreting any enactment referred to in Part II, Part III or Part IV of that Schedule, the repeal of the first-mentioned enactment shall not affect the interpretation of the other enactment.

4. The repeal by this Act of any enactment shall not affect the operation of any byelaw, registration or licence made or issued under that enactment if the byelaw, registration or licence is one which could be made or issued under any provision of this Act and any such byelaw, registration or licence shall have effect as if made or issued under this Act.

5. The mention of particular matters in this Schedule shall not be held to prejudice or affect the general application of sections 15 to 17 of the Interpretation Act 1978. 1978 c. 30.
