

Heathrow Express Railway Act 1991

1991 CHAPTER vii

PART IV

PROTECTIVE PROVISIONS

35 Notice of interference with roads

Before breaking up or otherwise interfering with any road to which the public has access in connection with the construction of any works under the powers of this Act, the appropriate authority shall (except in case of emergency) give 14 days' notice in writing to the chief officer of police and make such arrangements with him as may be reasonably necessary so as to cause as little interference with the traffic in such road during the construction of such works as may be reasonably practicable.
