

Croydon Tramlink Act 1994

1994 CHAPTER xi

PART II

WORKS

11 Subsidiary works

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act the Corporation may, for the purposes of Tramlink and associated traffic control—
  - (a) within the limits of deviation make, lay down, place, erect, repair, alter, renew, maintain, operate and use rails, rail fixings, plates, sleepers, channels, conduits, tubes, stations, platforms, islands, gates, junctions, points, turntables, turnouts, crossings, temporary or permanent cross-overs, passing places, pillars, posts, poles, brackets, wires, subways, manholes, shafts, engines, dynamos, substations, transformers, switchgear, cabling, signalling, monitoring and communications equipment, together with subsidiary and incidental machinery, apparatus, works and appliances; and
  - (b) in, or under any street in which it may be necessary or convenient, or in other land over which the Corporation have or obtain sufficient rights, lay, place, form, erect, maintain, renew and repair drains, ditches and culverts, electric wires, conductors, cables, brackets, posts, tubes, substations, boxes and other electrical apparatus for connecting the authorised railways and associated works with any electricity generating station or substations or for the purposes of signalling, monitoring and communication in connection with Tramlink.
- (2) The provisions of sections 158 and 159 of, and paragraph 3 of Schedule 13 to, the Water Industry Act 1991 (street works) shall apply to apparatus and works referred to in subsection (1) above as they apply to relevant pipes and service pipes but as if—
  - (a) for any reference to a water undertaker there were substituted a reference to the Corporation; and
  - (b) paragraph 3 (6) of Schedule 13 were omitted.
