

City of Westminster Act 1999

1999 CHAPTER i

26 Employment of assistants

A person holding a street trading licence may employ any other person to assist him in the conduct of street trading authorised by the licence but if any person employed by a licence holder, whether or not the licensed holder is present, fails to comply with the conditions of the street trading licence held by his employer such failure shall be deemed to be a failure by the licence holder.
