CHAPTER i

An Act to confer further powers upon local authorities in London; and for related purposes. [13th May 2004]

WHEREAS—

- (1) It is expedient that further and better provision should be made for the improvement and development of local government services in London and for the benefit of persons residing therein and that the powers of London borough councils and the Common Council of the City of London (hereinafter referred to as “London borough councils”) should be extended and amended as provided in this Act:
- (2) It is expedient that provision be made in relation to abandoned vehicles in London:
- (3) It is expedient that further provision be made in relation to matters relating to public health and the environment in Greater London:
- (4) It is expedient that the other provisions contained in this Act should be enacted:
- (5) The purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:
- (6) In relation to the promotion of the Bill for this Act the Westminster City Council have complied with the requirements of section 239 of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70) and the other London borough councils have complied with the requirements of section 87 of the Local Government Act 1985 (c. 51):
- (7) In relation to the promotion of the Bill the London borough councils have acted through their representation in the Association of London Government, a statutory joint committee whose membership is made up from members of all the London borough councils:

May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

PRELIMINARY

1 Citation and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the London Local Authorities Act 2004 and shall come into operation at the end of the period of two months beginning with the date on which it is passed.
- (2) This Act and the London Local Authorities Acts 1990 to 2003 may be cited together as the London Local Authorities Acts 1990 to 2004.

2 Interpretation

In this Act—

“the 1978 Act” means the Refuse Disposal (Amenity) Act 1978 (c. 3);

“borough council” means London borough council and includes the Common Council of the City of London in its capacity as a local authority and “borough” and “council” shall be construed accordingly;

“operational land” has the same meaning as in the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (c. 8).

PART 2

ABANDONED VEHICLES

3 Disposal of vehicles

- (1) Section 4 (Disposal of removed vehicles) of the 1978 Act shall have effect in the area of a borough council in accordance with this section.
- (2) For subsection (1) there are substituted the following subsections—
  - “(1) Subject to subsections (5) and (6) below, a local authority may, in such manner as they think fit, dispose of any vehicle which is in their custody in pursuance of section 3 above—
    - (a) in the case of a vehicle—
      - (i) on which no licence is displayed;
      - (ii) to which no G.B. or N.I. registration mark is fixed;
      - (iii) to which an illegible registration mark is fixed; or
      - (iv) in respect of which there is no registered keeper, at any time after its removal;

- (b) in the case of a vehicle on which a licence is displayed and to which paragraph (a)(ii), (iii) and (iv) above does not apply, at any time after the expiry of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the licence expires;
  - (c) in any other case, at any time after the local authority has, for the purpose of ascertaining the owner of the vehicle, taken such of the steps specified in subsection (1B) below as are applicable to the vehicle and either—
    - (i) the authority have failed to ascertain the name and address of the owner; or
    - (ii) the owner has failed to comply with a notice under subsection (1A) below served on him by post.
- (1A) A notice under subsection (1)(b) above shall be a notice addressed to the owner of the vehicle which—
- (a) states—
    - (i) the registration mark and make of the vehicle;
    - (ii) the place where the vehicle was found before it was removed;
    - (iii) the place to which the vehicle has been removed;
    - (iv) that unless the vehicle is removed by the owner on or before the date specified under paragraph (b) below, the local authority intends to dispose of it; and
  - (b) requires the owner to remove the vehicle from the custody of the local authority within 7 days of the date on which the notice was served.
- (1B) The steps to be taken by a local authority before serving a notice under subsection (1)(b) are—
- (a) if the vehicle carries a G.B. or N.I. registration mark, the local authority shall ascertain from the G.B. or, as the case may be, the N.I. records the name and address of the registered keeper;
  - (b) if the vehicle does not carry such a registration mark, the local authority shall make such inquiries as appear to them to be practicable to ascertain the identity of the owner of the vehicle.”.
- (3) Subsection (2) is omitted.
- (4) After subsection (7), the following subsection is inserted—
- “(7A) The Secretary of State may by regulations alter the period of notice provided under subsection (1A)(b) above.”.
- (5) In subsection (8) at the end the following definitions are inserted—
- “G.B. records” means the records kept under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (c. 22) by the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency on behalf of the Secretary of State and “G.B. registration mark” means a registration mark assigned to a vehicle registered in those records;
- “N.I. records” means the records kept under that Act by Driver and Vehicle Licensing Northern Ireland on behalf of the Secretary of State and “N.I. registration mark” means a registration mark assigned to a vehicle registered in those records;

“registered keeper” in respect of a vehicle means the person in whose name the vehicle is registered in G.B. or N.I. records;”.

- (6) At the end, the following subsection is inserted—
- “(9) References in this section to such sums in respect of the removal, storage or disposal of a vehicle as may be prescribed shall be sums of the same level as the level of charges set by London authorities for the removal, storage and disposal of vehicles under section 74 (Fixing of certain parking and other charges for London) of the Road Traffic Act 1991 (c. 40).”.

4 Recovery of expenses connected with removed vehicles

Section 5 (Recovery of expenses connected with removed vehicles) of the 1978 Act shall have effect in the area of a borough council as if—

- (a) for paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (1) there were substituted “charges in respect of the removal, storage and disposal of the vehicle”; and
- (b) after that subsection there were inserted—
- “(1A) The level of charges made by the appropriate authority for the removal, storage and disposal of vehicles under this section shall be the same as the level of charges set by London authorities for the removal, storage and disposal of vehicles under section 74 (Fixing of certain parking and other charges for London) of the Road Traffic Act 1991.”.

5 Meaning of “owner” under the 1978 Act

- (1) Section 11 (Interpretation) of the 1978 Act shall have effect in the area of a borough council as if after subsection (2) the following subsection were inserted—
- “(2A) References in this Part of this Act to the “owner” of a vehicle at a particular time are to the person by whom it was then kept and the registered keeper at a particular time shall be taken, unless the contrary is shown, to be the person by whom the vehicle was kept at that time.”.
- (2) In section 11 of the 1978 Act the definition of “owner” shall cease to have effect in the area of a borough council.

6 Powers of entry

- (1) This section applies where a vehicle is to be or has been removed from a road by a borough council under section 3 (Removal of abandoned vehicles) of the 1978 Act.
- (2) An authorised officer may, at any time before the vehicle is lawfully removed from the custody of the council or is disposed of by the council under section 4 (Disposal of abandoned vehicles) of the 1978 Act, enter the vehicle for the purpose of—
- (a) removing anything from it in the interests of the safety of persons or property; or
- (b) preventing damage to or loss of the vehicle or any of its contents.

- (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5) below, the council shall retain and keep safe anything removed under subsection (2) above and shall deliver it to any person claiming it who satisfies the council that he is the owner of it or of the vehicle in question.
- (4) The council may, in such manner as they think fit and at any time, dispose of any perishable item removed under subsection (2) above.
- (5) Where the vehicle from which anything is removed under subsection (2) above is disposed of under the said section 4 the council may—
  - (a) no sooner than the date on which the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which the vehicle was removed expires; and
  - (b) in any manner they think fit,dispose of the thing removed if it has not been claimed by any person who satisfies the council that he is its owner.
- (6) If any person, no later than the date on which the period of five months beginning with the date on which the vehicle was removed expires satisfies the council that they were, at the time the vehicle was removed, the owner of anything disposed of under subsection (4) or (5) above, the council shall pay to that person the proceeds (if any) obtained on the disposal of the thing.

7 Disclosure of information

- (1) Any person who, apart from this section, would not have power to disclose information obtained in identifying the owner of a vehicle under section 4 (Disposal of abandoned vehicles) of the 1978 Act (in the application of that section in the area of a borough council) to—
  - (a) a borough council;
  - (b) Transport for London; or
  - (c) a person acting on behalf of a borough council or Transport for London,shall have power to do so in any case where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of enforcing any provision of the enactments specified in subsection (2) below.
- (2) The enactments are—
  - (a) sections 3 to 5 (Abandoned vehicles) of the 1978 Act;
  - (b) Part II (Traffic in London) of the Road Traffic Act 1991 (c. 40);
  - (c) Part II (Bus lanes) of the London Local Authorities Act 1996 (c. ix); and
  - (d) sections 4 (Penalty charges for road traffic contraventions) and 5 (Contraventions of lorry ban order: supplementary) of the London Local Authorities and Transport for London Act 2003 (c. iii).

8 Transitional provision

If, before this Part of this Act comes into force, a vehicle has been removed under section 3 (Removal of abandoned vehicles) of the 1978 Act, the vehicle shall be dealt with under that Act as if this Act had not come into force.

PART 3

PUBLIC HEALTH AND THE ENVIRONMENT

9 Nuisance from birds

- (1) If in the opinion of a borough council the habitual nesting, roosting or alighting of birds on any part of a building or structure (including a bridge) fronting upon, crossing or overhanging a highway in the area of the council is a source of nuisance to pedestrians using that highway, the council may serve a notice under this section upon the owner or occupier of the building or structure.

This subsection is subject to the provisions of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 (c. 69) and to subsection (4) below.

- (2) If after reasonable enquiry the council have been unable to ascertain the name and address of the owner or occupier, they may affix a notice to the building or structure.
- (3) A notice under this section is a notice requiring, within such reasonable time (not being less than 28 days) as may be specified in the notice, the owner or occupier of the building or structure to take measures for the purpose of preventing or minimising the habitual nesting, roosting or alighting of birds on the part of the building or structure concerned and the council may specify such measures in the notice.
- (4) The measures which may be specified in a notice under this section may include the erection of baffles, nets or wires or the laying of gel on the building or structure or other measures of a like nature but shall not include any method prohibited by the said Act of 1981.
- (5) The sections of the Public Health Act 1936 (c. 49) mentioned in Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect as if references therein to that Act included references to this section.
- (6) This section shall have effect as if it were an Act or order to which section 42 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1976 (c. 57) (which makes provision for certain local Acts and orders to be subject to the planning enactments) applies.
- (7) Subsections (8) to (10) below apply where a borough council serve a notice under this section on—
  - (a) the British Railways Board, in respect of any bridge owned by the Board; or
  - (b) any protected party in respect of its operational land, and the notice specifies measures to be taken for the purpose mentioned in subsection (3) above.

- (8) The party on whom a notice under this section is served may, within a period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the notice is served, serve a counter-notice on the borough council specifying alternative measures which will in their reasonable opinion have the effect of preventing or minimising the habitual nesting, roosting or alighting of birds on the part of the building or structure concerned to the same or greater extent than the measures specified in the notice.

- (9) Where a counter-notice is served under subsection (8) above, the notice served under subsection (1) above shall be deemed to specify the alternative measures specified in the counter-notice and shall be deemed to have been served on the date the counter-notice was served.
- (10) Where a counter-notice is served under subsection (8) above and, before the expiry of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the counter-notice is served, the council serves a further notice requiring further measures to be taken, the protected party shall comply with the further notice within such period as may be specified in the further notice.
- (11) The measures specified in any such further notice shall complement the measures specified in the counter-notice to which it relates.
- (12) The period within which—
  - (a) an owner or occupier must comply with the requirements of a notice served under subsection (1) above; or
  - (b) a protected party must comply with the requirements of—
    - (i) a counter-notice served under subsection (8) above; or
    - (ii) a further notice under subsection (10) above,may be extended with the agreement of the council.
- (13) In this section “protected party” means—
  - (a) Network Rail Infrastructure Limited;
  - (b) Transport for London;
  - (c) the British Waterways Board;
  - (d) the Port of London Authority, and their subsidiaries (within the meaning given by section 736 of the Companies Act 1985 (c. 6)), servants, agents and contractors.

10 Dangerous structures and demolitions

- (1) Section 81(1)(b) (Local Authority’s power to serve notice about demolition) of the Act of 1984 shall have effect in the area of a borough council as if—
  - (a) for the reference to an order made under section 77 (Dangerous building) of the Act of 1984 there were substituted a reference to an order made under section 64 (Proceedings to enforce compliance with notice) of the Act of 1939; and
  - (b) for the reference to a notice given under section 79 (Ruinous and dilapidated buildings and neglected sites) of the Act of 1984 there were substituted a reference to an order under section 69 (Removal of dilapidated and neglected structures) of the Act of 1939.
- (2) Section 45 of the London Local Authorities Act 2000 (c. vii) is amended as follows—
  - (a) in subsection (4), after “dangerous buildings)” the words “, section 78 (Dangerous building – emergency measures)” are inserted;

- (b) in subsection (5), the figures “77 to 80, 82, 83” are replaced by the figures “77 to 79”; and
  - (c) in subsection (6), in the definition of “the London Building Acts”, the words “as amended” to the end are omitted.
- (3) A borough council may recover from a person on whom a notice is served under section 81 of the Act of 1984 any expenses reasonably incurred by them under that section, in addition to any expenses recoverable under section 99 of that Act.
- (4) Sections 107 to 110 of the Act of 1984 shall apply in respect of expenses recoverable under subsection (3) above as they apply in respect of expenses to which those sections apply.
- (5) In its application under subsection (4) above, for the reference in the said section 107 to the person who is the owner of the premises at the date on which the works were completed there shall be substituted a reference to the person on whom the notice under the said section 81 was served.
- (6) In this section—
“the Act of 1939” means the London Building Acts (Amendment) Act 1939 (c. xcvi);
“the Act of 1984” means the Building Act 1984 (c. 55).

11 Repair, etc., of vehicles on highways

- (1) Subsection (2)(b) of section 5 (Repair, etc., of vehicles on highways) of the Greater London Council (General Powers) Act 1982 (c. i) is repealed.
- (2) After subsection (4) of that section, the following subsection is inserted—“(4A) A person shall not be convicted of an offence under this section if he proves to the satisfaction of the court that the works were carried out otherwise than—
(a) in the course of, or for the purposes of, a business; or
(b) for gain or reward.”.

12 Defacement of buildings

- (1) Section 12 (Defacement of buildings) of the London Local Authorities Act 1995 (c. x) is amended in accordance with this section.
- (2) In subsections (1)(a), (1)(b), (3) and (7) the words “, apparatus or plant” are inserted after “premises”.
- (3) In subsection (6), at the end, the words “and, subject to subsection (6A) below, they may recover from the said person the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing” are inserted.
- (4) After subsection (6) the following subsections are inserted—
“(6A) The council may not recover their expenses under subsection (6) above in respect of a sign on a surface to which this section applies if the surface—
(a) forms part of a flat or a dwellinghouse; or

- (b) is within the curtilage of or forms part of the boundary of the curtilage of a dwellinghouse.
- (6B) In proceedings by the council against the person served with the notice for the recovery of any expenses which the council are entitled to recover from that person, it shall not be open to that person to raise any question which could have been raised on an appeal under this section.
- (6C) Sections 291 and 293 of the Public Health Act 1936 (c. 49) shall have effect as if references therein to that Act included references to this section.
- (6D) No council shall exercise their powers to recover expenses from any person under subsection (6) above until a code of practice dealing with the exercise of those powers has been published by a joint committee.”.
- (5) In subsection (9), the words “premises, apparatus or plant” are substituted for “building, wall, fence or other structure or erection”.
- (6) After subsection (9) the following subsection is inserted—
  - “(10) In this section—
    - “dwellinghouse” does not include a building containing one or more flats, or a flat contained within such a building;
    - “flat” means a separate and self-contained set of premises constructed or adapted for use for the purpose of a dwelling and forming part of a building from some other part of which it is divided horizontally;
    - “joint committee” means any joint committee established under section 101(5) of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70) and comprising at least one member from each borough council;
    - “premises” means building, wall, fence or other structure or erection.”.

13 Defacement of buildings: protection of universal postal service providers

- (1) For the purposes of section 12(1) (Defacement of buildings) of the London Local Authorities Act 1995 (c. x), a universal service provider shall be deemed to be the occupier of any plant or apparatus comprising a universal postal service letter box or universal postal service pouch-box belonging to it.
- (2) Before serving any notice under section 12(1)(a) of that Act in respect of a universal postal service letter box or universal postal service pouch-box a council shall serve not less than 28 days’ notice of their intention to do so on the universal service provider to which the letter box or pouch-box belongs.
- (3) In this section—
  - “universal service provider” means any universal service provider for the purposes of the Postal Services Act 2000 (c. 26);
  - “universal postal service letter box” has the meaning given in section 86(4) of that Act;
  - “universal postal service pouch-box” has the meaning given in paragraph 1(10) of Schedule 6 to that Act.

14 Defacement of buildings: further protection of railway and waterway undertakers

- (1) Section 12 (Defacement of buildings) of the London Local Authorities Act 1995 shall not apply to any surface which forms part of the operational land of a protected party unless it is a surface to which this section applies.
- (2) This section applies to any surface which abuts on or to which access is given directly from—
  - (a) a street; or
  - (b) any place other than a street to which the public have access as of right.
- (3) In this section—

“protected party” has the same meaning as in section 13 of the said Act of 1995;

“street” includes any highway, any bridge carrying a highway and any road, lane, mews, footway, square, court, alley or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not.

PART 4

FIXED PENALTIES

15 Fixed penalty offences

- (1) Where on any occasion an authorised officer of a borough council finds a person who he has reason to believe has on that occasion committed, in the area of that council, an offence under—
  - (a) any of the enactments mentioned in columns (1) and (2) of the table set out in Schedule 2 to this Act and described in column (3) of that table; or
  - (b) any byelaws made by the borough council under any enactment, the officer may give that person a notice offering him the opportunity of discharging any liability to conviction for that offence by payment of a fixed penalty.

- (2) Sections 16 (Fixed penalty notices), 17 (Levels of fixed penalties) and 18 (Fixed penalties: reserve powers of Secretary of State) of this Act shall apply in respect of fixed penalty notices under this section.
- (3) The Secretary of State may, by regulations, amend Schedule 2 to this Act by the addition of further offences to the list of offences therein described.
- (4) An authorised officer may not exercise the powers under subsection (1) above, and the said section 16 shall have no effect, until the levels of fixed penalties set by the councils in accordance with the said section 17 have come into force for the first time in accordance with the said section 18.

16 Fixed penalty notices

- (1) The provisions of this section shall have effect in relation to notices (in this section referred to as “fixed penalty notices”) which may be given under section 15 (Fixed penalty offences) of this Act by an authorised officer in respect of an offence.
- (2) Where a person is given a fixed penalty notice in respect of an offence—
  - (a) no proceedings shall be instituted for that offence before the expiration of 14 days following the date of the notice; and
  - (b) he shall not be convicted of that offence if he pays the fixed penalty before the expiration of that period.
- (3) A notice under this section shall give such particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the offence and shall state—
  - (a) the period during which, by virtue of subsection (2) above, proceedings will not be taken for the offence;
  - (b) the amount of the fixed penalty; and
  - (c) the name of the person to whom and the address at which the fixed penalty may be paid, and without prejudice to payment by any other method, payment of the fixed penalty may be made by pre-paying and posting to that person at that address a letter containing the amount of the penalty (in cash or otherwise).

- (4) Where a letter is sent in accordance with subsection (3) above, payment shall be regarded as having been made at the time at which that letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
- (5) The form of notices under this section shall be such as the Secretary of State may by order prescribe.
- (6) The fixed penalty payable in pursuance of a fixed penalty notice under this section shall be paid to the borough council.
- (7) Schedule 3 to this Act shall have effect with respect to financial provisions relating to fixed penalties payable in pursuance of a fixed penalty notice under this section.
- (8) In any proceedings a certificate which—
  - (a) purports to be signed by or on behalf of the chief finance officer of the borough council; and
  - (b) states that payment of a fixed penalty was or was not received by a date specified in the certificate, shall be evidence of the facts stated.

- (9) In this section, “chief finance officer”, in relation to a borough council, means the person having responsibility for the financial affairs of the council.

17 Levels of fixed penalties

- (1) It shall be the duty of the borough councils to set the levels of fixed penalties payable to them under section 16 (Fixed penalty notices) of this Act.
- (2) Different levels may be set for different areas in Greater London and for different cases or classes of case.
- (3) In setting the level of fixed penalty under subsection (1) above the councils may take account of—
  - (a) any reasonable costs or expected costs incurred or to be incurred in connection with the administration of the provisions of the enactment under which the particular fixed penalty offence is created; and
  - (b) the cost or expected cost of enforcing the provisions of the relevant enactment.
- (4) Levels of fixed penalties set by the councils in accordance with this section may only come into force in accordance with section 18 (Fixed penalties: reserve powers of Secretary of State) of this Act.
- (5) The councils shall publish, in such manner as the Secretary of State may determine, the levels of fixed penalties which have been set by the councils in accordance with this section.
- (6) The functions conferred on councils by subsections (1) and (5) above shall be discharged by the joint committee.
- (7) In this section, and the said section 18, “the joint committee” means any joint committee established under section 101(5) of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70) and comprising at least one member from each borough council.

The joint committee is to be formed before the end of the period of six months commencing on the date on which this Act is passed.

18 Fixed penalties: reserve powers of Secretary of State

- (1) Where the borough councils set any levels of fixed penalties under subsection (1) of section 17 (Levels of fixed penalties) of this Act, they shall notify the Secretary of State of the levels of fixed penalties so set.
- (2) Where notification of any levels of fixed penalties is required to be given under subsection (1) above, the levels of fixed penalties shall not come into force until after the expiration of—
  - (a) the period of one month beginning with the day on which the notification is given; or
  - (b) such shorter period as the Secretary of State may allow.
- (3) If, before the expiration of that period, the Secretary of State gives notice to the joint committee that he objects to the levels of fixed penalties on the grounds that some or all of them are or may be excessive, those levels of fixed penalties shall not come into force unless and until the objection has been withdrawn.

- (4) If, at any time before the levels of fixed penalties required to be notified under subsection (1) above to the Secretary of State have come into force, the Secretary of State considers that some or all of them are excessive, he may make regulations setting the levels of fixed penalties.
- (5) Levels of fixed penalties set under subsection (4) above must be no higher than those notified under subsection (1) above.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (4) above are without prejudice to the duty imposed on borough councils by subsection (1) of the said section 17; but where the Secretary of State makes any such regulations the councils must not set any further fixed penalties under the said subsection (1) until after the expiration of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the regulations are made.

PART 5

MISCELLANEOUS

19 Night café licensing

- (1) In section 4 (Interpretation of Part II) of the London Local Authorities Act 1990 (c. vii), in the definition of “night café”, for paragraphs (a) and (b) there shall be substituted—
  - “(a) any premises in a borough which are kept open, for public refreshments, at any time between 11pm and 5am; or
  - (aa) any premises in a borough which—
    - (i) are kept open, for public refreshment on the premises, at any time between 5am and 11pm; and
    - (ii) are also open, but not for that purpose, at any time between 11pm and 5am; or
