14. Upon any mortgage lease sale enfranchisement or exchange purporting to be made in pursuance of any trust or power herein contained no mortgagee lessee purchaser or other person dealing bonâ fide with the Trustees shall be bound or concerned to inquire whether the occasion for executing or exercising such trust or power has arisen or as to whether any special or other meeting of the said church has been held or as to the competency or regularity of any such meeting or of any requisition or resolution passed or purporting to have been passed thereat or as to whether the said church has been dissolved or any of the said other events have taken place or (except as the said restrictions contained in clauses 9 and 10 hereof) otherwise as to the propriety or regularity of any such mortgage lease sale enfranchisement or exchange and notwithstanding any impropriety or irregularity in such mortgage lease sale enfranchisement or exchange the same shall as regards a purchaser mortgagee lessee or other person as aforesaid (except as regards the said restrictions) be deemed to be within the aforesaid trusts or powers and be valid accordingly.

15. The following provisions as to the appointment of new Trustees and as to the discharge and retirement of Trustees by way of variation of the statutory provisions shall take effect:— A.D. 1909.

- (i) The number of Trustees shall not be reduced to less than five and upon any new appointment the number shall if possible be made up to at least the original number:
- (ii) No person shall be appointed a Trustee who is not a member of a Congregational Church and any Trustee who ceases to be a member of such a church or who becomes bankrupt or remains out of the United Kingdom for more than twelve consecutive calendar months shall ipso facto cease to be a Trustee of the charity:
- (iii) A new Trustee may be appointed in the place of any Trustee who through death retirement or any other cause ceases to be a Trustee or who desires to be discharged from the trusts of the charity or who refuses or is unfit to act or is incapable of acting therein:
- (iv) The power of appointing new Trustees of the charity shall be vested in the said church such power to be exercised by resolution of a special meeting of the said church:
- (v) Any one of the Trustees may when there are more than five Trustees retire from the trusts of the charity on giving two calendar months' notice in writing of his intention so to do to the then pastor and deacons or one of the deacons of the said church (if there shall be such pastor or deacon) and to each of the other Trustees for the time being and upon the termination of such two months the Trustee giving the notice shall cease to be a Trustee to all intents and purposes provided that any notice sent by post to the last known usual place of abode in England of any Trustee shall be sufficient notice to him hereunder.

16. All the trusts powers discretions and authorities hereby given to or vested in the Trustees shall be exerciseable by a majority of the Trustees as fully and effectually in all respects as the same might have been exercised by the whole of the Trustees.

17. The following provisions shall apply to every special meeting of the said church:—

- (A) The meeting shall be convened by the minister or pastor or deacons for the time being of the said church or by the authority of the Trustees or of one-fifth in number of the members of the said church entitled to vote at such meeting by notice announcing the place day and hour of the meeting and the business or matter to be transacted or considered and such notice shall be given at each service held on the premises on the two Lord's days immediately preceding such meeting:

- (B) The meeting shall be fixed for and held not earlier than the Wednesday next following the second of such two Lord's days:
- (C) The only persons who shall be entitled to attend and vote at such meeting shall be those who whether male or female have attained the age of twenty-one years and have been members of the said church during at least the six calendar months next preceding the meeting:
- (D) No votes shall be given by proxy but votes may be given by ballot or otherwise as the said church may direct:
- (E) The term "a special resolution" in this scheme means a resolution passed at a special church meeting by a majority consisting of not less than two-thirds of the persons present and voting on the question before the meeting and the same shall be binding upon all the members of the said church whether present or not at such meeting:
- (F) Except where a special resolution is hereby expressly required a resolution passed at a special meeting by a simple majority of the persons voting on the question before the meeting shall be binding on all the members of the said church whether present or not at such meeting:
- (G) The proceedings and resolutions of the meeting shall be evidenced by a minute thereof under the hand of the chairman who shall have a casting vote and such minute shall be conclusive evidence that any resolution therein expressed to have been passed was passed at a meeting duly convened and held and by the requisite majority and it shall further be presumed that the person subscribing such minute as chairman was duly appointed to the office.

18. Except where it is hereby expressly provided that a special resolution of the said church or a resolution of a special meeting thereof is requisite the affairs of the said church and the provisions of this scheme may in all respects be managed and carried out under the direction of the members of the said church at ordinary meetings of the said church to which meetings the provisions of the last preceding clause hereof shall not apply but the same shall be held and regulated according to the ordinary practices and usages of Congregational Churches which practices and usages shall also apply to special meetings of the said church subject to the provisions of such last preceding clause hereof.
