

CHAPTER ix

An Act to confirm a Scheme of the Charity Commissioners for the application or management of certain Charities known as the Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy.

[14th May 1958.]

WHEREAS the Charity Commissioners in their Report to Her Majesty of their proceedings during the year one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven reported that they had approved and certified a Scheme for the application or management of the Charities:

And whereas the charities concerned are specified in the Schedules to the Scheme so approved and certified:

And whereas it is expedient that the Scheme as the same is fully set out and defined in the schedule to this Act should be confirmed:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The said Scheme is hereby confirmed:

Confirmation of Scheme.

Provided always that nothing in this Act or in the said Scheme shall be held to interfere with the ordinary jurisdiction over endowed charities now exercisable by the High Court of Justice and the Charity Commissioners.

2. This Act may be cited as the Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy Charities Scheme Confirmation Act, 1958.

SCHEDULE

SCHEME FOR THE APPLICATION OR MANAGEMENT OF THE FOLLOWING CHARITIES:—

The several Charities specified in the schedules to this Scheme, administered by the body corporate called the Governours of the Charity for Releefe of the Poor Widdowes and Children of Clergymen (commonly known as the Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy)

1. Administration of Charities.—The above-mentioned Charities and the respective endowments thereof shall be administered and managed subject to and in conformity with the provisions of this Scheme by the body corporate called the Governours of the Charity for Releefe of the Poor Widdowes and Children of Clergymen (commonly known as the Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy) the Trustees thereof.

2. Interpretation.—In this Scheme the following words shall have the following meanings:—

“Clergymen” shall mean bishops, deacons and priests of the Church of England who while in Holy Orders have been engaged in ecclesiastical, educational, charitable or other religious work whether beneficed or not;

“Child” shall include an adopted child.

3. Vesting.—In so far as the land specified in the First Schedule hereto and belonging to the Charity of the Reverend James Palmer is not already vested in the said body corporate the said land is hereby vested in the said body corporate for all the estate and interest therein belonging to or held in trust for that Charity.

4. Branches.—The Charities specified in the schedules hereto and the respective endowments thereof shall be administered and managed in seven several branches namely the Widows' Branch, the Daughters' Branch, the Widows or Daughters' Branch, the Children and Orphans' Branch, the Clergy Branch, the Sons' Branch and the General Eleemosynary Branch.

5. The Widows' Branch.—(1) The Widows' Branch shall consist of the Charities and the respective endowments thereof specified in the First Schedule hereto.

(2) The Trustees shall apply the clear yearly income of the Widows' Branch in giving assistance in grants, allowances or pensions to widows (who have not remarried) of clergymen who from age, ill-health, infirmity or other misfortune are in need of assistance. In special cases to be approved by the Charity Commissioners the Trustees may give assistance to such persons who having been widows of clergymen have or had remarried.

(3) In applying the said income of the Widows' Branch the Trustees may make grants to almshouses and other charitable institutions or organisations upon such terms as will ensure that their benefits are available for such widows as aforesaid.

6. The Daughters' Branch.—(1) The Daughters' Branch shall consist of the Charity and the endowments thereof specified in the Second Schedule hereto.

(2) The Trustees shall apply the clear yearly income of the Daughters' Branch in giving assistance in grants, allowances or pensions to unmarried daughters of clergymen who from age, ill-health, infirmity or other misfortune are unable to follow any gainful occupation and who are in need of assistance. In special cases to be approved by the Charity Commissioners the Trustees may give such assistance to daughters of clergymen in need as aforesaid but who have or had married.

(3) In applying the said income of the Daughters' Branch as aforesaid the Trustees may make grants to almshouses and other charitable institutions or organisations upon such terms as will ensure that their benefits are available for such daughters of clergymen as aforesaid.

7. The Widows or Daughters' Branch.—(1) The Widows or Daughters' Branch shall consist of the Charities and the respective endowments thereof specified in the Third Schedule hereto.

(2) The Trustees shall apply the clear yearly income of the Widows or Daughters' Branch in aid of either the Widows' Branch or of the Daughters' Branch and in such proportions and at such times as the Trustees think fit. The Trustees may apply a sum not exceeding £80 in any one year in making pensions or grants to widows or daughters of clergymen who are residents of Partis College in the Parish of Weston in the County of Somerset. The Trustees shall invest any income not applied as aforesaid in augmentation of the endowments of the Widows or Daughters' Branch.

8. The Children and Orphans' Branch.—(1) The Children and Orphans' Branch shall consist of the Charity and the endowments thereof specified in the Fourth Schedule hereto.

(2) The Trustees shall apply the clear yearly income of the Children and Orphans' Branch in making grants, single or periodic, for the assistance of or in aid of the maintenance, schooling, outfits or necessaries provided by those having the custody or care of children under the age of 21 years of clergymen including in particular such children as have no father.

9. The Clergy Branch.—(1) The Clergy Branch shall consist of the Charities and the respective endowments thereof specified in the Fifth Schedule hereto.

(2) The Trustees may apply the clear yearly income of the Clergy Branch so far as practicable in accordance with the subsisting trusts of the Charities constituting the said Branch, short particulars of which trusts are specified in the said Fifth Schedule. If and in so far as the income of any of the said Charities in any one year has not been applied in manner aforesaid the Trustees shall apply the same in giving assistance in grants or pensions to clergymen who are in need of assistance or who from age, ill-health, infirmity or other misfortune are no longer able to follow their calling and are in need of assistance.

10. The Sons' Branch.—(1) The Sons' Branch shall consist of the Charity and the endowments thereof specified in the Sixth Schedule hereto.

(2) The Trustees shall apply the clear yearly income of the Sons' Branch in such ways as they think fit for the education and advancement in life of the sons of poor clergymen including the payment of grants towards the assistance of their emigration to and establishment in any place outside the British Isles approved for this purpose by the Trustees.

11. The General Eleemosynary Branch.—The General Eleemosynary Branch shall consist of the Charity and the endowments thereof specified in the seventh schedule hereto. The Trustees shall apply the clear yearly income of the General Eleemosynary Branch at their discretion in aid of any one or more of the non-educational purposes set out in this Scheme.

12. Accounts.—All proper accounts in relation to the Charities shall be made out in each year and certified in such manner as the Charity Commissioners require and copies thereof shall be transmitted to the said Commissioners in compliance with the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Acts.

13. Alteration of Scheme.—The Court or the Charity Commissioners in the exercise of their ordinary jurisdiction may establish from time to time Schemes for the alteration of any of the provisions of this Scheme as if those provisions had been made by the founder in the case of a Charity having a founder.

14. Questions under Scheme.—Any question as to the construction of this Scheme or as to the regularity or the validity of any acts done or about to be done under this Scheme shall be determined by the Court or the Charity Commissioners upon such application made to them for the purpose as they think sufficient.

15. Date of Scheme.—The date of this Scheme shall be the date of the Act of Parliament confirming the same.
